Excerpt: The ecclesiastical history of Eusebius Pamphilus, Bishop of Caesarea. NOTICE: The edition of Eusebius here offered to the public is the first that has been issued in this country. It had its origin in the want of health to sustain the ordinary labours of the ministry and a wish to promote the knowledge and advance the cause of religion. The nature of the work and the estimation in which it has usually been held by the learned and pious sanction the measure the publisher was induced to adopt as being well calculated to answer the design. Circumstances attending the rise and early progress of Christianity in a great measure peculiar to the character, condition and wants of an infant Institution established by divine authority and protected to its completion by evident tokens of the divine presence and approbation highly interesting in their nature and extremely important to be known invest the Ecclesiastical History of Eusebius especially as it succeeds immediately to the Acts of the Apostles and is for a considerable period the only work of the kind with a degree of value to subsequent ages that no other uninspired document is entitled to claim. The undersigned is firmly persuaded that its extensive circulation will as it furnishes the means in a good degree of comparing modern with primitive times and of viewing them in contrast with each other tend to increase useful knowledge, promote soundness and unity in the faith, advance the cause of the church and maintain peace and quietness among all Christian people. In the confident opinion that a general acquaintance with primitive Christianity would effect much for its cause, he has frequently wished to see the mo... The Ecclesiastical History of Eusebius Pamphilus, Bishop of Caesarea, in Palestine ... Eusebius (of Caesarea, Bishop of Caesarea), 1833
