Project Management Stephen Hartley, 2020-07-25 Organisations increasingly look to project management to deal with short timeframes tight budgets changing requirements and risk management in everyday operations as well as for major strategic projects Project management knowledge and skills are now essential for professionals just about everywhere from teachers social workers and lawyers to engineers builders and accountants Stephen Hartley's Project Management is based on the recognised global standard for project management the Project Management Body of Knowledge PMBOK Guide and it incorporates aspects of Agile PRINCE2 Lean and other popular methodologies It offers a thorough overview of the principles of project management combined with tools and guidelines to manage projects of all sizes from inception to evaluation Written in an accessible and engaging style Stephen Hartley s widely used text has been fully revised and updated It focuses on shared responsibility transparent documentation reporting achievement over activity and continuous improvement It is illustrated with examples and case studies and accompanied by a suite of downloadable templates and tools Stephen Hartley is without doubt Australia s leading authority on project management This book is the bible for any current or future project manager Dr Tim Baker author of The End of the Performance Review Strategic Management of Universities in the Ibero-America Region Jairo H.

Cifuentes-Madrid,Pablo Landoni Couture,Xavier Llinàs-Audet,2015-03-02 This book provides the readers with a map of the higher education systems and strategic management trends in the higher education institutions within countries of the Ibero America region The key feature of this volume is the presentation of a conceptual framework as a point of reference for the development of university management systems in a specific context Furthermore the book provides an overview of the development of higher education in Latin America and the Caribbean to advance understanding of the changes observed in the institutional strategic management setting The book examines and compares the types of strategic management processes used as well as the models of applicability of strategy making This analysis is done by cutting through a critical review of the processes and systems of university management used in the various analysed countries and pays special attention to the actors involved the processes the reporting systems the expectations and the limitations Additionally the book introduces a methodology for the identification and implementation of best practice in university strategic management and presents practical suggestions about the ways in which processes and models can be used to increase quality and competitive advantage System Leadership for Sustainability Christopher G. Beehner,2019-11-18 This book is the first to explore the application of system leadership to promote sustainable solutions for contemporary and future environmental and social problems The combination of synthesized research summaries and case studies of individuals and organizations contribute considerably to the field by expanding system leadership concepts from theory to practical application System leadership has been identified as a method by which complex societal problems can be addressed but it has as yet not been applied to sustainability The first chapters introduce the background and fundamentals of system leadership and its relevance to sustainability The chapters that propose methods of developing system leadership examples of system leaders and practical application of system leadership in industry academic government nonprofit and NGO settings Each chapter includes a chapter case interview and or reflection questions in order to stimulate critical thinking and provide instructional tools for academic use and practical application The book is particularly relevant to researchers and students internationally in the fields of social development and sustainability It is also relevant to public private and nonprofit NGO management practitioners who are curious about the leadership styles and skills necessary to develop a sustainable future Strategic

Management ,2004 In a business world characterised by change turbulence and corporate scandals strategy is more crucial today than ever before Far too often top management develops a strategy for the company that is never communicated to or understood by other levels After Leadership Brigid Carroll,Josh Firth,Suze Wilson,2018-09-17 Leadership studies today resembles a bewildering diversity of theories concepts constructs and approaches struggling in huge part for meaning relevance and impact As Dennis Tourish so eloquently puts it much of the literature suffers from unrelenting triviality and sterile preoccupations Seeking to create a clean break from this current state of leadership studies After Leadership begins with the premise of a post apocalyptic world where only fragments of leadership science now remain echoing Alisdair McIntyre s imagining of such a scene as the basis for re establishing the foundations and focus of moral theory From these fragments the authors seek to construct a new leadership studies that challenges much of the established thinking on leadership exposes its limitations and biases and most importantly seeks to construct the foundations of a more inclusive participatory bold relational and social platform for leadership in the future After Leadership thus imagines a brave new world where what leadership is and what we seek from it can be developed anew rather than remaining bound up in the problematic traditions and preoccupations that characterise leadership studies today Offering both full length chapter explorations that explore new ways of understanding and practicing leadership as well as shorter essays that aim to provoke further reflection on leadership and what we seek of it After Leadership offers a uniquely critical and creative collection that will inspire students scholars and leadership educators to reconsider their understanding and practice of leadership
