THE AGONY OF MODERN MUSIC

by HENRY PLEASANTS

* These are two reactions from the professional world of music to the courageous and powerful statement of the author's highly controversial point of view on "modern music"—to wit that most of it is neither modern nor music. It is a point of view held by many thousands of inarticulate concertgoers, subscribed to in the actions of most performers and concert managers, and agreed to by a surprisingly large number of modern composers. The reactions of many prominent musicians who read advance proofs will be found beginning on the back of the jacket.

The Agony Of Modern Music:

The Agony of Modern Music Henry Pleasants,1967 Agony of Modern Music Henry Pleasants,1962 Copland Connotations Peter Dickinson,2002 A mine of information for both general and specialist readers about the life and work of one of America s greatest composers The Agony of Modern Music Dmitri Tymoczko,2002 Creative Music Making William L Cahn,2016-05-06 Most musicians focus on learning technique learning how to play an instrument rather than on developing an individual unique voice Creative Music Making focuses on the creative development of musicians from all levels of experience and in all styles of music Based on the author s experience leading workshops for performers around the world the easy to follow exercises in this text will enable any musician from beginner to professional to improve creativity and self expression Creative Music Making will open the ears of all musicians vocalists or instrumentalists in classical popular or jazz styles to a world of new possibilities Teaching Music History Mary Natvig,2017-07-05 Unlike their colleagues in music theory and music education teachers of music history have tended not to commit their pedagogical ideas to print This collection of essays seeks to help redress the balance providing advice and guidance to those who teach a college level music history or music appreciation course be they a graduate student setting out on their teaching career or a seasoned professor having to teach outside his or her speciality Divided into four sections the book covers the basic music history survey usually taken by music majors music appreciation and introductory courses aimed at non majors special topic courses such as women and music music for film and American music and more general issues such as writing using anthologies and approaches to teaching in various situations In addition to these specific areas broader themes emerge across the essays These include how to integrate social history and cultural context into music history teaching the shift away from the classical canon and how to organize a course taking into consideration time constraints and the need to appeal to students from a diverse range of backgrounds With contributions from both teachers approaching retirement and those at the start of their careers this volume provides a spectrum of experience which will prove valuable to all teachers of music history "Isolde Ahlgrimm, Vienna and the Early Music Revival " Peter Watchorn,2017-07-05 Isolde Ahlgrimm 1914 1995 was an important pioneer in the revival of Baroque and Classical keyboard instruments in her native city Vienna and later throughout Europe and the United States She trained as a pianist at the Musikakademie in Vienna under the instruction of Viktor Ebenstein Emil von Sauer and Franz Schmidt In 1934 she met the musical instrument collector Dr Erich Fiala whom she married in 1938 His activities opened up the world of early instruments to her Using a 1790 fortepiano by Michael Rosenberger Isolde Ahlgrimm began her career as a specialist on early keyboard instruments with the first in her notable series of Concerte f r Kenner und Liebhaber given in Vienna s Palais Palffy in February 1937 Ahlgrimm s career as a harpsichordist also began in 1937 when a new instrument was commissioned from the Ammer brothers in Eisenberg Germany In 1943 Ahlgrimm performed her first all harpsichord programme which consisted of the Goldberg Variations by J S

Bach From 1949 to 1956 she devoted herself to performing and recording nearly all of Bach's harpsichord music for the newly founded Dutch label Philips presenting her new approach to the harpsichord to a wider audience Ahlgrimm's performances of Baroque music represented a radical departure from the distinctly twentieth century interpretations by the much more famous Wanda Landowska and her followers Most obviously Ahlgrimm's harpsichord performances eliminated frequent registration changes her instrument had hand stops rather than pedals to change registers and largely eschewed the massive ritardandi and other anachronistic performance practices that were hallmarks of Landowska's essentially Romantic style Ahlgrimm researched and emphasized rhetorical traditions on which the music was based This became more pronounced throughout the course of her later performing writing and teaching career and it was the beginning of an approach to the performance of eighteenth century music
