American Heritage History of the 20's and 30's American Heritage (Periodical),1970 The American Heritage History of the Twenties and Thirties Edmund Stillman,1970-08-01 America in the Twenties Ronald Allen Goldberg,2003-10-01
This is the first book to offer a comprehensive look at American life in the 1920s as framed by the aspirations scandals and attitudes of the Wilson Harding Coolidge and Hoover presidencies In fascinating detail Goldberg examines how Victorian values were transformed into the freewheeling lifestyle of the Jazz Age and explores the effects of such far reaching issues as isolationism vs internationalism massive immigration labor management relations and the prevalence of big business Even as he pierces the era s claim to being a time of wonderful nonsense Goldberg balances its giddy fads and foibles with a stinging critique of darker and or significant social issues From the rise of the Ku Klux Klan to black protests to the Scopes Monkey Trial from bootlegging and Prohibition to the Red Scare Goldberg shows how the temper of the 1920s shaped the nation s future Finally he poses provocative questions about how mistakes might have been avoided and what consequences ensued

The American Heritage History of the 20's & 30's Ralph K. Andrist,1970 the story of the changes that came to America in the years between the two World Wars At first as the 1920 s dawn there is the ultraconservatism that rejects Wilson s League of Nations amends the Constitution to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages suspects every immigrant of being a Red and places TWK meaning Trade With the Klan stickers in merchant members shop windows Then Henry Ford mass produces flivvers that cost as little as 290 women get the vote girls get a new concept of morality and a freewheeling flask toting citizenry begins its surge to hedonism They have plenty of examples to emulate public officials get rich on purloined Navy oil while the President whom they betray dallies in the Little White House on H Street or with his paramour in a little White House closet the high jinks of high society and Hollywood are amply reported by a sensation seeking press the advertising fraternity urges everyone to keep up with the Joneses and endows them with everything The great euphoria reaches its climax with the stock market crash Here you see what America was like when factories lay idle and old newspapers become Hoover blankets for evicted families when angry farmers gathered at foreclosure sales with pitchforks and shotguns to fight for their land when the International Apple Shippers Association offered apples on credit to the jobless to sell for five cents apiece on city streets when Franklin Roosevelt said This nation asks for action and action now and started the kind of action that kept him in the White House for the rest of the Thirties and beyond To be sure there were many during those decades who did not drink bathtub gin and hanker for the sinful ways of the city who were not wiped out by the economic downturn did not hate that man in the White House These people are here too some baffled some belligerent all caught in the crosscurrents of a nation in transition Jacket flaps America in The 1920s Michael J. O'Neal,2009 Details the Roaring Twenties in American history discussing presidents the Eighteenth Amendment Nineteenth Amendment expatriate writers the Ku Klux Klan the Harlem Renaissance restricted immigration the National Football League and more The 1930s

William H. Young, 2002-10-30 Most historical studies bury us in wars and politics paying scant attention to the everyday effects of pop culture Welcome to America's other history the arts activities common items and popular opinions that profoundly impacted our national way of life The twelve narrative chapters in this volume provide a textured look at everyday life youth and the many different sides of American culture during the 1930s Additional resources include a cost comparison of common goods and services a timeline of important events notes arranged by chapter an extensive bibliography for further reading and a subject index The dark cloud of the Depression shadowed most Americans' lives during the 1930s Books movies songs and stories of the 1930s gave Americans something to hope for by depicting a world of luxury and money Major figures of the age included Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers Irving Berlin Amelia Earhart Duke Ellington the Marx Brothers Margaret Mitchell Cole Porter Joe Louis Babe Ruth Shirley Temple and Frank Lloyd Wright Innovations in technology and travel hinted at a Utopian society just off the horizon group sports and activities gave the unemployed masses ways to spend their days and a powerful new demographic the American teenager suddenly found itself courted by advertisers and entertainers
