Resurrection of the Dead in Early Judaism, 200 BCE-CE 200 C. D. Elledge, 2017-05-05 Resurrection of the dead represents one of the more enigmatic beliefs of Western religions to many modern readers In this volume C D Elledge offers an interpretation of some of the earliest literature within Judaism that exhibits a confident hope in resurrection He not only aids the study of early Jewish literature itself but expands contemporary knowledge of some of the earliest expressions of a hope that would become increasingly meaningful in later Judaism Christianity and Islam Elledge focuses on resurrection in the latest writings of the Hebrew Bible the Apocrypha Pseudepigrapha Dead Sea Scrolls as well as the writings of other Hellenistic Jewish authors He also incorporates later rabbinic writings early Christian sources and inscriptions as they shed additional light upon select features of the evidence in question This allows for a deeper look into how particular literary works utilized the discourse of resurrection while also retaining larger comparative insights into what these materials may teach us about the gradual flourishing of resurrection within its early Jewish environment Individual chapters balance a more categorical comparative approach to the problems raised by resurrection definitions diverse conceptions historical origins strategies of legitimation with a more specific focus on particular pieces of the early Jewish evidence 1 Enoch Dead Sea Scrolls Josephus Resurrection of the Dead in Early Judaism 200 BCE CE 200 provides a treatment of resurrection that informs the study of early Jewish theologies as well as their later reinterpretations within Rabbinic Judaism and Christianity
