Torrance's Incarnation: The Person and Life of Christ presents the material on the work of Christ centered in the atonement given originally in his lectures delivered to his students in Christian Dogmatics on Christology at New College Edinburgh from 1952-1978. Like the first volume, the original lecture material has been expertly edited by Robert Walker, complete with cross-reference to Torrance's other works. Readers will find this the most readable work of Torrance and together with Incarnation, the closest to a systematic theology we have from this eminent theologian.

Feasting on the Word: Year C, Volume 2 David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown Taylor, 2009-10-12. With this new lectionary commentary series Westminster John Knox offers the most extensive resource for preaching on the market today. When complete, the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three-year lectionary cycle along with movable occasions such as Christmas Day, Epiphany, Holy Week, and All Saints Day. For each lectionary text, preachers will find four brief essays, one each on the theological, pastoral, exegetical, and homiletical challenges of the text. This gives preachers sixteen different approaches to the proclamation of the Word on any given occasion. The editors and contributors to this series are world-class scholars, pastors, and writers representing a variety of denominations and traditions. And while the twelve volumes of the series will follow the pattern of the Revised Common Lectionary, each volume will contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers as well as teachers and students may make use of its contents.

John 1-11 Gerald L. Borchert, 1996-08-22. One in an ongoing series of esteemed and popular Bible commentary volumes based on the New International Version text.
