The Elders in Ancient Israel Hanoch Reviv, 1983 The Elders in Ancient Israel: A Study of a Biblical Institution Hanoch Raviv, 1992-01 The Elders in Ancient Israel Hanôk Reviv, 1989 The Social History of Ancient Israel Rainer Kessler, An accessible social history of ancient Israel designed for Old Testament courses Includes a timeline and glossary of terms A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience Joel A. A. Ajayi, 2010 Ancient cultures such as that of the Hebrews commonly associated wisdom with advanced years In A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience the author investigates the validity of this correlation through an eclectic approach including linguistic semantic tradition historical and socio anthropological methods to pertinent biblical and extra biblical texts There are significant variations in the estimation of gerassapience or old age wisdom in each period of ancient Israel s life that is in pre monarchical monarchical and post monarchical Israel Throughout this study appropriate cross cultural parallels are drawn from the cultures of ancient Israel s neighbors and of modern societies such as the West African Yoruba tribe The overall results are bi dimensional On the one hand there are semantic elements of gerassapience such as the elusiveness of wisdom and the mild fluidity of old age Both terms have strong contextual affinity with minimal exceptions Thus the attribution of wisdom to old age is evident but not absolute in the Hebrew Bible Old Testament On the other hand gerassapience is depicted as primarily didactic through direct and indirect instructions and counsels of the elderly fostering the saging fear of Yahweh legacies On the whole socio anthropocentric tendencies of gerassapience that is of making old age a repertoire of wisdom are checked by theological warrants of theosapience Yahwistic wisdom Therefore in the Hebrew Bible the fear of Yahweh is also the beginning of growing old and wise The World of the Aramaeans P.M. The King and the Land Stephen C. Russell, 2017 The King and the Land offers an innovative history of space and power in the biblical world Stephen C Russell shows how the monarchies in ancient Israel and Judah asserted their power over strategically important spaces such as privately held lands religious buildings collectively governed towns and urban water systems Among the case studies examined are Solomon s use of foreign architecture David s dedication of land to Yahweh Jehu s decommissioning of Baal s temple Absalom s navigation of the collective politics of Levantine towns and Hezekiah s reshaping of the tunnels that supplied Jerusalem with water By treating the full range of archaeological and textual evidence available for the Iron Age Levant this book sets Israelite and Judahite royal and tribal politics within broader patterns of ancient Near Eastern spatial power The book s historical investigation also enables fresh literary readings of the individual texts that anchor its thesis

The Iron Age I Structure on Mt. Ebal Ralph K. Hawkins, 2012-06-01 In Josh 8 30

35 Israel constructs an altar on Mt Ebal in fulfillment of the command of Deut 27 1 8 This structure had very important social political and religious implications for Israel for it was the first structure to be built after the people entered the land of Canaan Once the altar was completed sacrifices were to be offered on it and a renewal of the covenant was to be carried out patterned after the ritual of Deut 31 9 13 This covenant renewal was necessary to integrate the people into the covenant who had not been a part of the Sinai experience The event was significant enough to establish nearby Shechem as the tribal league shrine and it was the first political and religious ceremony that the Israelites undertook following their entry into the land As a covenant ratification it could be described as their ratification as a nation The altar on Mt Ebal and its concomitant ceremony were therefore according to the claims of the Hebrew Bible of supreme importance in the life of ancient Israel In 1980 during the survey of the territory of Manasseh Israeli archaeologist Adam Zertal discovered a site on Mt Ebal dating to the period of Iron I during which the Israelites began to sedentarize in the central hill country of Canaan The site was excavated over eight seasons from 1982 to 1989 under the auspices of the University of Haifa and the Israel Exploration Society In 1985 Zertal published an article in which he suggested that the structure on Ebal may have been the altar of Josh 8 30 35 In The Iron Age I Structure on Mt Ebal Ralph Hawkins reviews the excavation on Mt Ebal and its results including the scarabs seals and animal bones found there He examines the architecture of the site in relation to Mesopotamian watchtowers altars and the descriptions of altars in mishnaic materials Ezekiel and Deuteronomic passages This fascinating book examines the Mt Ebal site using a comparative method for both the physical data and the textual data The site and its artifacts are analyzed and then compared with alternative proposals and literary traditions The site is placed in its broader regional context in order to determine how it might relate to the larger settlement picture of Iron Age I The primary purpose is to examine the data with a view to determining the nature and function of the site and its possible relation to Josh 8 30 35 A compelling read for biblical and archaeological students and scholars who will better be able to envision sites of past events

