Strategic Management In The Asia Pacific Harnessing Regional And Organizational Change For Competitive Advantage:

Strategic Management in the Asia Pacific Usha C. V. Haley, 2000 Strategic Management in the Asia Pacific assembles an international team of world famous practitioners and experts to cover the most significant aspects of doing business in the Asia Pacific Recent developments such as the domino declines in the world financial markets clearly demonstrate that we live and perceive ourselves as living in an interdependent world where business developments in Hong Kong can affect those in New York London or Sao Paolo understanding how to manage effectively in the Asia Pacific positively affects multinationals profits and survival Strategic Management in the Asia Pacific explores how to manage effectively and profitably in the Asia Pacific and identifies and interprets important environmental characteristics and key stakeholders influences Sources for up to the minute information to make strategic decisions are also indicated Contributors include Kam Hon Lee Dean of Business School Chinese University of Hong Kong who advised Coca Cola s entry into China Mike Hobday University of Sussex who advises the Malaysia Government on its 2020 policy Ingo Walter Stern School of Business New York University who advises several major governments and corporate institutions on international banking and finance Chin Tiong Tan National University of Singapore who advises Singapore Airlines among other major companies Kong Yam Tan National University of Singapore who served as Singapore s Chief Economist and is currently its Chair to APEC and Ian Marsh Professor of International Business Australian Graduate School of Management Usha Haley was formerly Visiting Professor at the Managing Business in Asia Programme Australian National University Canberra She also serves as a consultant on issues concerning strategic management business government relations and foreign direct investment for several multinational corporations in North America Australasia Europe and Asia Examines strategic management and organizational change in Asia Pacific from a number of different perspectives local governments local companies and MNCs No other book covers this topic with such range and scope Quality contributors

Redesigning Asian Business Frank-Jürgen Richter, 2002-03-30 With much of the Asian Miracle destroyed and much of the Western world s awe for Asian ways of management dissipated organizations there are changing with such speed that most of our knowledge about them is quickly outdated Richter takes stock of East Asian management practices as they are perceived so far and he discusses the strategies that others propose to help Asian management redesign itself for the future including a long term agenda for change based on the cultural heritage of Confucianism He analyzes the cultural underpinnings of Asian management practices evaluates the influence of the Asian economic crisis on them and discusses their potential for guiding Asian firms to a sustainable competitive advantage He then provides examples of how Asian firms shape up their organizations and describes a short term agenda to fix the weaknesses in Asian management at least temporarily Throughout Richter avoids talk about strategic management as merely a theory he adopts a broader definition that includes a value system to guide East Asian firms as they re emerge and redevelop The result is a challenging intensely pragmatic analysis for decision makers at all levels in all countries and cultures and it is a new stone in the foundation of academic research and thought Richter opens with a discussion of the legacy of Confucianism and its impact on Asian management practices He then proposes three intrinsic characteristics of Asian management networks trust and collectivism He gives a history of the Asian economic crisis highlighting the failures of Asia s economic development and the flaws that appeared in its management practices The third section of the book evaluates management practices that have emerged since then and how they are perceived so far Then in the concluding section he presents a new perspective on Asian management short term goals fixing current management weaknesses and long term goals incorporating its long abiding strengths Throughout Richter draws on the management theory enunciated by Hofstede and includes examples and case studies of recent developments across the region and he also includes his own theories as well as those of others Mr Richter s book will be a welcome addition to the literature on business and the culture of Asia

Multinational Corporations in Political Environments Usha C. V. Haley, 2001 Multinational Corporations in Political Environments advances and tests a theory of why foreign corporations leave host states Theories of international business have often ignored the complexity of corporate decisions about leaving foreign countries generally assuming that the economic and competitive reasons that prompt multinational corporations to enter host states also explain their subsequent reasons for leaving Alternatively this book proposes a theory of how different stakeholders OCO values and ethics shape multinationals OCO strategic leaving behaviors Tested in South Africa when US multinationals were facing diverse pressures from stockholders governments and consumers to leave the research provides a prism to isolate how different stakeholders OCO actions influenced multinationals OCO behaviors

International Business Strategy in Emerging Country Markets Hans Jansson, 2008-03-01 The book outlines and develops an integrated and pragmatic socio economic approach towards undertaking effective MNC strategy in emerging country markets This labelled the institutional network approach INA applies a new strategic perspective to international business operations and emphasises the continuous interplay between institutions and networks in designing and executing global strategies The INA integrates the shareholder and stakeholder viewpoint into a comparative holistic perspective of international business strategy based on a broader societal approach

