Managing Quality H.T.O . Davies,M. Tavakoli,M. Malek,A. Neilson,2018-12-21 First published in 1999 this eclectic collection of papers examines quality management in health care from a variety of standpoints Managers health care professionals and patients all have valid but often differing perspectives on the nature of quality its creation and maintenance This book explores these perspectives beginning by asking such fundamental questions as Is health care a business How should health services be designed and What is quality of care Subsequent chapters then address the practicalities of measuring and improving health care quality The chequered history of clinical audit is exposed in the UK essentially the Plan Do Check Act cycle familiar to quality improvement specialists and lessons are drawn for managerial action needed to increase the impact of such activities These lessons have wider relevance to all involved in promoting the principles of continuous quality improvement CQI In addition exploration of the growing role of performance indicators raises important issues about their meaningfulness and instrumentality in effecting real change Improving clinical quality is now at the top of the agenda for many health systems

This book reviews the challenges faced and the tools available to meet them. It should prove valuable to a wide range of health care stakeholders interested in broadening their understanding of this rapidly developing field. Health Care Policy, Performance and Finance Manouche Tavakoli, 2017. Policy performance and finance are the issues currently headlining the healthcare agenda and are likely to remain so for the foreseeable future. Drawing on experiences from around the world, this essential collection examines the key strategic issues facing health services and analyzes the policy implications of leading new research. The volume brings together 16 newly commissioned studies from leading experts in health studies in particular policy, economics, health care management, and health services research. International in perspective and scope, it draws on empirical evidence from East and West Europe, Canada, New Zealand, and the Middle East. Themes covered include health policy and technology, assessment policy and performance, international policy innovation, and organizational innovation. This ground-breaking collection will prove a valuable guide for policy makers, managers, practitioners, researchers, and students. Provided by publisher. Introduction to Health Care Management Sharon B. Buchbinder, Nancy H. Shanks, 2011-07-19. Organisation Development in Health Care Huw T.O. Davies, Mo Malek, 2017-10-05. This title was first published in 2002. Health systems across the globe face similar problems: controlling costs while maintaining or improving health care quality and access. Notwithstanding the unprecedented health system reforms of the past decades, many outstanding problems remain in these areas. Drawing on experts from Europe and America, this eclectic collection of leading edge research examines the impact of organizational development on improving quality and efficiency in health care. A series of chapters provide accounts of organizational reconfiguration in the UK and elsewhere. The contributors examine how structural and procedural changes must be matched by the development of human resource services if increases in efficiency and effectiveness are to be achieved. The book will be of interest to health care academics, policy makers, managers, and practitioners who are interested in keeping abreast of the latest developments in health care research. Health Policy and Economics Manouche Tavakoli, Huw Davies, Mo Malek, 2017-10-19. This title was first published in 2001. The papers in this volume, selected from nearly 100 submissions to the Fourth International Conference on Strategic Issues in Health Care Management, reflect the work taking place in health economics. The first five chapters in the collection examine the role of economics within clinical guidelines and suggest methods of improving the quality of economic evaluation, which is now at the centre of decision making in the NHS. The second section of the book is comprised of two papers on inequalities and access. The third part contains four papers, two of which cover reviews and tackle some theoretical issues regarding demand, and two are applied case studies. The fourth section assesses performance, and the final four papers review health reforms in a number of countries, including the UK, Canada, France, and Turkey. Health Care Policy, Performance and Finance Huw Davies, Manouche Tavakoli, 2004. Policy performance and finance are the issues currently headlining the healthcare agenda and are likely to remain so for the foreseeable future. Drawing on experiences from around the world this essential collection examines the key strategic issues facing health services and analyzes the policy implications for leading new research
