The Adventures Of Ibn Battuta:

The Adventures of Ibn Battuta Ross E. Dunn, 2004-12-09 Known as the greatest traveler of premodern times Abu Abdallah ibn Battuta was born in Morocco in 1304 and educated in Islamic law At the age of twenty one he left home to make the holy pilgrimage to Mecca This was only the first of a series of extraordinary journeys that spanned nearly three decades and took him not only eastward to India and China but also north to the Volga River valley and south to Tanzania The narrative of these travels has been known to specialists in Islamic and medieval history for years Ross E Dunn s 1986 retelling of these tales however was the first work of scholarship to make the legendary traveler s story accessible to a general audience Now updated with revisions a new preface and an updated bibliography Dunn s classic interprets Ibn Battuta s adventures and places them within the rich trans hemispheric cultural setting of medieval Islam The

Adventures of Ibn Battuta Ross E. Dunn, 2012-06-01 Ross Dunn here recounts the great traveler s remarkable career interpreting it within the cultural and social context of Islamic society and giving the reader both a biography of an extraordinary personality and a study of the hemispheric dimensions of human interchange in medieval times The

Adventures of Ibn Battuta, a Muslim Traveller of the Fourteenth Century Ross E. Dunn, 1986 Details the life and extensive travels of Ibn Battuta an Islamic scholar of the fourteenth century interpreting his career as a diplomatic envoy within the cultural and social context of Islamic society The Adventures of Ibn Battuta Ross E. Dunn, 1989 Known as the greatest traveler of premodern times Abu Abdallah ibn Battuta was born in Morocco in 1304 and educated in Islamic law At the age of twenty one he left home to make the holy pilgrimage to Mecca This was only the first of a series of extraordinary journeys that spanned nearly three decades and took him not only eastward to India and China but also north to the Volga River valley and south to Tanzania The narrative of these travels has been known to specialists in Islamic and medieval history for years Ross E Dunn s retelling of these tales however is the first work of scholarship to make the legendary traveler s story accessible to a general audience The Adventures of Ibn Battuta Ratnawati Mohd-Asraf, 1993 The

Amazing Adventures of Ibn Battuta Noura Durkee, 1995-01-01 Traveling Man James Rumford, 2001-09-24 Ibn Battuta was the traveler of his age the fourteenth century a time before Columbus when many believed the world to be flat Like Marco Polo Ibn Battuta left behind an account of his own incredible journey from Morocco to China from the steppes of Russia to the shores of Tanzania some seventy five thousand miles in all James Rumford has retold Ibn Battuta s story in words and pictures adding the element of ancient Arab maps maps as colorful and as evocative as a Persian miniature as intricate and mysterious as a tiled Moroccan wall Into this arabesque of pictures and maps James Rumford has woven the story not just of a traveler in a world long gone but of a man on his journey through life The Travels of Ibn Battuta

David DiMeo, Inas Hassan, 2016-11-04 A unique and richly engaging approach to teaching Arabic at the high intermediate to advanced level The Travels of Ibn Battuta A Guided Reader is a unique Arabic literature and history textbook for students at the High Intermediate to Advanced level Ibn Battuta was the greatest traveler of the medieval period and his narrative provides an unmatched view of medieval civilization from Spain to China and from Russia to Mali Students will read the authentic descriptions of Ibn Battuta's encounters with cannibals desert bandits Mongol chieftains and his impressions of wonders from Timbuktu to Constantinople to Quanzhou This book provides a guided and scaffolded survey of Ibn Battuta's greatest travels through twenty lessons each with extensive preparatory explanatory and application exercises enabling students to read the actual words of the original text without undue difficulty While telling a fascinating narrative as a whole each of the twenty lessons is designed to stand alone for classroom or individual study Individual sections focus on classical grammar and stylistics historical and cultural background and critical evaluation of the texts The book also provides teachers with a wide range of comprehension composition interpretation and research activities Ibn Battuta Henrietta

Toth,2017-07-15 In 1325 a young Muslim man named Ibn Battuta set out on a religious pilgrimage to Mecca It would be nearly thirty years before he returned home Ibn Battuta was a fourteenth century pilgrim traveler scholar and writer He walked sailed and rode some seventy five thousand miles across the medieval Muslim world covering the equivalent of forty four modern day countries This volume details the fascinating cultures Battuta experienced the people he met the foods he ate the dangers he faced plus his viewpoints on family religion and slavery Learn how the legacy of this medieval traveler still resonates today Traveling Man James Rumford,2004-05 For use in schools and libraries only Tells of the true adventures of Ibn Battuta a 14th century traveler who like Marco Polo set forth on a 75 000 mile journey of discovery through many lands including Tanzania China Russia and Morocco Journeys to the Other Shore Roxanne L.

