Interpreting Qualitative Data David Silverman, 2006-08-22 In this exciting and major updating of one the most important textbooks for beginning qualitative researchers David Silverman seeks to match the typical chronology of experience faced by the student reader Earlier editions of Interpreting Qualitative Data largely sought to provide material for students to answer exam questions yet the undergraduate encounter with methods training is increasingly assessed by students doing their own research project In this context the objective of the Third Edition is to offer undergraduates the kind of hands on training in qualitative research required to guide them through the process

Microcredit Meltdown Crystal Murphy, 2018-12-03 Established to help people jumpstart their lives and economy after over a half century of conflict the South Sudanese microcredit sector collapsed in 2012 six years after its takeoff to the detriment of some 80 000 participants Microcredit Meltdown is an account of the ambitious launch and premature downfall of the Southern Sudanese microcredit industry Through a mixed methods ethnographic approach the book charts the state and non state actors that embarked upon economic development after war the assumptions built into microlending and the impact of ideologies and social norms on economic practice The text compares industry theories with the experiences of borrowers and finds that microcredit failed in South Sudan due to false assumptions that were inapplicable to this post conflict environment Yet the over promising and under delivering commercial microcredit was not isolated to South Sudan or even post conflict settings The Juba microcredit story is an instance of the broader global shift toward the commercial microcredit model Initiated to get badly needed capital into the hands of poor people instead the focus became sustaining a lending program The text shows how the ideological and material constraints of the commercial microcredit paradigm were woefully misaligned with local socio cultural realities and created the collapse in South Sudan
