The Company We Keep Wayne C. Booth, 1988 Bibliography of ethical criticism p 505 534 Presents arguments for the relocation of ethics to the center of literature examining periods genres and particular works The Company We Keep Wayne C. Booth, 1988 Presents arguments for the relocation of ethics to the center of literature examining periods genres and particular works The Company We Keep Wayne C. Booth, 1988 Wayne C Booth argues for the relocation of ethics to the center of our engagement with literature What he has succeeded in doing is to establish that ethical values must enter into our experience of literature Richard Eder Los Angeles Times Book Review Children's Literature as Communication Roger D. Sell, 2002-01-01 In this book members of the ChiLPA Project explore the children's literature of several different cultures ranging from ancient India nineteenth century Russia and the Soviet Union to twentieth century Britain America Australia Sweden and Finland The research covers not only the form and content of books for children but also their potential social functions especially within education These two perspectives are brought together within a theory of children's literature as one among other forms of communication an approach that sees the role of literary scholars critics and teachers as one of mediation Part I deals with the way children's writers and picturebook makers draw on a culture's available resources of orality literacy intertextuality and image Part II examines their negotiation of major issues such as the child/adult distinction gender politics and the Holocaust Part III discusses children's books as used within language education programmes with particular attention to young readers pragmatic processing of differences between the context of writing and their own context of reading The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels Eva-Maria Windberger, 2023-07-17 The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels combines the investigation of David Mitchell's novels with the introduction of a new critical concept to literary studies empowerment Aiming to situate and establish empowerment firmly within the context of literary studies it offers the first framework and definition for reading fictional texts with the lens of empowerment and applies it in the analysis of discourse the fictional characters and the role of the reader in Mitchell's novels Drawing on narratological analysis cognitive approaches to literature and reader response theory it features close readings of Cloud Atlas 2004 Black Swan Green 2006 and The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet 2010 and dissects the author's strategies poetics and agenda of empowering fiction This book argues for an inherent indissoluble connection between empowerment and the telling of stories and demonstrates how literary studies can benefit from a serious engagement with empowerment and how such an engagement can stimulate new responses to fiction and put literary studies in conversation with other disciplines The Essential Wayne Booth Wayne C. Booth, 2006-07-15 Publisher description
Stories and Their Limits Hilde Lindemann Nelson, 2014-01-21 Narratives have always played a prominent role in both bioethics and medicine the fields have attracted much storytelling ranging from great literature to humbler stories of sickness and personal histories And all bioethicists work with cases from court cases that shape policy matters to case studies that chronicle sickness But how useful are these various narratives for sorting out moral matters What kind of ethical work can stories do and what are the limits to this work The new essays in Stories and Their Limits offer insightful reflections on the relationship between narratives and ethics The Character of the Manager G. Beabout,2013-08-01 Explores Alasdair MacIntyre's criticisms of the manager and retrieves an interdisciplinary approach to character transforming arguments The manager as wise steward is proposed as a model for virtuous management Introduction to Ethical Literary Criticism Nie Zhenzhao,2023-09-15 The title is a thorough introduction to ethical literary criticism a critical methodology designed to interpret literature from the perspective of ethics including a whole set of concepts theories and working mechanisms Drawing on ideas from both Western ethical criticism and the Chinese tradition of moral criticism ethical literary criticism contrasts with the former in its occasional lack of a theoretical foundation and applicable methodologies and the latter that tends to make subjective moral judgments Its most ground breaking argument is that while natural selection answers how humans are different from animals physically ethical selection endows human beings with reason and ethical consciousness The ethical nature and edifying function of literature is therefore asserted seeking to unfold in the literary text the ethical choices of human beings as a way to complete ethical selection in society within historical context The arguments and theoretical toolbox inject a unique ethical dimension into literary criticism and help understand anew the ethical and social potency of literature The theoretical elucidation exemplary textual analyses and a supplement of key terminologies and ancillary materials make this book an essential guide for students and general readers interested in ethical literary criticism and scholars of literary criticism ethical criticism and literary theory Jane Austen and the Morality of Conversation Bharat Tandon,2003-03 An ingeniously innovative analysis of Jane Austen's work a highly respected and engaging critical study Through the Lens of the Reader Lilian R. Furst,1991-11-29 Through the Lens of the Reader is a sequence of ten essays exploring European narrative from the eighteenth to the