Strawmans Hammock:

Strawman's Hammock Darryl Wimberley, 2025-10-16 On a chilly October morning Barrett Bear Raines finds himself on the campground of Linton Loyd one of the richest men in Florida watching Linton clean his latest catch Barrett does not understand why he an African American detective for the Florida Department of Law Enforcement has been invited to the rich man's playground but soon discovers that Linton wants something from him Linton wants Barrett to run for county sheriff and Linton will help sponsor the campaign Barrett doesn't know what to make of the appealing offer and decides to think about it The following week at work Barrett learns of a case in which illegal immigrants are being forced to bale straw under rigged contracts and the department wants to find out just how wide spread the problem is Barrett agrees to accompany Jarold Pearson an old acquaintance and game warden to the woods of Linton Loyd's straw baling company However the men find more than a group of scared migrant workers in a secluded tin shack they discover the body of a young woman pinned to the wall almost as if she had been crucified Based on evidence at the scene Linton's only son becomes the prime suspect but what does that do for Barrett's chance at sheriff In a setting mysterious in itself where an ancient woman could really be the witch people call her Barrett faces horrible crime and a solution that continually changes shape as elusive as the strange lights that flicker in his native swamps Florida on the Boil Kenneth F. Kister, 2007

Provides incisive reviews of more than 300 recommended novels and short story collections set in Florida Numerous Florida fiction writers past and present are represented in the book including such diverse talents as Edna Buchanan Harry Crews Connie May Fowler and others Excerpted from book cover Pepperfish Keys Darryl Wimberley, 2025-10-16 There is a Florida that has nothing to do with Disney World Nothing to do with palm trees or Holiday Inns Tourists are neither courted nor coddled in this Florida and you can go a hundred miles and never find a golden arch So says author Darryl Wimberley and it's a Florida he knows He knows too that in towns like Pepperfish Keys there are those who still can't believe that a black man could rise to a high position in the state police But Barrett Raines has done it his father may have been a moneyless fisherman enriching his white employer but things have changed a bit Sharon Fowler a local television reporter isn't concerned with Barrett's race she wouldn't have cared if he were pink and green She just wants to use him to get him and she hopes the state's senator as well into some kind of blazing trouble that will let her write a prize winning story Senator Baxter Stanton of course knows how important it is that the town's voters consider him their man in the upcoming election There are activities he would like to stay hidden and his young daughter whom he can't harness is having a fling with a man whom Barrett suspects is dealing with the senator in some kind of illegal business But things happen that neither Barrett nor Sharon expected throwing them into an unlikely alliance The dead body of the senator's daughter is discovered behind a water heater in the senator's mansion Can Raines pull the threads together and find out what they mean Set along the northwestern coast of Florida's Big Bend Pepperfish Keys is an amazing addition to this riveting Florida Gulf noir series

Thank You, Teacher Holly Holbert, Bruce Holbert, 2016-04-01 What do rock stars Nobel laureates bestselling novelists astronauts and attorneys have in common A teacher changed their lives Like them most of us can name a teacher who gave us not only good instruction but also confidence and drive But in the face of teachers being blamed for a variety of social and economic woes teachers themselves can easily wonder whether they are making a difference in students lives When veteran teacher Bruce Holbert asked himself this question his wife Holly responded by sending letters to hundreds of people she had never met and had no reason to believe would respond asking about teachers who mattered to them She was overwhelmed by answers Thank You Teacher presents more than eighty of these up close and personal stories By a delightfully diverse range of contributors these essays are wise and witty testaments to the teachers who do what they do every day without expecting recognition but who so richly deserve it

Devil's Slew Darryl Wimberley, 2025-10-16 Special Agent Barrett Bear Raines of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement has his Little League game interrupted when a returning GI uses Bear and the local sheriff to commit suicide by cop Barrett agonizes over the young man's death He knows that the young marine came home with a squad of other veterans who live outside the law near a place called Devil's Slew Those GIs come under suspicion when federal authorities trace counterfeited currency to Bear's backyard The feds believe that the counterfeiters are responsible for the kidnapping of a female agent off the streets of New Orleans The threads connecting these local crimes stretch from northern Florida to Afghanistan and Mexico and so once again Barrett Raines and the FDLE are called in to dodge the bullets and connect the dots A superb storyteller Darryl Wimberley writes about a Florida not many people know about bringing to life its rich characters and its lurking dangers
