Peter Auer, Aldo Di Luzio

The Contextualization Of Language:

The Contextualization of Language Peter Auer, Aldo Di Luzio, 1992 This volume suggests a novel treatment of context in the analysis of everyday interaction On a theoretical level it advocates a switch of focus from context as a preestablished monolithic category which constricts co participants verbal and nonverbal behaviour to an active notion of contextualization in order to make oneself understood participants have to establish and maintain those shared contextual frames which in turn are relevant to the local interpretation of their verbal and nonverbal activities On an empirical level the volume contains exemplary analyses that show how participants employ contextualization cues of prosodic rhythm intonation tempo etc or nonverbal gaze gesture etc nature in order to achieve context The volume is also an appraisal of the theory of contextualization developed by John Gumperz In their contributions researchers from various schools of research such as conversation analysis micro ethnography phonetics phonology and metapragmatics relate their work to this theory The Contextualization of Language Peter Auer, Aldo Di Luzio, 1992-06-11 This volume suggests a novel treatment of context in the analysis of everyday interaction On a theoretical level it advocates a switch of focus from context as a preestablished monolithic category which constricts co participants verbal and nonverbal behaviour to an active notion of contextualization in order to make oneself understood participants have to establish and maintain those shared contextual frames which in turn are relevant to the local interpretation of their verbal and nonverbal activities On an empirical level the volume contains exemplary analyses that show how participants employ contextualization cues of prosodic rhythm intonation tempo etc or nonverbal gaze gesture etc nature in order to achieve context The volume is also an appraisal of the theory of contextualization developed by John Gumperz In their contributions researchers from various schools of research such as conversation analysis micro ethnography phonetics phonology and metapragmatics relate their work to this theory

International Perspectives on the Contextualization of Science Education Ingrid Sánchez Tapia, 2020-02-03 This book explores how science learning can be more relevant and interesting for students and teachers by using a contextualized approach to science education The contributors explore the contextualization of science education from multiple angles such as teacher education curriculum design assessment and educational policy and from multiple national perspectives The aim of this exploration is to provide and inspire new practical approaches to bring science education closer to the lives of students to accelerate progress towards global scientific literacy The book presents real life examples of how to make science relevant for children and adolescents of diverse ethnic and language backgrounds socioeconomic status and nationalities providing tools and guidance for teacher educators and researchers to improve the contextualization and cultural relevance of their practice The book includes rigorous studies demonstrating that the contextualization of science learning environments is essential for student engagement in learning science and practitioners reflections on how to apply this knowledge in the classroom and at national scale This approach makes this book valuable for researchers and professors of being redefined in a new cultural context Contextualization in the New Testament Dean Flemming, 2025-06-06 Winner of a Christianity Today Book Award Honored as one of the Fifteen Outstanding Books for Mission Studies by International Bulletin of Missionary Research From Cairo to Calcutta from Cochabamba to Columbus Christians are engaged in a conversation about how to speak and live the gospel in today's traditional modern and emergent cultures The technical term for their efforts is contextualization Missionary theorists have pondered and written on it at length More and more those who do theology in the West are also trying to discover new ways of communicating and embodying the gospel for an emerging postmodern culture But few have considered in depth how the early church contextualized the gospel And yet the New Testament provides numerous examples As both a crosscultural missionary and a New Testament scholar Dean Flemming is well equipped to examine how the early church contextualized the gospel and to draw out lessons for today By carefully sifting the New Testament evidence Flemming uncovers the patterns and parameters of a Paul or Mark or John as they spoke the Word on target and he brings these to bear on our contemporary missiological task Rich in insights and conversant with frontline thinking this is a book that will revitalize the conversation and refresh our speaking and living the gospel in today's cultures whether in traditional modern or emergent contexts

The Sociolinguistics of Iran's Languages at Home and Abroad Seyed Hadi Mirvahedi, 2019-06-29 This book examines the sociolinguistics of some of Iran's languages at home and in the diaspora The first part of the book examines the politics of minority languages and the presence of hegemonic discourses which favour Persian Farsi in Iran exploring issues such as language maintenance and shift linguistic ideologies and practices among Azerbaijani and Kurdish speaking communities The authors then go on to examine Iranians' linguistic ideologies practices and trans national identity construction in the diaspora investigating both the challenges of maintaining a home language and the strategies and linguistic repertoires employed when constructing a diasporic identity away from home This book will be of interest to students and scholars of minority languages and communities diaspora and migration studies and language policy and planning

Fundamentals of Verbal and Nonverbal Communication and the Biometric Issue Anna Esposito, NATO Programme for Security through Science, 2007 The main theme of this publication is the fundamental features of verbal and nonverbal communication and their relationships with the identification of a person his/her socio cultural background and personal traits The problem of understanding human behaviour in terms of personal traits and the possibility of an algorithmic implementation that exploits personal traits to identify a person unambiguously are among the great challenges of modern science and technology On the one hand there is the theoretical question of what makes each individual unique among all others that share similar traits and what makes a culture unique among various cultures On the other hand there is the technological need to be able to protect people from individual disturbance and dangerous behaviour that could damage an entire community interesting research areas is that related to human interaction and face to face communication It is in this context that knowledge is shared and personal traits acquire their significance
