programme is welcome more resources are needed to develop capacity in initial teacher training places for citizenship education

Teacher Education Systems in Africa in the Digital Era Adegoke, Bade, Oni, Adesoji, 2015-10-19 Teacher education is vital for the realization of a nation's development aspirations. The conception, incubation and delivery of any national development policy as well as the reform and implementation of extant policies are driven by the quality of teachers and their products within a functional educational system. Indeed, national and global models of development including the millennium development goals revolve round the frames of quality education beginning with teacher education. It is therefore important to have functional teacher education systems in Africa to help its citizens explore the networking of the world as a global village. This is achievable through a systematic mobilization of national resources and visible commitment to the development of a modernized cadre of scientific and technological manpower. This book is a rich exposition of theories and praxes essential for the development of teacher education in Africa. The book has immense benefits for teachers, teacher trainers, funding agencies, other stakeholders and policy makers.

Global Perspectives on Teacher Education Colin Brock, 1997-01-01 All over the world teachers are at the sharp end of education. Whatever the level of development of any given country, expectations of them are always high, usually too high. They tend to be routinely blamed for the ills of society and are rarely given credit. Is there now a situation of crisis in teacher education worldwide? This book highlights the predicament of teachers in widely differing locations and situations.

International Summit on the Teaching Profession: Building a High-Quality Teaching Profession: Lessons from around the World Schleicher, Andreas, 2011-11-21 This report presents the best current evidence about what can make teacher-oriented reforms effective and points to examples of reforms that have produced specific results. It shows promise or illustrates imaginative ways of implementing change.
