Strategies In Rhetoric From Thought To Symbol:

Strategies in Rhetoric Tom E. Kakonis, James C. Wilcox, Helen M. Schultz, 1971-01-01 The Rhetoric of Western Thought James L. Golden, 2003 Harvard Studies in Comparative Literature Harry Levin, 1972 Invention in Rhetoric and Composition Janice M. Lauer, 2004

Invention in Rhetoric and Composition examines issues that have surrounded historical and contemporary theories and pedagogies of rhetorical invention citing a wide array of positions on these issues in both primary rhetorical texts and secondary interpretations. It presents theoretical disagreements over the nature purpose and epistemology of invention and pedagogical debates over such issues as the relative importance of art talent imitation and practice in teaching discourse. After a discussion of treatments of invention from the Sophists to the nineteenth century, Invention in Rhetoric and Composition introduces a range of early twentieth century multidisciplinary theories and calls for invention's awakening in the field of English studies. It then showcases inventional theories and pedagogies that have emerged in the field of Rhetoric and Composition over the last four decades including the ensuing research critiques and implementations of this inventional work. As a reference guide, the text offers a glossary of terms, an annotated bibliography of selected texts, and an extensive bibliography. Janice M. Lauer is Professor of English Emerita at Purdue University where she was the Reece McGee Distinguished Professor of English. In 1998 she received the College Composition and Communication Conference's Exemplar Award. Her publications include Four Worlds of Writing: Inquiry and Action in Context, Composition Research: Empirical Designs, and New Perspectives on Rhetorical Invention, as well as essays on rhetorical invention, disciplinary writing as inquiry, composition pedagogy, historical rhetoric, and empirical research.

Rhetorical and Critical Approaches to Public Relations II Dr. Robert L. Heath, Elizabeth L. Toth, 2013-11-05. This volume is the first to illustrate the application of rhetorical theory and critical perspectives to explain public relations practices. It provides a systematic and coherent statement of the critical guidelines and philosophical underpinnings of public relations and as such should guide pedagogy and practice. It also supplies pedagogic and critical standards with which to meet the needs of an increasingly sophisticated society that tends to reject all of public relations as propaganda. With the enormous amount of money spent on product publicity and public policy debates, this book gives practitioners a sense of whether their public relations campaigns make a contribution to the organizational bottom line by means of achieving the timeless standards of the art of rhetoric.

The History and Theory of Rhetoric James A. Herrick, 2020-12-29. By tracing the traditional progression of rhetoric from the Greek Sophists to contemporary theorists, this textbook gives students a conceptual framework for evaluating and practicing persuasive writing and speaking in a wide range of settings and in both written and visual media. The book's expansive historical purview illustrates how persuasive public discourse performs essential social functions and shapes our daily worlds, drawing on the ideas of some of history's greatest thinkers and theorists. The seventh edition includes greater attention to non-Western rhetorics, feminist rhetorics, the rhetoric of science, and European and American critical theory Known for its clear writing style and contemporary examples throughout The History and Theory of Rhetoric emphasizes the relevance of rhetoric to today's students This revised edition serves as a core textbook for rhetoric courses in both English and communication programs covering both the historical tradition of rhetoric and contemporary rhetoric studies This edition includes an instructor's manual and practice quizzes for students at www.routledge.com/cw/herrick
