The End of the Novel of Love Vivian Gornick, 1997 In this book of new and collected critical essays Vivian Gornick turns the searching intelligence and honesty of insight that mark her memoirs on the work and the lives of writers she admires among them Jean Rhys Willa Cather Christina Stead and George Meredith In doing so she examines a century of novels of love in the Western world and comes to see that for most writers it is the drama of our angry and frightened selves in the presence of love that is our modern preoccupation A Novel Love Story Ashley Poston, 2024-06-25 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A professor of literature finds herself caught up in a work of fiction literally from the New York Times bestselling author of The Seven Year Slip and The Dead Romantics Eileen Merriweather loves to get lost in a good happily ever after The fictional kind anyway Because at least imaginary men don't leave you at the altar She feels safe in a book At home Which might be why she's so set on going her annual book club retreat this year she needs good friends cheap wine and grand romantic gestures no matter what But when her car unexpectedly breaks down on the way she finds herself stranded in a quaint town that feels like it's right out of a novel Because it is This place can't be real and yet she's here in Eloraton the town of her favorite romance series where the candy store's honey taffy is always sweet the local bar's burgers are always a little burnt and rain always comes in the afternoon It feels like home It's perfect and perfectly frozen trapped in the late author's last unfinished story Elsy is sure that's why she must be here to help bring the town to its storybook ending Except there is a character in Eloraton that she can't place a grumpy bookstore owner with mint green eyes an irritatingly sexy mouth and impeccable taste in novels And he does not want her finishing this book Which is a problem because Elsy is beginning to think the town's happily ever after might just be intertwined with her own The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 Gabriel García Márquez Rubén Pelayo, 2001-09-30 Winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1982 for his masterpiece One Hundred Years of Solitude Gabriel García Márquez had already earned tremendous respect and popularity in the years leading up to that honor and remains to date an active and prolific writer Readers are introduced to García Márquez with a vivid account of his fascinating life from his friendships with poets and presidents to his distinguished career as a journalist novelist and chronicler of the quintessential Latin American experience This companion also helps students situate García Márquez within the canon of Western literature exploring his contributions to the modern novel in general and his forging of literary techniques particularly magic realism that have come to distinguish Latin American fiction Full literary analysis is given for One Hundred Years of Solitude as well as Chronicle of a Death Foretold 1981 Love in the Time of Cholera 1985 two additional novels and five of García Márquez's best short stories Students are given guidance in understanding the historical contexts as well as the characters and themes that recur in these interrelated works Narrative technique and alternative critical perspectives are also explored for each work helping readers fully appreciate the literary accomplishments of Gabriel García Márquez Aspects of

Dostoevskii ,2012-01-01 Perhaps more than any other nineteenth century Russian writer Dostoevskii's continuing popularity rests on his contemporary relevance The prophetic streak in his creativity gives him the same lasting appeal as dystopian novelists such as Zamyatin and Orwell whom he influenced and whose ethical concerns he anticipated Religious themes are prominent in his work too and though he was a believer his interest seems to lie in the tension between faith and unbelief which was felt as keenly in the Russia of his time as in our own The nature of Dostoevskii's art also continues to be debated The older tendency to disparage his literary method has given way to a recognition of the originality of his techniques without which his ideological concerns would not have emerged with such thought provoking clarity The chapters which comprise this volume address these issues in a range of Dostoevskii's works from shorter classics such as House of the Dead and Notes from Underground to great novels such as Crime and Punishment and The Brothers Karamazov This work will be of use to scholars and students of Dostoevskii at all levels as well as to those with an interest in nineteenth century literature more generally

A Genealogy of the Gentleman Mary Beth Harris, 2024-03-15 A Genealogy of the Gentleman argues that eighteenth century women writers made key interventions in modern ideals of masculinity and authorship through their narrative constructions of the gentleman It challenges two latent critical assumptions first that the gentleman s masculinity is normative private and therefore oppositional to concepts of performance and second that women writers from their disadvantaged position within a patriarchal society had no real means of influencing dominant structures of masculinity By placing writers such as Mary Davys Eliza Haywood Charlotte Lennox Elizabeth Inchbald and Mary Robinson in dialogue with canonical representatives of the gentleman author Joseph Addison and Richard Steele David Hume Samuel Johnson and Samuel Richardson Mary Beth Harris shows how these women carved out a space for their literary authority not by overtly opposing their male critics and society s patriarchal structure but by rewriting the persona of the gentleman as a figure whose very desirability and appeal were dependent on women s influence Ultimately this project considers the import of these women writers legacy both progressive and conservative on hegemonic standards of masculinity that persist to this day

Novelistic Love in the Platonic Tradition Jennie Wang,1997 The love story is an integral part of many novels What is its narrative status How does it function and why In this original study of Socratic love stories from Plato through Fielding and Faulkner to the Postmodernists Jennie Wang proposes a new narrative theory in the study of the novel which deconstructs the mimesis of love stories and reconstructs their historicity Wang claims that in the Platonic tradition the construction of love stories is often a dramatization of the author s historical vision philosophical speculations cultural criticism or political ideology Novelistic love functions as a literary medium a power of free speech that enables the novelist to speak unspeakable truths and include excluded subjects Wang s work will be of interest to both philosophers and scholars of American literature and postmodernism The Country Minister's Love Story Maria Bell,1895 The Far Side of the Sun Kate Furnivall,2014-10-07 The new novel from the author of The Russian Concubine and Shadows on the Nile The Bahamas 1943 Hoping to escape her turbulent past twenty three year old Dodie Wyatt has fled to Nassau But the world is at war and one night the peaceful life she has created for herself is shattered when she discovers a man dying in an alleyway Ella Stanford is married to a powerful diplomat who s been appointed to keep the Duke of Windsor far from his Nazi friends in Germany And in this city now teeming with danger Ella has her own secrets ones that threaten to tear apart her safe and ordered life When Ella s world collides with Dodie s they find themselves caught in the spiral of violence and greed ripping through Nassau But Dodie falls deeply in love with a mysterious American stranger on the island and together they fight to uncover the truth behind the bloodshed while struggling to keep each other alive in this perilous new world Chariton of Aphrodisias and the Invention of the Greek Love Novel Stefan Tilg,2010-05-06 The best known variety of the ancient novel sometimes identified with the ancient novel tout court is the Greek love novel The question of its origins has intrigued scholars for centuries and has been the focus of a great deal of research Stefan Tilg proposes a new solution to this ancient puzzle by arguing for a personal inventor of the genre Chariton of Aphrodisias who wrote the first Greek and with that the first European love novel Narratives about Callirhoe in the mid first century AD Tilg s conclusion is drawn on the basis of two converging lines of argument one from literary history another from Chariton's poetics and will shed fresh light upon the reception of Latin literature in the Greek world      The Bookman ,1904      Love in Silence - 2 S. SUMNYAN,2018-11-12

Marriages are made in heaven is a well known adage The protagonists Anjali a beautiful Brahmin girl and Chetan a sensible tribal boy were destined to tie the knot in spite of inherent hurdles This fiction is based on their unspoken love Intense love for each other was ignited through an episode of novel exchange between Anjali and Chetan Both were shy and therefore never expressively communicated their love It all happened in silence and without a word of love being spoken It was truly love in silence
