Vertin,2003 Writing with James R Vertin author Charles D Ellis presents brief profiles of 85 Wall Street leaders who contributed to the growth of the world s major financial marketplace The authors divide these individuals all men which tells a tale right there into four slightly arbitrary groups masters of investing movers and shakers business builders and wisemen and rascals The collection is drawn from the other writers pieces about these men and includes occasional articles the featured financiers wrote themselves Apart from a few brief notes about some patterns that the author observed these excerpts from various sources stand alone with no overarching theme or exposition getAbstract keenly feels the lack of a few analytical essays that might have pulled the collection together and integrated it thematically but even so this serves as a useful research tool and an interesting introduction to a unique confluence of powerful men Street People: Life on the Streets of South Texas Grady Sedgwick,2020-06-02 A bold and honest memoir that follows Grady Sedgwick from Louisiana to California as he sleeps in his truck and camps on the beach In New Orleans he sells his book collection and explores the city after Hurricane Katrina In South Texas he joins a homeless community and learns where to camp where to eat and how to earn money You ll meet Daniel a handsome young man crippled by anxiety Chicago and Glenn both struggling with alcoholism and Jenni a smart young woman who will do almost anything for her drug of choice After a long search to cure years of clinical depression the author discovers that one small positive thing can change the direction of your life Street People Portfolio David J. Bookbinder, New York City 1970s Take a walk on the wild side 1970s New York was a mecca for artists writers and musicians drawn to its vibrant energy and creative possibilities It was also a place of grinding poverty and urban decay where crime and violence were everyday realities and hope danced with despair This curated selection of photographs from Street People Portfolio Invisible New York Made Visual exposes the grit and beauty of a city at its most raw and real Experience this strikingly illustrated account of this turbulent period and its forgotten people Witness invisible New York made visual On Our Street Dr. Jillian Roberts,Jaime Casap,2018-02-13 A gentle introduction to the issue of poverty On Our Street explores the realities of people living with inadequate resources Using age appropriate language this book addresses mental illness homelessness and refugee status as they are connected to this issue Insightful quotes from individuals and organizations such as UNICEF are included throughout to add further perspective on the issue An invaluable section on how kids can help empowers readers to take what they have learned and use it to make a difference Street-Frequenting Young People in Fiji Patrick Vakaoti,2018-01-17 This book uncovers the lived experiences of street frequenting young people in Fiji Typically viewed as out of place these young people disturb what it means to be young and Fijian Despite their marginal existence they through their activities demonstrate the need to belong The book adopts a

Ethics and Values Ismail Serageldin, Joan Martin-Brown, 1914. This report is the proceedings of the Fifth Annual World Bank Conference on Environmentally and Socially Sustainable Development entitled Partnerships for Global Ecosystem Management: Science, Economics and Law. An additional event comprising Part One of this volume was held to consider values, ethics and ecosystem issues from a global perspective. The presenters considered the historic influence of values and ethics in the development of societies, reflected on the role of values and ethics globally, addressed the relationship of values and ethics to justice and examined how the valuing of life locally and the local consequences of global conditions can deny justice. Part Two comprises the proceedings of the Forum on Human Settlements, Human Solidarity and Global Ecosystems: A Conservation. The panelists spoke and then participated with the audience in a plenary conversation concerning the issues that link the requirements of human settlements, viable communities and healthy and diverse ecosystems.
