The Handbook provides information on TVET models that occur in different parts of the world, reflects best and innovative practice and wherever possible uses case studies as examples. The 220 authors are representative of the various regions of the world and major international organisations involved in TVET. This volume presents the work of established researchers as well as the work of promising young researchers. Intended as the universally accepted resource for the field, the Handbook provides a comprehensive coverage of cutting edge developments in research, policy and practice in TVET within a single source. African Youth and the Persistence of Marginalization Danielle Resnick, James Thurlow, 2015-04-10 The much heralded growth and transformation of many economies in sub Saharan Africa over the last decade continues to receive prominent attention in academic scholarship and among policy practitioners An apparent feature about this transformation however is that Africa's youth appear to have been left out This book critically examines the extent and consequences of the marginalization of African youth It questions conventional wisdoms about data trends aspirational goals and common policy interventions surrounding Africa's youth that have been variously propagated in both the development studies literature and in mainstream donor policy reports The book explores macro trends from both a temporal and cross regional perspective in order to highlight what is distinct about contemporary African youth and whether their prospects and behaviours do actually vary from their counterparts in other regions of the world or from previous generations of African youth Such studies include cross country analyses of youth employment patterns and modes of political participation in depth examination of the behaviours and aspirations of the urban youth and critical reflections on the impact of rural employment initiatives vocational education and learnership programmes The incorporation of multiple methods and disciplines as well as its attention to policy issues ensures that the book will be of great interest to graduate students researchers and professional researchers whose work lies at the intersection of African area studies and development studies as well as those focused on development economics political science and public policy and administration

Private Sector Development in an Emerging World Diederik Boer, Harald Sander, Katharina Friz, Antonella Anastasi, 2023-12-04 This book explores the interactions between private sector development public policies and societal institutions with a strong view on contributing to sustainable and inclusive development in emerging countries The private sector is often praised as an engine of economic growth This belief has led to significant efforts to promote private sector development in emerging countries Development agencies prioritize private sector development and national governments are following suit resulting in often huge incentives to stimulate and attract private investment However private sector development is not a panacea for sustainable and inclusive development as the past decades have clearly shown Economic growth societal development and environmental sustainability are often in a sharp conflict and more often than not economic growth has failed to improve the lives of all citizens This book examines the role the state and the private sector should play to benefit from the dynamics of business development while ensuring that these benefits are shared broadly without jeopardizing sustainability The views presented differ in detail but the analyses and case studies presented share common themes namely that the relative roles of state and private sector should be balanced and that this particular balance should be based on the context of each country in order to make the private public sector interaction work for all people

Back cover The Rationale for Re-Structuring the Vocational Education in India Tilak Kumar Sharma,2016-04-01 The intention of this book is to probe into a critical pedagogy of career education as a vital means to enhance vocationalization in an authentic sense The book basically focuses on the need to re structure the system and proposes the use of productive learning as a foundation for a well rounded education that breaks down the dreadfully despicable dualisms of contemporary education that is the separation of theory from practice individuals from collectivity and schools from community It also aims at exposing students to three viable requirements the need for effective acquisition of skills a critical pedagogy of occupational demands and proper understanding of the potential resources for community development and prosperity The implication is that creative activities productive behavior should move away from the single priority of economic advancement and profit toward the integration of developmental objectives for social and economic enlistment and effective mobilization
