Street Smart Jamison Jo Medby, Russell W. Glenn, 2002-10-16 Intelligence preparation of the battlefield IPB the Army's traditional methodology for finding and analyzing relevant information for its operations is not effective for tackling the operational and intelligence challenges of urban operations The authors suggest new ways to categorize the complex terrain infrastructure and populations of urban environments and incorporate this information into Army planning and decisionmaking processes

Street Smart Richard A. Blake, 2021-11-21 New York has appeared in more movies than Michael Caine and the resulting overfamiliarity to moviegoers poses a problem for critics and filmmakers alike Audiences often mistake the New York image of skyscrapers and bright lights for the real thing when in fact the City is a network of clearly defined villages each with a unique personality Standard film depictions of New Yorkers as a rush hour mass of undifferentiated humanity obscure the connections formed between people and places in the City's diverse neighborhoods Street Smart examines the cultural influences of New York's neighborhoods on the work of four quintessentially New York filmmakers Sidney Lumet Woody Allen Martin Scorsese and Spike Lee The City's heterogeneous economic and ethnic districts where people live work shop worship and go to school often bear little relation to the image of New York City created by the movies To these directors their home city is as tangible as the smell of fried onions in the stairwell of an apartment building and it is this New York not the bustling glittery illusion portrayed in earlier films that shapes their sensibilities and receives expression in their films Richard A Blake shows how the Jewish enclaves on Manhattan's Lower East Side profoundly influence Sidney Lumet's most noted characters as they struggle to form and maintain their identities under challenging circumstances Both Woody Allen's light comedies and his more serious cinematic fare reflect the director's origins in the Flatbush neighborhood in Brooklyn and the displacement he felt after relocating to Manhattan Martin Scorsese's upbringing on Elizabeth Street in Manhattan's Little Italy resonates in his gritty portraits of urban modernity Blake also looks at the films of Spike Lee whose adolescence in Fort Greene a socioeconomically diverse Brooklyn neighborhood exposed him to widely ranging views that add depth to his complicated treatises on power culture and race Lumet Allen Scorsese and Lee s individual identities were shaped by their neighborhoods and in turn their life experiences have shaped their artistic vision In Street Smart Richard A Blake examines the critical influence of place on the films of four of America s most accomplished contemporary filmmakers

Street Smart Samuel I Schwartz,2015-08-18 On a Saturday morning in December 1973 a section of New York s West Side Highway collapsed under the weight of a truck full of asphalt The road was closed seemingly for good and the 80 000 cars that traveled it each day had to find a new way to their destinations It ought to have produced traffic chaos but it didn t The cars simply vanished It was a moment of revelation the highway had induced the demand for car travel It was a classic case of build it and they will come but for the first time the opposite had been shown to be true knock it down and they will go away Samuel I Schwartz was inspired by the lesson He started to reimagine cities most of all his beloved New York freed from their obligation to cars Eventually he found he was not alone Since the turn of the twenty first century a surreptitious revolution has taken place every year Americans are driving fewer miles And the generation named for this new century the Millennials are driving least of all Not because they can t afford to they don t want to They have better ideas for how to use their streets An urban transformation is underway and smart streets are at the heart of it They will boost property prices and personal fitness roll back years of congestion and smog and offer a transformative experience of American urban life From San Francisco to Salt Lake Charleston to Houston the American city is becoming a better and better place to be Schwartz s Street Smart is a dazzling and affectionate history of the struggle for control of American cities and an inspiring off road map to a more vibrant active and vigorous urban future

What's a Woman to Do? Victor

McGlothlin, Victor McGlothlin, 2004-09-17 When a corporate diva Janeen Hampton Gilliam meets the kind of dream man that all make most women want to trade theirs in her struggling marriage with a philandering husband gets even harder to maintain. Throw in trouble at work and a novel that tells the deepest secrets of her youth and Janeen has more on her plate than she can handle. Her younger sister Sissy is having the time of her life working dirty real estate deals and enjoying her friendship with the young women who are paid mistresses to Dallas's powerful men. But when the only man she's ever loved suddenly reappears he causes more drama than she could imagine. And then there's Joyce the eldest of the three who spends most of her time praying for the sins of the other two while at the same time dealing with hidden secrets of her own. When she sees a woman who looks suspiciously like Sissy in a compromising position with Janeen's wayward husband she has to decide which sister deserves her allegiance. The combination of new and old secrets is explosive and it sets off a whole powder keg of emotions. With so many scandalous issues hanging in the balance Janeen, Sissy and Joyce are left wondering: What's A Woman To Do.

Street Smart Chinedu Nnadi, 2025-07-10 From the Hood to Wall Street He Beat the System Without Ever Leaving the Block. Trevon was never your average kid. While others played games under flickering streetlights he studied stock charts and financial reports on a secondhand laptop. By 14 he was buying shares in Apple and Tesla. By 16 his portfolio hit six figures. At 18 he was a millionaire. But he didn't stop there. When his friends didn't believe in long term wealth Trevon launched Street Smart a no jargon YouTube channel teaching real investing to real people. His story resonated and exploded. Suddenly Trevon wasn't just winning in the markets. He was building a movement. Now with millions in assets a viral brand and a mission to uplift his community Trevon's biggest challenge is staying grounded as the world takes notice and not everyone likes a kid from the streets disrupting the financial game. Raw. Powerful. Real. Street Smart is an inspiring story of vision, discipline and beating the odds. Perfect for fans of Rich Dad Poor Dad, The Memo or The Pursuit of Happyness.
