The Chaplet Or De Corona Tertullian,2018-08-18 Keep for God His own property untainted He will crown it if He choose Nay then He does even choose He calls us to it To him who conquers He says I will give a crown of life Be you too faithful unto death and fight you too the good fight whose crown the apostle feels so justly confident has been laid up for him The angel also as he goes forth on a white horse conquering and to conquer receives a crown of victory and another is adorned with an encircling rainbow as it were in its fair colors a celestial meadow In like manner the elders sit crowned around crowned too with a crown of gold and the Son of Man Himself flashes out above the clouds If such are the appearances in the vision of the seer of what sort will be the realities in the actual manifestation Look at those crowns Inhale those odors Why condemn you to a little chaplet or a twisted headband the brow which has been destined for a diadem For Christ Jesus has made us even kings to God and His Father Tertullian      Tertullian - the Chaplet Or de Corona Quintus

Tertullianus,2015-08-04 Keep for God His own property untainted He will crown it if He choose Nay then He does even choose He calls us to it To him who conquers He says I will give a crown of life Be you too faithful unto death and fight you too the good fight whose crown the apostle feels so justly confident has been laid up for him The angel also as he goes forth on a white horse conquering and to conquer receives a crown of victory and another is adorned with an encircling rainbow as it were in its fair colors a celestial meadow In like manner the elders sit crowned around crowned too with a crown of gold and the Son of Man Himself flashes out above the clouds If such are the appearances in the vision of the seer of what sort will be the realities in the actual manifestation Look at those crowns Inhale those odors Why condemn you to a little chaplet or a twisted headband the brow which has been destined for a diadem For Christ Jesus has made us even kings to God and His Father Tertullian      Disciplinary, Moral, and Ascetical Works Tertullian,1959      Augustine, the Trinity, and the Church

Adam Ployd,2015-07-01 In Augustine the Trinity and the Church Adam Ployd argues that the anti Donatist sermons of 406 407 reveal Augustine s theologies of the Trinity and of the church as mutually informing rather than discrete topics as they are usually considered      Hebrews Erik M. Heen,Philip D. W. Krey,Thomas C. Oden,2014-02-19 The epistle to the Hebrews offers a profound high Christology and makes an awe inspiring contribution to our understanding of Jesus as our High Priest Including thirty four homilies from John Chrysostom and commentary from other church fathers from around the world this ACCS volume offers a rich treasure of ancient wisdom from Hebrews for the enrichment of the church today

1-2 Corinthians Thomas C. Oden,2013-07-04 The Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture is a unique twenty eight volume series encompassing all of Scripture and offering contemporary readers the opportunity to study for themselves the key writings of the early church fathers Arranged by the books of the Bible each portion of commentary allows the living voices of the church in its formative centuries to speak as they engage the sacred page of Scripture rendered throughout the series in English in the ecumenically accepted Revised Standard Version of the Bible The Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture does what very few of today's students of the Bible could do for themselves. With the aid of computer technology the vast array of writings from the church fathers including much that is available only in the ancient languages have been combed for their comment on Scripture. From these results scholars with a deep knowledge of the fathers and a heart for the church have hand selected material for each volume shaping, annotating and introducing it to today's readers. Each portion of commentary has been chosen for its salient insight, its rhetorical power and its faithful representation of the consensual exegesis of the early church. The Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture is an ecumenical project promoting a vital link of communication between today's varied Christian traditions and their common ancient ancestors in the faith. On this shared ground we listen as leading pastoral theologians of the church's first several centuries gather around the text of Scripture and offer their best theological, spiritual and pastoral insights. Today the historical critical method of interpretation has nearly exhausted its claim on the biblical text and on the church. In its wake there is a wide spread yearning among Christian individuals and communities for the wholesome, the deep and the enduring. The Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture seeks not to replace those excellent commentaries that have been produced in the twentieth century. It supplements them, framing them with interpretive voices that have long sustained the church and only recently have fallen silent. It invites us to listen with appreciative ears and sympathetic minds as our ancient ancestors in the faith describe and interpret the scriptural vistas as they see them. The Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture is a postcritical revival of the early commentary tradition known as the glossa ordinaria, a text artfully elaborated with ancient and authoritative reflections and insights. An uncommon companion for theological interpretation, spiritual reading and wholesome teaching and preaching.

Building the Body of Christ Daniel C. Cochran, 2020-11-17 In Building the Body of Christ Daniel C. Cochran argues that monumental Christian art and architecture played a crucial role in the formation of individual and communal identities in late antique Italy. The ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs that emerged during the fourth and fifth centuries not only reflected Christianity's changing status within the Roman Empire but also actively shaped those who used them. Emphasizing the importance of materiality and the body in early Christian thought and practice, Cochran shows how bishops and their supporters employed the visual arts to present a Christian identity rooted in the sacred past but expressed in the present through church unity and episcopal authority. He weaves together archaeological and textual evidence to contextualize case studies from Rome, Aquileia and Ravenna showing how these sites responded to the diversity of early Christianity as expressed through private rituals and the imperial appropriation of the saints. Cochran shows how these early ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs worked in conjunction with the liturgy to persuade individuals to adopt alternative beliefs, practices and values that contributed to the formation of institutional Christianity and the Christianization of late antique Italy.

1-2 Corinthians Gerald L. Bray, Thomas C. Oden, 2014-02-19 In Paul's letters to the Corinthian church the pastoral issues of a first century Christian community stand out in bold relief. This ACCS volume highlights the wisdom of Paul's epistles to the Corinthian church as interpreted by early church fathers such as Chrysostom Didymus the Blind Theodore of Mopsuestia Origen and Ambrosiaster      The Writings of Tertullian - Volume I Revised Tertullian,      Church Economist, 1897
