Gray, 2010-09-29 This book takes the view that ELT global coursebooks in addition to being curriculum artefacts are also highly wrought cultural artefacts which seek to make English mean in highly selective ways and it argues that the textual construction and imaging of English parallels the processes of commodity promotion more generally Grammar in ELT and ELT Materials Graham Burton, 2023-06-06 This book investigates the content of the grammar syllabus typically employed in mainstream English Language Teaching Using a mixed methods approach the author examines how the syllabuses used in coursebooks are actually constructed how they evolved and how valid their contents are as a basis for teaching The research reported consists of a broad exploration of primary sources in order to outline the evolution of ELT pedagogical grammar ten interviews with key ELT authors and publishing professionals which allows for the investigation of the decision making processes underlying the choice of grammar content in ELT teaching materials and finally the presentation of case studies which examine three areas of grammar analysing the evolution of their treatment in ELT materials both historical and contemporary and comparing their current treatment to data on real learner use This book contributes to the literature on syllabus design and pedagogical grammar and builds on existing research into materials design It will be of interest to researchers and professionals working in the fields of applied linguistics pedagogical grammar curriculum design and materials design

Mustapha, Sara Mills, 2015-08-11 Representations of gender in learning materials convey an implicit message to students about attitudes towards culturally appropriate gender roles for women and men This collection takes a linguistic approach to exploring theories about gender representation within the sphere of education and textbooks and their effects on readers and students within an international context In the opening section contributors discuss theories of representation and effect challenging the conventional Althusserian model of interpellation and acknowledging the challenges of applying Western feminist models within an international context Following chapters provide detailed analyses focusing on a number of different countries Australia Japan Brazil Finland Russia Hong Kong Nigeria Germany Qatar Tanzania and Poland Through linguistic analysis of vocabulary associated with women and men content analysis of what women and men say in textbooks and discourse analysis of the types of linguistic moves associated with women and men contributors evaluate the extent to which gendered representations in textbooks perpetuate stereotypical gender roles what the impact may be on learners and the ways that both teachers and learners interact and engage with these texts
