The Education Of Sophie:

The Education of Sophie Erich von Götha, 2001 World Yearbook of Education 1984 Sandra Acker, Jacquetta Megarry, Stanley Nisbet, Eric Hoyle, 2013-03-07 Published in the year 2005 World Yearbook of Education 1984 is a valuable contribution to the field of Major Works Changing the Educational Landscape Jane Roland Martin, 2017-09-29 Changing the Educational Landscape is a collection of the best known and best loved essays by the renowned feminist philosopher of education Jane Roland Martin Trained as an analytic philosopher at a time before women or feminist ideas were welcome in the field Martin brought a philosopher's detachment to her earliest efforts at revolutionizing the curriculum Her later essays on women and gender further showcase the tremendous intellectual energy she brought to the field of feminist educational theory Martin explores the challenges and contradictions posed by the very concept of women's education and also recognizes how the presence of women necessitates the rearticulation of not only the curriculum but also the standard ideologies in education The Education Feminism Reader Lynda Stone, Gail Masuchika Boldt, 1994 This anthology includes some of the most important and influential essays in feminist education theory since the late 70s Contributors are drawn from traditional liberal feminists radical postmodern theorists and those with psychological philosophical and political agendas Rousseau and the Politics of Ambiguity Mira Morgenstern, 2010-11-01 On Becoming an Education Professional: A Psychosocial Exploration of Developing an Education Professional Practice Alan Bainbridge, 2016-09-23 This book draws together a variety of detailed case studies to demonstrate the unique interaction between the past and the present which occurs within the professional education context Using a psychosocial approach Alan Bainbridge suggests that this process of identity or role formation requires the expectations and fantasies of the past to be negotiated at the unconscious individual and social level A focus on personal agency and dealing with the complexity inherent in education settings highlights the macro and micro negotiations new education professionals are required to undertake between the margins of the personal and professional to provide a more nuanced model for early professional development Citoyennes Annie Smart, 2011-12-23 In Citoyennes Annie Smart argues that many revolutionary and pre-revolutionary works constructed a civic identity for women and portrayed the home as a site for both civic virtue and private subjectivity This interdisciplinary study offers a fresh interpretation of the role of women and the home in eighteenth century France and goes a long way to filling a gaping hole in the contemporary literature on the subject Rousseau on Education, Freedom, and Judgment Denise Schaeffer, 2014-01-02 In Rousseau on Education Freedom and Judgment Denise Schaeffer challenges the common view of Rousseau as primarily concerned with conditioning citizens' passions in order to promote republican virtue and unreflective patriotism Schaeffer argues that to the contrary Rousseau's central concern is the problem of judgment and how to foster it on both the individual and political level in order to create the conditions for genuine self-rule Offering a detailed commentary on Rousseau's major work on education Emile and a wide-ranging analysis of the relationship between Emile and several of Rousseau's other works Schaeffer explores Rousseau's understanding of what good judgment is how it is learned and why it is central to the achievement and preservation of human freedom The model of Rousseauian citizenship that emerges from Schaeffer's analysis is more dynamic and self-critical than is often recognized This book demonstrates the importance of Rousseau's contribution to our understanding of the faculty of judgment and more broadly invites a critical reevaluation of Rousseau's understanding of education citizenship and both individual and collective freedom

The Odyssey of Political Theory Patrick J. Deneen, 2003-04-14 This path-breaking and eloquent analysis of The Odyssey and the way it has been interpreted by political philosophers throughout the centuries has dramatic implications for the current state of political thought This important book offers readers original insights into The Odyssey and it provides a new understanding of the classic works of Plato Rousseau Vico Horkheimer and Adorno Through his analysis Patrick J. Deneen requires readers to rethink the issues that are truly at the heart of our contemporary Culture Wars and he encourages us to reassess our assumptions about the Western canon's virtues or viciousness Deneen's penetrating exploration of Odysseus's and our own enduring battles between the dual temptations of homecoming and exploration patriotism and cosmopolitanism and relativism and universality provides an original perspective on contentious debates at the center of modern political theory and philosophy