Transforming Authority Katharina Pyschny, Sarah Schulz, 2021-09-07 Human leadership is a multifaceted topic in the Hebrew Bible from a synchronic as well as diachronic perspective A large range of distributions emerges from the successive sharpening or modification of different aspects of leadership While some of them are combined to a complex figuration of leadership others remain reserved for certain individuals Furthermore it can be considered a consensus within scholarly debate that concepts of leadership have a certain connection to the history of ancient Israel which is though hard to ascertain Following a previous volume that focused on the Pentateuch and the Former Prophets BZAW 507 this volume deals with different concepts of leadership in selected Prophetic Hag Zech Jer and Chronic literature Ezr Neh Chr They are examined in a literary religious tradition historical and theological perspective Special emphasis is given to phenomena of transforming authority and leadership claims in exilic post exilic times Hence the volume contributes to biblical theology and sheds new light on the redaction reception history of the texts Not least it provides valuable insights into the history of religious and or political authorities in Israel and Early Judaism s 1 and 2 Samuel V. Philips Long,2016-01-12 Many today find the Old Testament a closed book The cultural issues seem insurmountable and we are easily baffled by that which seems obscure Furthermore without knowledge of the ancient culture we can easily impose our own culture on the text potentially distorting it This series invites you to enter the Old Testament with a company of guides experts that will give new insights into these cherished writings Features include Over 2000 photographs drawings maps diagrams and charts provide a visual feast that breathes fresh life into the text Passage by passage commentary presents archaeological findings historical explanations geographic insights notes on manners and customs and more Analysis into the literature of the ancient Near East will open your eyes to new depths of understanding both familiar and unfamiliar passages Written by an international team of 30 specialists all top scholars in background studies Jewish Studies on Premodern Periods Carl S. Ehrlich,Sara R. Horowitz,2023-05-22 This volume examines new developments in the fields of premodern Jewish studies over the last thirty years The essays in this volume written by leading experts are grouped into four overarching temporal areas the First Temple Second Temple Rabbinic and Medieval periods These time periods are analyzed through four thematic methodological lenses the social scientific history and society the textual texts and literature the material art architecture and archaeology and the philosophical religion and thought Some essays offer a comprehensive look at the state of the field while others look at specific examples illustrative of their temporal and thematic areas of inquiry The volume presents a snapshot of the state of the field encompassing new perspectives directions and methodologies as well as the questions that will animate the field as it develops further It will be of interest to scholars and students in the field as well as to educated readers looking to understand the changing face of Jewish studies as a discipline advancing human knowledge The Book of Joel Elie Assis,2013-04-11 Prophetic sayings are generally a reaction to immediate realities and therefore attempts to understand prophetic literature without the benefit of the prophet s historical milieu are limited or inaccurate Contrary to the prevailing opinion that Joel is post exilic the book is located within the exilic period recognising the lack of any rebuke consistent with a people experiencing deep despair The Book of Joel places great emphasis on the motif of the divine presence residing in the midst of Israel and it is asserted that the prophet s main purpose was to bring the people to renew their connection with the Lord after the destruction of the Temple which though physically ruined had not lost its religious significance A literary and rhetorical analysis demonstrates how the prophet sought to influence his audience Literary devices and rhetorical tools are investigated and their relevance and contribution to the book s meanings are explored One central feature of the book is its focus on a detailed discussion of the position and purpose of the locust plague employing recent literary approaches Symbols of Law Åke Viberg,2021-12-03 This analysis deals with Old Testament law in the form of legal symbolic acts defined as non verbal acts which fulfil a legal function when performed under the proper circumstances and when the legal function is different from the physical result of the act Legal symbolic acts belong to customary law Since the customary law of ancient Israel is not as well known as the codified law these acts provide important information regarding the customary law of ancient Israel Legal symbolic acts are also conventional i e they are not so much dependent upon their performance for their meaning as upon the general agreement attached to the acts by those who form the surrounding socio cultural context This invites a contextual approach to the texts in which the acts are described Such a contextual approach also restricts the use of comparative material to an illustrative function Only when the literary context cannot be used to conclude whether it is a case of a legal symbolic act or not will the comparative material be used in a further explanatory sense The analysis focuses on the three aspects of performance legal function and historical explanation and includes the following acts raising the hand shaking the hand putting the hand under the thigh walking through a divided animal sharing a meal piercing the ear of a slave anointing the head with oil grasping the horns of the altar transferring the mantle covering a woman with the mantle removing the sandal and putting a child on the knees
