Queen      The Final Adventures of Solar Pons August Derleth, Peter A. Ruber, 1998      The Return of Solar Pons August Derleth, 1958 Thirteen short stories depicting the further adventures of Solar Pons whose prototype is Sherlock Holmes Includes three stories published in a limited edition in 1952 as Three problems for Solar Pons      In Re: Sherlock Holmes August Derleth, 2018-06-14 Once again in old London the game is afoot In these pastiches of the Sacred Writings written when he was nineteen and twenty August Derleth has recreated the London of Sherlock Holmes It does not matter that the familiar name has become Solar Pons or that the familiar Baker Street has become Praed Street something of the nostalgic charm and fascination of the remembered quickening of the pulse and the familiar settings of the original London of Sherlock Holmes has been recaptured in these pages And what intriguing titles there are to these twelve pastiches chosen from among a greater number Here are The Adventure of the Frightened Baronet about a spectral image of Siva seen at a country estate beyond London The Adventure of the Purloined Periapt which is the purest of pastiches and perhaps the closest of all the tales in this book to the original spirit The Adventure of the Norcross Riddle containing some of the neatest deduction in the book The Adventure of the Man with the Broken Face a tale of dark waters and eight others No doubt writes Vincent Starrett in his Introduction we and by we I mean those frantic and incurable Sherlockians who with August Derleth deplore the paucity of canonical entertainments should rather have more of the great originals but we accept the imitations faute de mieux to satisfy a normal appetite And we accept them with enthusiasm They are the work of affectionate minds and hands There is no intention to deceive These stories and others in their field are intended only to please They are nostalgic reminders of vanished days and nights in Baker Street      Solar Pons: the Chronicles of Solar Pons and the Apocrypha of Solar Pons August Derleth, 2018-11-24 In 1928 at the age of nineteen college student August Derleth wrote to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle asking him whether he planned to produce more Sherlock Holmes stories and announcing that if Sir Arthur did not he Derleth would begin a series of pastiches of his own Sir Arthur promised nothing and Derleth went ahead creating Solar Pons Between Pons first published appearance in 1929 until Derleth's death in 1971 the bite of the Sherlockian bug prompted him to write more than seventy Solar Pons adventures in the best Holmes tradition Throughout he devoted endless hours to research and authentication of details into recreating the London milieu of Pons Now restored from the original 1973 Mycroft and Moran edition Solar Pons is back Join Pons and Dr Parker in The Chronicles of Solar Pons as they investigate the terrifying events of The Missing Tenants the suspenseful matter of The Orient Express and the nearly perfect adventure of The Unique Dickensians For many years it was believed the Pontine Canon would end with the publication of The Chronicles of Solar Pons in 1973 But over the years additional material was discovered in various places including obscure publications and Derleth's own files Now thanks to Derleth's heirs and the August Derleth Estate which still retains full ownership of Solar Pons and these apocryphal adventures this new easily available and affordable collection has been made possible Once again the game is afoot      The Memoirs of Solar Pons August Derleth, 1951      Regarding Sherlock

Holmes August Derleth, 1974-09      The Further Adventures of Solar Pons Basil Copper, 1987 In this second volume we again join Solar Pons the latter day Sherlock Holmes and his colleague Dr Lyndon Parker as they solve another four puzzling cases What we always knew about Sherlock Holmes when he supposedly fell to his death at the Reichenbach Falls we now know about Solar Pons he is not dead he has just been hiding      The Papers of Solar Pons David Marcum, 2017-10-19

