The Philosophy of Film Noir Mark T. Conard, 2005-01-27 An essay collection examining the philosophical elements of select films in noir cinema as well as the

genre's legacy in film and culture A drifter with no name and no past driven purely by desire is convinced by a beautiful woman to murder her husband A hard drinking detective down on his luck becomes involved with a gang of criminals in pursuit of a priceless artifact The stories are at once romantic pessimistic filled with anxiety and a sense of alienation and they define the essence of film noir Noir emerged as a prominent American film genre in the early 1940s distinguishable by its use of unusual lighting sinister plots mysterious characters and dark themes From The Maltese Falcon 1941 to Touch of Evil 1958 films from this classic period reflect an atmosphere of corruption and social decay that attracted such accomplished directors as John Huston Alfred Hitchcock Billy Wilder and Orson Welles The Philosophy of Film Noir is the first volume to focus exclusively on the philosophical underpinnings of these iconic films Drawing on the work of diverse thinkers from the French existentialist Albert Camus to the Frankfurt school theorists Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno the volume connects film noir to the philosophical questions of a modern often nihilistic world Opening with an examination of what constitutes noir cinema the book interprets the philosophical elements consistently present in the films themes such as moral ambiguity reason versus passion and pessimism The contributors to the volume also argue that the essence and elements of noir have fundamentally influenced movies outside of the traditional noir period Neo noir films such as Pulp Fiction 1994 Fight Club 1999 and Memento 2000 have reintroduced the genre to a contemporary audience As they assess the concepts present in individual films the contributors also illuminate and explore the philosophical themes that surface in popular culture A close examination of one of the most significant artistic movements of the twentieth century The Philosophy of Film Noir reinvigorates an intellectual discussion at the intersection of popular culture and philosophy Praise for The Philosophy of Film Noir The essays work both as solid primers into philosophy stretching from Aristotle to Schopenhauer and as lucid excursions into the genre's dark mean streets A fascinating readable and provocative book Highly recommended Choice Dense and intriguing the book suggests noir is best perceived as a slightly warped mirror held up to contemporary society Publishers Weekly
