Williams, 1992-04-01 Winner of the Gay Book of the Year Award American Library Association Ruth Benedict Award Society of Lesbian and Gay Anthropologists Award for Outstanding Scholarship World Congress for Sexology Author's note Shortly after the second revised edition this book was published in 1992 the term Two Spirit Person became more popular among native people than the older anthropological term berdache When I learned of this new term I began strongly supporting the use of this newer term I believe that people should be able to call themselves whatever they wish and scholars should respect and acknowledge their change of terminology I went on record early on in convincing other anthropologists to shift away from use of the word berdache and in favor of using Two Spirit Nevertheless because this book continues to be sold with the use of berdache many people have assumed that I am resisting the newer term Nothing could be further from the truth Unless continued sales of this book will justify the publication of a third revised edition in the future it is not possible to rewrite what is already printed Therefore I urge readers of this book as well as activists who are working to gain more respect for gender variance mentally to substitute the term Two Spirit in the place of berdache when reading this text Walter L Williams Los Angeles 2006

Misguided Love Charles Fensham,2019-11-01 The invitation of this book is for my readers who are Christian to consider the dimension of harm in the ongoing debates on affirming or not affirming sexual and gender minority Christians within church communities Much has been said and much is written on biblical interpretation and Christian traditions of teaching There are also many arguments on the issue of justice and equality that have been made for and against the affirmation of sexual and gender minorities Here I bring evidence of the history of harm and the infliction of harm on sexual and gender minority Christians In South Africa my country of origin I lived through the apartheid era and experienced first hand how biblical teaching can be used in pious ways to exploit discriminate and kill people Presently and in the past similar things happen to sexual and gender minority Christians When we discover that we do harm we must stop
