Bardis,2023-08-09 The institution of the family is by far the most important of all the societal networks in which the lives of men women and children are involved Nowhere is this more true than in the less developed countries of Asia Originally published in 1979 The Family in Asia aimed to provide a series of comprehensive survey chapters which described traditional family patterns in a selection of Asian countries at different stages of economic development These range from a rapidly expanding and highly developed industrial nation Japan through modernising and developing countries India Pakistan Iran China South Korea and the Philippines to more underdeveloped countries such as Thailand and Afghanistan Each chapter is written by a senior country specialist and covers an integrated series of topics within a uniform framework in order to facilitate inter country comparisons Valuable description and statistical material is provided on the literature and on the effects of industrialisation urbanisation and modernisation but perhaps more important is a theoretical framework and the editors review of some basic characteristics of social modernisation These include the degree of equalitarian family relations and sexual divisions in society emphasis on individualism and independence the differentiation and specialised functioning of social institutions urban life birth control and family planning social mobility marital disruption and divorce neglect and care of the elderly formal education for children and government intervention and influence on family activities Read in its historical context this title will interest specialists in development and Asian studies in demography sociology and in anthropology Students in particular will value the tight analytical framework in which the book has been written The Cambrian Journal ,1856 Language, Context and Contextuality Osita Nwagbo,Temitope Ajayi,Jacob Oluwadoro,Esther Senayon,Yeseera Oloso,Bolanle Sogunro,2025-02-07 This book of Festschrift is an amalgam of papers written by a collage of scholars on various subjects reflecting the multidisciplinary concerns of Professor Herbert Igboanusi Precisely the contributions are from fields such as sociolinguistics discourse analysis language in education English varieties literature and cultural linguistics Irrespective of the orientation and nationality of contributors the major focus of the papers was on the linguistic issues experiences and realities in Nigeria in whose frontiers the Festschrift recipient lives and works It is expected that this volume will be a worthy contribution to linguistic scholarship in Africa and will serve as a reference material to researchers across the world Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Supreme Judicial Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Massachusetts.
