The Alhambra Structure And Landscape:

The Alhambra Pedro Salmerón Escobar,2007-01-01 Landscapes and Environments of the Middle Ages Michael Bintley,Kate Franklin,2023-08-14 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the landscapes of the Middle Ages within and beyond Europe paying close attention to the relationship between real and imagined landscapes and the ways that medieval people made and inhabited their world Rather than studying nature in the Middle Ages the book instead examines the spaces that people constructed through soil stone and song water and wasteland plants and animals and timber textiles and texts which in turn made up the medieval world Likewise the text emphasises a definition of environment that focuses on living with inviting readers to think about the more than human worlds that medieval people depended on cared for constructed and damaged Bringing together a wide range of primary source material including evidence from texts material culture and visual arts the book reflects the diversity of landscapes and human responses to them throughout the course of this period and considers the role that these medieval worlds have played in shaping the modern both physically and culturally Landscapes and Environments of the Middle Ages is an excellent resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate students in medieval studies and history offering interdisciplinary transhistorical and transnational insights into this period of immense change and innovation Designing Outside the Box : landscape seeing by doing David Kiss,2017 To all design students landscapers and garden designers of all stripes with any special curiosity in the why behind landscape design and how it relates to the world Designing Outside the Box is your book It offers a solid clear non academic introduction and overview to the practice of making special places possible Many books on creating the built landscape typically fall into one of two broad categories 1 step by step guides to landscape design practice or 2 deep rooted intellectual exercises in landscape design theory Designing Outside the Box bridges the divide between theory and practice Jargon is minimal The prose and examples are relatable Analogies propel the message Theory connects with reality in how people look at the landscape Gardens and Landscapes in Historic Building Conservation Marion Harney,2014-04-03 This comprehensive guide on historic garden and landscape conservation will help landscape professionals familiarise themselves with what the conservation of historic gardens garden structures and designed landscapes encompasses The aim of the series is to introduce each aspect of conservation and to provide concise basic and up to date knowledge within five volumes sufficient for the professional to appreciate the subject better and to know where to seek further help Gardens Landscapes in Historic Building Conservation is an essential guide for everyone with an interest in the conservation of historic gardens and designed landscapes worldwide The latest assessment of the origins scope and impact of gardens and designed landscapes is vital reading Covering history and theory survey and assessment conservation and management and the legislative framework the book considers all aspects of garden and landscape conservation and related issues It explores the challenge of conserving these important sites and surviving physical remains and a conservation movement which must understand protect and interpret those remains This book demonstrates how the discipline of the history and conservation of gardens and landscapes has matured in recent decades recognising the increased participation of professional contract and curatorial managers in the management of these sites and in conserving and interpreting landscapes Drawing on a wide range of sources combining academic and professional perspectives the book provides information and advice relevant to all involved in trying to preserve one of England's greatest cultural contributions and legacy for future generations to enjoy With chapters by all the leading players in the field and illustrated by copious examples this gives essential guidance to the management and conservation of historic gardens and designed landscapes Granada Steven Nightingale, 2015-02-01

Andalusia ancient homeland of the mysterious Iberians birthplace of Roman emperors seedbed of modern Anarchism and unmarked gravesite of Spain's greatest lyric poet Perhaps most importantly Andalusia is home to the city of Granada where a hybrid culture composed of Islamic Jewish and Christian traditions gave rise to an intellectual vanguard whose achievements can be compared only with those of classical Athens Ming China or Renaissance Italy Granada resident Steven Nightingale excavates the rich past of his adopted city and its surrounding countryside finding there a lavish story of utopian ecstasy political intrigue and finally anguish Part of that region in southern Spain named by its Islamic rulers Al Andalus medieval Granada witnessed a flourishing of poetry in several languages the first modern translations of Greek philosophy the birth of algebra and the construction of architectural masterpieces such as the Alhambra and the Generalife Yet with Ferdinand and Isabella's sack of Granada in 1492 regarded as the culmination of the Reconquista which sought to reclaim Spain for the Vatican a Catholic mythology of Spain began to erode Granada's centuries old reputation as an artistically vital haven for multiple ethnic and religious groups Linking the disastrous afterlife of the Reconquista to the Catholic nationalism of the Franco regime whose execution of Granadan poet Federico Garcia Lorca symbolizes the suppression of Andalusia's cultural heritage Nightingale demonstrates the extent to which this Catholic triumphalism also obscured the source of much cultural wealth bequeathed by Al Andalus to Christian Europe Nightingale's own account of the region's medieval zenith recovers the intellectual pageantry and aesthetic splendor of this astounding period in Western history and the marvelous city that was its cultural center Landscapes in the Eastern Mediterranean between the Future and the Past Ioannis N.

