Megatrends Defining the Future of Tourism Valentina Boschetto Doorly, 2020-06-23 This book identifies and describes five megatrends that will define the landscape of the Travel Tourism Hospitality industry with a particular focus on the European context Humans began travelling on the same day that Homo Sapiens first realized he could walk upright No boundaries mountains or cliffs have managed to stop or diminish our insatiable desire to find out what lies beyond the visible horizon Tourism has enjoyed virtually uninterrupted growth for the past several decades and the sector has now become the third largest source of export revenue after chemicals and fuel and ahead of the automotive and food sectors And yet in its current globalised format it is exposed to sudden shocks that can swiftly shake up the status quo accelerating the deployment of some megatrends here described We have all witnessed the Covid 19 pandemic and its devastating consequences for the industry While the number of international tourism arrivals to Europe has soared to over 700 million a year at the same time we are experiencing a period of deep transformation Bauman couldn't have been more accurate or insightful when he coined the word liquid in this regard As an exquisite expression of a civilized rich and discerning first world society travel and tourism are now changing shape and meaning requiring our business models to adapt What are the megatrends that will dictate the future shape of our industry's landscape Who is the new tourist if there is one and what is she looking for Is the new post technological era transforming the depth and the very essence of travelling This book offers a number of visionary insights as well as operational takeaways Travel and Transformation Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, 2016-02-24 Travel and tourism have a long association with the notion of transformation both in terms of self and social collectives What is surprising however is that this association has on the whole remained relatively underexplored and unchallenged with little in the way of a corpus of academic literature surrounding these themes Instead much of the literature to date has focused upon describing and categorising tourism and travel experiences from a supply side perspective with travellers themselves defined in terms of their motivations and interests While the tourism field can lay claim to several significant milestone contributions there have been few recent attempts at a rigorous re theorization of the issues arising from the travel transformation nexus The opportunity to explore the socio cultural dimensions of transformation through travel has thus far been missed Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers literary scholars and heritage researchers this volume explores what it means to transform through travel in a modern mobile world In doing so it draws upon a wide variety of traveller perspectives including tourists backpackers lifestyle travellers migrants refugees nomads walkers writers poets virtual travellers and cosmetic surgery patients to unpack a cultural phenomenon that has captured the imagination since the very first works of Western literature The Long Way Home Reece Davis, After years spent chasing distant horizons what happens when the road finally leads you back In The Long Way Home acclaimed travel writer Reece Davis turns his compass inward exploring the idea of home through the lens of a lifetime spent in motion From the quiet streets of his childhood to the far corners of the world where he s found pieces of himself Davis weaves a tapestry of memory movement and meaning With the lyrical grace of a memoir and the keen observation of a traveler he asks what it means to belong in a world without fixed borders and whether returning home is ever the same as staying Poignant introspective and deeply human The Long Way Home is a meditation on distance identity and the timeless journey between leaving and arriving Companion Animal Bereavement Angela Garner, 2021-10-06 This concise workbook is written as a guide for veterinary professionals to support owners through the many challenges they face before during and after the death of their companion animal This unique text provides a wealth of practical advice to be used when supporting both adults and children through the grief process It offers support when discussing subjects such as natural death versus euthanasia and guiding owners through after death services Also it covers the difficulties experienced by owners due to separation for other reasons such as when a pet has to be rehomed