Solar Pons was created by August Derleth in the 1920s as a continuation of the Sherlock Holmes canon Derleth who famously created Arkham House Publishing to preserve the writings of his friend author HP Lovecraft had corresponded with Sir Arthur Conan Doyle asking whether Doyle would be providing any new Holmes adventures When Doyle said no Derleth determined to write some himself However instead of writing more Holmes tales Derleth came up with Solar Pons a detective very similar to Holmes and Dr Lyndon Parker his Dr Watson Eventually between the 1920s and his death in 1971 Derleth wrote over seventy Pons tales set in that period between the end of World War I and 1939 Now meet Solar Pons the Pride of Praed Street The Master is not too visible that is to the naked eye But you will feel his dynamic presence once again Yes dear reader but turn a page and again the game is afoot Ellery Queen Bestselling Sherlock Holmes author David Marcum continues The Pontine Canon with twelve new Pons adventures The Adventure of the Doctor's Box The Park Lane Solution The Poe Problem The Singular Affair of the Blue Girl The Plight of the American Driver The Adventure of the Blood Doctor The Additional Heirs The Horror of St Anne's Row The Adventure of the Failed Fellowship The Adventure of the Obrisset Snuffbox The Folio Matter The Affair of the Distasteful Society Additionally this volume contains a bonus Sherlock Holmes adventure the author's Solar Pons origin story The Adventure of the Other Brother forewords from noted Ponsians and Appendices Join us at 7B Praed Street where Solar Pons and Dr Parker are about to begin their next adventure The game is afoot Solar Pons is a clever impersonator with a twinkle in his eye which tells us that he knows that he is not Sherlock Holmes and knows that we know it but he hopes we will like him anyway for what he symbolizes The best substitute for Sherlock Holmes known Vincent Starrett      The Original Text Solar Pons Omnibus Edition August Derleth, 2000      The New Adventures of Solar Pons: Tales of the Sherlock Holmes of Praed Street Derrick Belanger, Jeremy Branton Holstein, Bob Byrne, 2019-03-08 In the 1920s college student August Derleth wrote to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle asking if any more Sherlock Holmes adventures were going to be published Upon receiving a negative reply Derleth decided to provide some of his own However rather than relating more tales of Holmes and Dr Watson he ended up introducing the world to Solar Pons and Dr Lyndon Parker living in London during the 1920s and 1930s Pons solved crimes using deduction and ratiocination often referring to Holmes as The Master or My illustrious predecessor Since his first appearance Pons has been a favorite with Sherlockians Now for the first time ever the estate of August Derleth has authorized the first ever anthology of Solar Pons stories These twenty new adventures range from soon after Pons and Parker met in 1919 to a story that occurs after Germany has been defeated in World War II Each of them fully and traditionally falls within the Pontine Canon The authors of these stories have contributed their royalties to the Jan Stauber Grant Fund for the Beacon Society which provides scholarships to educators schools and Sherlockian Scion societies allowing them to purchase Sherlock Holmes books and materials in order to introduce young people to The Canon Join us again at 7B Praed Street where The Game is Afoot     The Exploits of Solar Pons #5 Basil Copper,2017-09 SLIPCASED EDITION ONLY     The Apocrypha of Solar Pons David Marcum,2018-11-19     The Casebook of Solar Pons David Marcum,2018-11-19 The steadily expanding devotees of the Sherlock Holmes of Praed Street will hail with delight this crowning volume in a series of collections which have now pastiched the entire quintet of the Master s adventures Here is another collection of as sparkling a galaxy of Sherlockian pastiches as we have had since the canonical entertainments came to an end as Vincent Starrett who contributes a preface to this book wrote in his introduction to the first collection of the adventures of Solar Pons twenty years ago A dozen new Pontine exploits round out the quintet in these pages from The Adventure of the Sussex Archers to The Adventure of the Innkeeper s Clerk and between these two tales are such memorable stories as The Adventure of the Haunted Library The Adventure of the Intarsia Box The Adventure of the China Cottage The Adventure of the Crouching Dog The Adventure of the Whispering Knights and others including among them The Adventure of the Missing Huntsman in which Pons and Parker invade the fox hunting country of England and The Adventure of the Ascot Scandal one of Pons briefest and most amusing problems To supplement the tales the distinguished British author Michael Harrison contributes a monograph exploring the background of Dr Lyndon Parker and in the course of so doing explains the doctor s semi American English And finally August Derleth has added an Afterword in which he sets forth the facts about the origins of Solar Pons admitting that it was never his intention to do any considerable number of pastiches and relating the circumstances surrounding the continuing numbers of the tales ending happily with I cannot promise to write no more of them The present collection brings the total number of the Pontine pastiches to 57 one more than the total of the canonical short stories of which a reviewer for The Louisville Journal Courier wrote These tales recall as nothing else has done those delicious days and nights in Baker Street days and nights that have vanished forever From the original 1965 Mycroft Moran edition dust jacket     The Solar Pons Companion #7 Basil Copper,2017-09     The Papers of Solar Pons David Marcum,2017-10-12 Solar Pons was created by August Derleth in the 1920s as a continuation of the Sherlock Holmes canon Derleth who famously created Arkham House Publishing to preserve the writings of his friend author HP Lovecraft had corresponded with Sir Arthur Conan Doyle asking whether Doyle would be providing any new Holmes adventures When Doyle said no Derleth determined to write some himself However instead of writing more Holmes tales Derleth came up with Solar Pons a detective very similar to Holmes and Dr Lyndon Parker his Dr Watson Eventually between the 1920 s and his death in 1971 Derleth wrote over seventy Pons tales set in that period between the end of World War I and 1939 Now meet Solar Pons the Pride of Praed Street The Master is not too visible that is to the naked eye But you will feel his dynamic presence once again Yes dear reader but turn a page and again

The Chronicles of Solar Pons David Marcum, 2018-11-19 When August Derleth died on July 4 1971 he had written and finished revising all the stories for The Chronicles of Solar Pons The manuscript lay on his desk ready for final typing This then is the last major collection of the Pontine series However much the reader may regret bidding goodbye to a cherished friend of more than forty years constance the ten tales presented here make for a fine and fitting exit The range and variety of the puzzle problems are wide There is the classic flight and pursuit motif of the espionage thriller The Adventure of the Orient Express The strangeness of The Adventure of the Benin Bronze and the grim search in The Adventure of the Missing Tenants are matched by the long and tangled web behind The Adventure of the Red Leech Whether enjoyed as pure entertainment or for the exercise of nimble minds in an attempt to outwit Solar Pons the reader will find in these pages an additional reward the easy flow of a prose style that is the hallmark of a superior craftsman From the original 1973 Mycroft Moran edition dust jacket