The Chinese Tao of Business George T. Haley, Usha C. V. Haley, ChinHwee Tan, 2011-10-27 How can managers discover develop and implement successful business strategies for China and our global economy Drawing on in depth research with top executives of successful Chinese and Western companies this book provides a road map for profitable business strategies in our interconnected economy In the process the authors describe and examine both Chinese and Western strategic management their weaknesses and strengths Starting with an analysis of the historical cultural and legal antecedents of Chinese strategy the authors identify potential for synergy and dominance between companies from Western industrialized economies and Chinese companies The book closes with recommendations on how the managements of non Chinese companies now pouring into China can most effectively compete and interact with Chinese businesspersons and governments The Chinese Tao of Business offers guidance to compete successfully against local companies and in foreign markets through Unique insights into Chinese business strategy including its origins and influencing factors Insightful perspectives on the evolution of China's market and business environments Incisive analysis of Eastern and Western strategic decision making styles and how they differ Cogent identification of hidden and overt threats pitfalls and opportunities that Western companies face in China and how to plan for them Effective direction through an Adaptive Action Road Map ARM for successful business strategies in China and the global economy Asian Post-crisis Management U. Haley, F. Richter, 2002-02-20 This book examines the key issues faced by the managers of multinational companies and contains cutting edge strategies and practices designed to enable managers and policy makers to weather the Asian financial and economic storms Asian Post Crisis Management shows how to position companies and governments in Asia for sustainable competitive advantage and will be of interest to top management leaders senior economic analysts policy makers academic scholars and students of international management Handbook of Online Learning Kjell Erik Rudestam, Judith Schoenholtz-Read, 2010 This is a revision of the Handbook of Online Learning It is a comprehensive reference text for teachers and administrators of online courses and programs It presents a discussion of the conceptual and theoretical foundations of online learning along with an exploration of practical implementation strategies Features Strengths of the current Handbook The most comprehensive reference text available for teachers and administrators of online courses and programs Emphasis on interactive teaching learning strategies challenging people to think differently about pedagogy Provides a strong theoretical base before discussing applications Part I first presents the changing philosophies and theories of learning Part II covers implementation or the practice of online learning Several chapters deal with the issues related to the growing corporate online learning environment New to this edition Twelve new articles on the latest issues including topics such as psychology of online learning training faculty digital libraries ethical dimensions in online learning legal issues course management systems and evolving technologies Ten key articles retained from current edition are revised and updated to reflect current trends and changes in the field All contributors to the first edition were from the Fielding Institute the second edition reaches beyond to scholars from other institutions for a more diverse collection State Capacity in East Asia Kjeld Erik Brødsgaard, Susan Young, 2000-11-02 State Capacity in East Asia examines states and state capacity in four countries China Japan Taiwan and Vietnam that have experienced rapid economic growth over several decades The book is informed by the view that even though modern market forces and transnational corporations exert new pressures which erode some powers formerly held by the nation state it is much too early to declare the state dead The modern state is constantly being shaped by social interaction in a process of mutual empowerment at both the central and local level States also have a history which is built into their structures and ideology and will influence the way they change and adapt to outside pressures The book argues that the capability to adapt and to develop new capacities and institutions is at the heart of the Asian states recovery from the deep economic and social crisis of the late 1990s

The Handbook of Technology Management, Supply Chain Management, Marketing and Advertising, and Global Management Hossein Bidgoli, 2010 The discipline of technology management focuses on the scientific engineering and management issues related to the commercial introduction of new technologies Although more than thirty U S universities offer PhD programs in the subject there has never been a single comprehensive resource dedicated to technology management The Handbook of Technology Management fills that gap with coverage of all the core topics and applications in the field Edited by the renowned Doctor Hossein Bidgoli the three volumes here include all the basics for students educators and practitioners

Sectoral Systems of Innovation and Production in Developing Countries Franco Malerba, Sunil Mani, 2009-01-01 Over the past decade there has been a dramatic increase in the quantity and quality of research focused on the processes through which technological capabilities are acquired by countries significantly behind the economic frontier and the institutions that effectively support the catching up process This book is a splendid contribution to this literature The concept of a sectoral innovation system is well suited for framing studies of these kinds of questions and serves well to unify the many interesting empirical studies in the book Some of those studies are success stories others of less successful cases Readers new to this body of research will find this book a great introduction All readers will learn a lot from it about what is required for and involved in economic development Richard R Nelson Columbia Earth Institute US and University of Manchester UK This book examines in detail the features and dynamics of sectoral systems of innovation and production in developing countries Processes of rapid growth are usually associated with specific sectors such as automobiles electronics or software as well as with the transformation of traditional sectors such as agriculture and food The book shows however that the variations across all these sectors in terms of structure and dynamics is so great that a full understanding of these differences is necessary if innovation is to be encouraged and growth sustained The expert contributors promote this understanding by drawing upon empirical evidence from a wide range of sectoral systems from traditional to high technology and across a number of countries They explore how these systems change and evolve highlighting policy lessons to be drawn from the analysis Case studies include the Brazilian aeronautical pulp and paper industries the Korean machine tool sector motorbike manufacture in Thailand and Vietnam pharmaceuticals and telecommunication equipment in India ICT in Taiwan the biofuels sector in Tanzania salmon farming in Chile and software in Uruguay Scholars and researchers in the fields of economics development economics in particular and innovation will find this book to be of great interest Policymakers and managers focussing on innovation and growth in developing countries will also warmly welcome the book