Education Reconfigured Jane Roland Martin, 2011-05-15 As philosophers throughout the ages have asked What is justice What is truth What is art What is law In Education Reconfigured the internationally acclaimed philosopher of education Jane Roland Martin now asks What is education In answer she puts forward a unified theory that casts education in a brand new light Martin's theory of education as encounter places culture alongside the individual at the heart of the educational process thus responding to the call John Dewey made over a century ago for an enlarged outlook on education Look through her theory's lens and you can see that education takes place not only in school but at home on the street in the mall everywhere and all the time Look through that lens and you can see that education does not always spell improvement rather it can be for the better or the worse Indeed you can see that education is inevitably a maker and shaper of both individuals and cultures Above all Martin's new educational paradigm reveals that education is too important to be left solely to the professionals that it is one of the great forces in human society and as such deserves the attention and demands the vigilance of every thoughtful person

Education Feminism Barbara J. Thayer-Bacon, Lynda Stone, Katharine M. Sprecher, 2013-11-18 Winner of the 2015 Critics Choice Book Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association Winner of the 2015 Critics Choice Book Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association Education Feminism is a revised and updated version of Lynda Stone's out of print anthology The Education Feminism Reader The text is intended as a course text and provides students a foundational base in feminist theories in education The classics section is comprised of the readings that students have most responded to in classes The contemporary readings section demonstrates how the third wave feminist criticism of the 1990s has an impact on today's feminist work Both of these sections address critical multicultural educational issues and have an inclusive diverse selection of feminist scholars who bring race class sexual orientation religious practices and colonial postcolonial perspectives to bear on their work The individual essays are concise and well written and arranged in such a way that it is easy for instructors to assign them around themes of their own choosing Jean Jacques Rousseau

and Education from Nature Gabriel Compayré, 1907 This book is a lengthy work of literary criticism on Jean Jacques Rousseau's mile or On Education Rousseau considered mile his best and most important work however because of the chapter entitled Profession of Faith of the Savoyard Vicar the book was banned in Paris and Geneva and publicly burned the year it was published mile proposes a system of education that maintains the value of the individual within a corrupt society

Jean Jacques Rousseau and Education from Nature Jules Gabriel Compayré, 1908 The Educated Person D. G. Mulcahy, 2008-03-27 Liberal education has long been a fascination for scholars in a variety of disciplines and is closely associated with the idea of the educated person Seen at one time as a matter for colleges and universities over the years it has become central to the debate surrounding general education in high school and even the earlier grades Yet so many and varied are the uses of the term liberal education that the question arises of whether and how the idea is any longer a useful or helpful construct In what way might it speak helpfully to educational challenges we face today In what ways does it still speak helpfully to educational challenges we face today In what ways might it be a guide as we search for a better way forward These are the central questions that are addressed in this book In doing so the positions of three theorists John Henry Newman Mortimer J Adler and Jane Roland Martin who have written about liberal education in a compelling way and from different perspectives are selected for close analysis The analysis is built upon to fashion a new ideal of the educated person and a new theory of liberal education Reclaiming a Conversation Jane Roland Martin, 1987-07-01 Examines the theories of Plato Rousseau Mary Wollstonecraft Catherine Beecher and Charlotte Perkins Gilman concerning the education of women Why We Are Restless Benjamin Storey, Jenna Silber Storey, 2021-04-06 A compelling exploration of how our pursuit of happiness makes us unhappy We live in an age of unprecedented prosperity yet everywhere we see signs that our pursuit of happiness has proven fruitless Dissatisfied we seek change for the sake of change even if it means undermining the foundations of our common life In Why We Are Restless Benjamin and Jenna Storey offer a profound and beautiful reflection on the roots of this malaise and examine how we might begin to cure ourselves Drawing on the insights of Montaigne Pascal Rousseau and Tocqueville Why We Are Restless explores the modern vision of happiness that leads us on and the disquiet that follows it like a lengthening shadow In the sixteenth century Montaigne articulated an original vision of human life that inspired people to see themselves as individuals dedicated to seeking contentment in the here and now but Pascal argued that we cannot find happiness through pleasant self seeking only anguished God seeking Rousseau later tried and failed to rescue Montaigne's worldliness from Pascal's attack Steeped in these debates Tocqueville visited the United States in 1831 and observing a people restless in the midst of their well being discovered what happens when an entire nation seeks worldly contentment and finds mostly discontent Arguing that the philosophy we have inherited despite pretending to let us live as we please produces remarkably homogenous and unhappy lives Why We Are Restless makes the case that finding true contentment requires rethinking our most basic assumptions about happiness
