

How can you respond appropriately to politics?

1. The anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God (James 1:20). Involvement in politics should be wise, intelligent and from deep conviction not from anger or hostility. Inappropriate political responses from Christians are a poor witness.
2. Where possible, find the appropriate person and procedure for the matter (Ecclesiastes 8:5-6)
3. Be discreet in all you say, even in private – especially regarding powerful people (Ecclesiastes 10:20)
4. Expect opposition but let God deal with it. See how David responds to opposition in the Psalms – not by taking personal revenge but by taking his case to God for action. Never take revenge (Romans 12:19)