twentieth century It covers a wide spectrum of authors ranging from Goethe through Balzac Flaubert Zola George Eliot Henry James to Rilke Thomas Mann and Kafka The essays are unified by a particular mode of reading in which the lens of the reader becomes the filter through which texts are constructed in accordance with the signals emitted by their narrational and linguistic strategies New Testament Ethics Frank J. Matera,1996-01-01 Neither Jesus nor Paul developed a formal ethical system yet each left a moral legacy that forms the core of New Testament ethics In this book Frank Matera examines the ethic found in the teachings of Jesus and Paul He explores the broad range of moral concerns found in these writings and finds an identifiable unity that underlies the ethical teachings of both Reading the Margins Michael J Gilmour,2024-09-24 The Bible and theology are contested spaces battlegrounds where participants guard entrenched beliefs against perceived threats But literature observes novelist Salman Rushdie opens the universe It expands what we perceive and understand and ultimately what we are Writers make our world feel larger and more inclusive When other forces push in the direction of narrowness bigotry tribalism cultism and war fiction encourages understanding sympathy and identification with others Reading the Margins invites readers to immerse themselves in imaginary worlds and to pursue visions of justice and compassion Whether stories about poverty empire war or the environment the writers considered raise moral questions and often in the process even unwittingly deepen our understanding of biblical calls for kindness and mercy Reading the Margins offers a kind of commentary on biblical ethics Using Matthew s Beatitudes and sheep and goats parable as an organizing principle Gilmour argues there is much to learn about Jesus s peacemakers and call to feed the hungry from aspirational fiction and poetry

Princeton Alumni Weekly Jesse Lynch Williams,Edwin Mark Norris,1988 Teaching Religion and Literature Daniel Boscaljon,Alan Levinovitz,2018-09-27 Teaching Religion and Literature provides a practical engagement with the pedagogical possibilities of teaching religion courses using literature teaching literature classes using religion and teaching Religion and Literature as a discipline Featuring chapters written by award winning teachers from a variety of institutional settings the book gives anyone interested in providing interdisciplinary education a set of questions resources and tools that will deepen a classroom s engagement with the field Chapters are grounded in specific texts and religious questions but are oriented toward engaging general pedagogical issues that allow each chapter to improve any instructor s engagement with interdisciplinary education The book offers resources to instructors new to teaching Religion and Literature and provides definitions of what the field means from senior scholars in the field Featuring a wide range of religious traditions genres and approaches the book also provides an innovative glimpse at emerging possibilities for the sub discipline American Theorists of the Novel Peter Rawlings,2007-01-24 Rawlings book explores the work of revolutionary critics Henry James Lionel Trilling and Wayne C Booth Packed with student friendly features he discusses their ideas on moral intelligence realism and representation and authors and narration Constructing Chaucer G. Gust,2009-05-25 This book examines the scholarly construction of Geoffrey Chaucer in different historical eras and challenges long standing assumptions to enhance the theoretical dialogue on Chaucer s historical reception Climate Change and the Contemporary Novel Adeline Johns-Putra,2019-03-21 Analysing how contemporary fiction explores climate change Johns Putra argues that literature can help us understand our obligations to the future Two Aspirins and a Comedy Metta Spencer,2015-12-03 An extraordinary book which makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the potential power for healing and goodness in television entertainment Arlie Hochschild author of The Time Bind 2001 Despite the light title this is a serious book about the healing possibilities of television Provocative and enlightening Beth Montemurro Penn State University Can television be a positive force in society Can socially conscious entertainment change the world Two Aspirins and Comedy arrives at surprising and unconventional answers to these questions Metta Spencer delves deep into the significance and power of entertainment as a means to influence society She finds current examples of socially constructive television and demonstrates how mass entertainment can better use its power to positively influence society In a climate where television is often a culprit for society's woes Spencer casts a redemptive eye on the medium She asserts that television like other fictional landscapes offers invaluable lessons emotional bonding and catharsis for a modern society whose members are increasingly isolated

Literature, Voice, Meaning Garry L Hagberg, 2025-05-31 There has been a steady stream of articles written on the relations between conceptions of meaning and the interpretation of literature but there remains a need for a book that both introduces and significantly contributes to an elucidation and understanding of the ways that voice and tone contribute to the determination of meaning Only rarely have considerations of voice been brought together with considerations of meaning determination the work of Stanley Cavell covered in one section of this book is a leading example This volume thus offers an analytically acute and culturally rich way of understanding how it is that we can productively think philosophically about meaning in language and literature in a more inclusive expansive and indeed human way
