The Eight Suns Of Asian Service:

The Eight Suns of Asian Service David Freemantle, 2003 Pakistan's Inter-Services Intelligence Directorate Owen L. Sirrs, 2016-07-01 This book is the first comprehensive study of Pakistan's Inter Services Intelligence Directorate ISI The rise of Pakistan backed religious extremist groups in Afghanistan India and Central Asia has focused international attention on Pakistan's premier intelligence organization and covert action advocate the Inter Services Intelligence Directorate or ISI While ISI is regarded as one of the most powerful government agencies in Pakistan today surprisingly little has been written about it from an academic perspective This book addresses critical gaps in our understanding of this agency including its domestic security mission covert backing of the Afghan Taliban and its links to al Qaeda Using primary source materials including declassified intelligence and diplomatic reporting press reports and memoirs this book explores how ISI was transformed from a small negligible counter intelligence outfit of the late 1940s into the national security behemoth of today with extensive responsibilities in domestic security political interference and covert action This study concludes that reforming or even eliminating ISI will be fundamental if Pakistan is to successfully transition from an army run national security state to a stable democratic society that enjoys peaceful relations with its neighbours This book will be of interest to students of intelligence studies South Asian politics foreign policy and international security in general Touring Variety in the Asia Pacific Region, 1946-1975 Jonathan Bollen, 2020-05-06 Aviation extended the horizon of international touring across Asia and the Pacific in the 1950s and 1960s Nightclubs in Hong Kong Manila Melbourne Singapore Sydney Tokyo and Taipei presented an international array of touring acts This book investigates how this happened It explores the post war formation of the Asia Pacific region through international touring and the transformation of entertainment during the jet age of aviation Drawing on archival research across the region Bollen investigates how touring variety forged new relations between artists audiences and nations Mapping tours and tracing networks by connecting fragments he reveals how versatile artists translated repertoire in circulation as they toured and how entrepreneurial endeavours harnessed the production of national distinction to government agendas He argues that touring variety on commercial circuits diversified the repertoire in regional circulation anticipating the diversity emerging in state sanctioned multiculturalisms and driving the government construction of national theatres for cultural diplomacy The Christian Science Journal, 1927 Intelligence Services in South Asia Ryan Shaffer, ASM Ali Ashraf, 2025-02-18 This book explores colonial and post colonial intelligence services in South Asia It traces the genealogy of the institutions to analyze changes and continuities throughout the region The volume also provides a framework for analyzing how intelligence services developed in these countries by looking at both internal and external issues and shows how vital and sometimes interconnected these issues are for understanding intelligence in South Asia It demonstrates how some countries and intelligence services borrowed from the colonial era and others started new institutions to protect national security in response to the shifting demands of the Cold War and post Cold War era