Vogiatzakis, Theano S. Terkenli, Maria Gabriella Trovato, Nizar Abu-Jaber, 2020-05-15 Landscapes have long been viewed as multifunctional integrating ecological economic sociocultural historical and aesthetic dimensions Landscape science and public awareness in Europe have been progressing in leaps and bounds The challenges involved in landscape related issues and fields however are multiple and refer to landscape stewardship and protection as well as to the development of comprehensive theoretical and methodological approaches in tandem with public sensitization and participatory governance and in coordination with appropriate top down planning and policy instruments Landscape scale approaches are fundamental to the understanding of past and present cultural evolution and are now considered to be an appropriate spatial framework for the analysis of sustainability Methods and tools of landscape analysis and intervention have also gone a long way since their early development in Europe and the United States Although significant progress has been made there remain many issues which are understudied or not investigated at all at least in a Mediterranean context This Special Issue addresses the application of landscape theory and practice in the Eastern Mediterranean and mainly but not exclusively reports on the outcomes of an international conference held in Jordan in December 2015 with the title Landscapes of Eastern Mediterranean Challenges Opportunities Prospects and Accomplishments The focus of this Special Issue landscapes of the Eastern Mediterranean region thus constitutes a timely area of research interest not only because these landscapes have so far been understudied but also as a rich site of strikingly variegated long standing multicultural human environmental interactions These interactions resting on and taking shape through millennia of continuity in tradition have been striving to adapt to technological advances while currently juggling with manifold and multilayered socioeconomic and climate environmental crises

Examining a New Paradigm of Heritage With Philosophy, Economy, and Education Queirós, António dos Santos, 2020-06-19 OECD UNESCO the European Union and the United Nations acknowledge that formal educational systems alone cannot respond to rapid and constant technological social and economic change in society and that they should be reinforced by non formal educational practices Examining a New Paradigm of Heritage With Philosophy Economy and Education is a critical scholarly publication that provides comprehensive research on the sustainability of identity and cultural heritage The book establishes uniform and consistent conceptual criteria to identify and distinguish the different typological categories of heritage and discusses the concept of cultural landscape and environmental ethics Moreover connections between cultural heritage and natural heritage and the economy of heritage are explored Finally the book discusses cultural landscape as an educational resource with reading and interpretation of the cultural landscape as a basis for learning with a methodology of experimental science and its first metamorphosis of value Featuring a range of topics such as curriculum design ethics and environmental tourism this book is ideal for academicians sociologists biologists researchers policymakers and students

Treatment Jeffrey Killion, 2005 The Language of Landscape Anne Whiston Spirn, 1998-01-01 This eloquent and powerful book combines poetry and pragmatism to teach the language of landscape Anne Whiston Spirn author of the award winning The Granite Garden Urban Nature and Human Design argues that the language of landscape exists with its own syntax grammar and metaphors and that we imperil ourselves by failing to learn to read and speak this language To understand the meanings of landscape our habitat is to see the world differently and to enable ourselves to avoid profound aesthetic and environmental mistakes Offering examples that range across thousands of years and five continents Spirn examines urban rural and natural landscapes She discusses the thought of renowned landscape authors Thomas Jefferson Frank Lloyd Wright Frederick Law Olmsted Lawrence Halprin and of less well known pioneers including Australian architect Glenn Murcutt and Danish landscape artist C Th S rensen She discusses instances of great landscape designers using landscape fluently masterfully and sometimes cynically And in a probing analysis of the many meanings of landscape Spirn shows how one person's ideal landscape may be another's nightmare how Utopian landscapes can be dark There is danger when we lose the connection between a place and our understanding of it Spirn warns and she calls for change in the way we shape our environment based on the notions of nature as a set of ideas and landscape as the expression of action and ideas in place

Layered Landscapes Eric Nelson, Jonathan Wright, 2017-06-26 This volume explores the conceptualization and construction of sacred space in a wide variety of faith traditions Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and the religions of Japan It deploys the notion of layered landscapes in order to trace the accretions of praxis and belief the tensions between old and new devotional patterns and the imposition of new religious ideas and behaviors on pre-existing religious landscapes in a series of carefully chosen locales Cuzco Edo Geneva Granada Herat Istanbul Jerusalem Kanchipuram Paris Philadelphia Prague and Rome Some chapters hone in on the process of imposing novel religious beliefs while others focus on how vestiges of displaced faiths endured The intersection of sacred landscapes with political power the world of ritual and the expression of broader cultural and social identity are also examined Crucially the volume reveals that the creation of sacred space frequently involved more than religious buildings and was a work of historical imagination and textual expression While a book of contrasts as much as comparisons the volume demonstrates that vital questions about the location of the sacred and its reification in the landscape were posed by religious believers across the early modern world
