B. Byers,2020-11-19 Originally published in 1985 Deterrence in the 1980s offers analyses by leading American and Canadian scholars and decision makers in the field of strategic studies of the current problems and dilemmas of contemporary international security with deterrence nuclear and conventional as the unifying conceptual theme Deterrence as theory as history as psychology as politics as ethics and as policy is addressed The authors outline the complexities of deterrence in theory and in practice and offer proposals regarding the future operationalization of deterrence in order both to reassure Western publics and to enhance Western and international security Soviet American strategic relations along with the problems posed for the Western Alliance are analysed Within the context of NATO the dilemmas for both Europe and North America of extended deterrence are raised Despite the current crisis of deterrence no other security strategy appears viable as long as nuclear weapons are retained for purposes of national security However current trends in the operationalization of deterrence nuclear war fighting capabilities have raised concerns about the future of deterrence New Technology for NATO USA Office of Technology Assessment,1987 New Books National Defense University. Benelux Security Cooperation George J. Stein,2019-04-11 This book is an exploration of the security and defense policies of Belgium the Netherlands and Luxembourg with the specific goal of discovering opportunities for greater Benelux security cooperation which could serve as the foundation of a European Defense Community Battlefield Nuclear Weapons, Issues and Options Stephen D. Biddle,Peter D. Feaver,1989-12 Battlefield nuclear weapons BNW have become a major Alliance concern In the wake of the INF Treaty the superpower summit at Reykjavik and the proposals of Mikhail Gorbachev NATO is reevaluating nearly every aspect of its defense posture This book is designed to contribute to that reevaluation by analyzing what deterrent value BNW have and whether they offer the military capability necessary to offset the potential damage to Alliance cohesion To help sort out answers to these questions CSIA held a conference on BNW organized by fellows Stephen Biddle and Peter Feaver This paper in presenting the results of that conference has three purposes to introduce the issues raised by BNW in the post INF era to present a survey of the specialist debate and to analyze the disagreements underlying the debate Co published with Center for Science and International Affairs Harvard University Professional Journal of the United States Army ,1984 The Third World War Scare in Britain Philip A.