Euben,2008-07-01 The contemporary world is increasingly defined by dizzying flows of people and ideas But while Western travel is associated with a pioneering spirit of discovery the dominant image of Muslim mobility is the jihadi who travels not to learn but to destroy Journeys to the Other Shore challenges these stereotypes by charting the common ways in which Muslim and Western travelers negotiate the dislocation of travel to unfamiliar and strange worlds In Roxanne Euben's groundbreaking excursion across cultures geography history genre and genders travel signifies not only a physical movement across lands and cultures but also an imaginative journey in which wonder about those who live differently makes it possible to see the world differently In the book we meet not only Herodotus but also Ibn Battuta the fourteenth century Moroccan traveler Tocqueville's journeys are set against a five year sojourn in nineteenth century Paris by the Egyptian writer and translator Rifa'a Rafi al-Tahtawi and Montesquieu's novel Persian Letters meets with the memoir of an East African princess Sayyida Salme This extraordinary book shows that curiosity about the unknown the quest to understand foreign cultures critical distance from one's own world and the desire to remake the foreign into the familiar are not the monopoly of any single civilization or epoch Euben demonstrates that the fluidity of identities cultures and borders associated with our postcolonial globalized world has a long history one shaped not only by Western power but also by an Islamic ethos of travel in search of knowledge      The Mongol Storm Nicholas Morton, 2022-11-15 How the Mongol invasions of the Near East reshaped the balance of world power in the Middle Ages For centuries the Crusades have been central to the story of the medieval Near East but these religious wars are only part of the region's complex history As The Mongol Storm reveals during the same era the Near East was utterly remade by another series of wars the Mongol invasions In a single generation the Mongols conquered vast swaths of the Near East and upended the region's geopolitics Amid the chaos of the Mongol onslaught long standing powers such as the Byzantines the Seljuk Turks and the crusaders struggled to survive while new players such as the Ottomans arose to fight back The Mongol conquests forever transformed the region while forging closer ties among societies spread across Eurasia This is the definitive history of the Mongol assault on the Near East and its enduring global consequences

Historical Dictionary of the Berbers (Imazighen) Hsain Ilahiane, 2017-03-27 Berbers also known as Imazighen are the ancient inhabitants of North Africa but rarely have they formed an actual kingdom or separate nation state Ranging anywhere between 15 50 million depending on how they are classified the Berbers have influenced the culture and religion of Roman North Africa and played key roles in the spread of Islam and its culture in North Africa Spain and Sub Saharan Africa Taken together these dynamics have over time converted to redefine the field of Berber identity and its socio political representations and symbols making it an even more important issue in the 21st century This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Berbers contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on important personalities places events institutions and aspects of culture society economy and politics This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Berbers

How the World Made the West Josephine Quinn, 2025-10-21 An award winning Oxford history professor makes a forceful argument and tells a story with great verve The Wall Street Journal that the West is and always has been truly global Those archaic Western Civ classes so many of us took in college should be updated argues Quinn who invites us to revel in a richer more polyglot inheritance The Boston Globe AN ECONOMIST BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR LONGLISTED FOR THE CUNDILL HISTORY PRIZE In How the World Made the West Josephine Quinn poses perhaps the most significant challenge ever to the civilizational thinking regarding the origins of Western culture that is the idea that civilizations arose separately and distinctly from one another Rather she locates the roots of the modern West in everything from the law codes of Babylon Assyrian irrigation and the Phoenician art of sail to Indian literature Arabic scholarship and the metalworking riders of the Steppe to name just a few examples According to Quinn reducing the backstory of the modern West to a narrative that focuses on Greece and Rome impoverishes our view of the past This understanding of history would have made no sense to the ancient Greeks and Romans themselves who understood and discussed their own connections to and borrowings from others They consistently presented their own culture as the result of contact and exchange Quinn builds on the writings they left behind with rich analyses of other ancient literary sources like the epic of Gilgamesh holy texts and newly discovered records revealing details of everyday life A work of breathtaking scholarship How the World Made the West also draws on the material culture of the times in art and artifacts as well as findings from the latest scientific advances in carbon dating and human genetics to thoroughly debunk the myth of the modern West as a self made miracle In lively prose and with bracing clarity as well as through vivid maps and color illustrations How the World Made the West challenges the stories the West continues to tell about itself It redefines our understanding of the Western self and civilization in the cosmopolitan world of today

Facing the Sea of Sand Barry Cunliffe, 2023 Northern Africa is dominated by the Sahara Desert stretching across the continent from the Atlantic Ocean to the Red Sea This book is about the people who lived around the edges of the Desert and the different ways in which they responded to its challenges establishing networks of communication across its expanse But the Sahara has not always been a desert From about 9000 BC the region began to enjoy a warm humid period allowing vegetation to flourish and wild animals to move in Humans soon followed practising pastoral economies but with the onset of harsher conditions once more around 3000 BC the desert reclaimed its own Since then fluctuations in climate have continued to affect the lives of people living around the desert fringes The communities occupying the North African Coast and in the Nile Valley have come under the influence of the states dominating the Near East and the Mediterranean but those living in the Sahel to the south of the desert have developed their own distinctive cultures The book tells the story of the growing links between the two worlds showing that Africa played a crucial part in the development of the Old World before it was drawn into the story of the New World

The Western Mediterranean and the World Teofilo F. Ruiz, 2017-10-02 From the Straits of Gibraltar to Sicily the European northern Mediterranean nations to the shores of North Africa the western Mediterranean is a unique cultural and sociopolitical entity which has had a singular role in shaping today's global society The Western Mediterranean and the World is the fascinating story of the rise of that peculiar world and of its evolution from the end of the Western Roman Empire to the present Uniquely rather than present the history of the region as a strict chronological progression the author takes a thematic approach telling his story through a series of vignettes case studies and original accounts so as to provide a more immediate sense of what life in and around the Mediterranean was like from the end of the Roman Empire in the West to the present immigration crisis now unfolding in Mediterranean waters Emphasizing the development of religion and language and the enduring synergies and struggles between Christian Jews and Muslims on both shores of the western sea Dr Ruiz connects the region to the larger world and locates the development of Mediterranean societies within a global context Describes the move from religious and linguistic unity under Roman rule to the fragmented cultural landscape of today Explores the relationship of language culture and geography focusing on the role of language formation and linguistic identity in the emergence of national communities Traces the movements of peoples across regions and their encounters with new geographical cultural and political realities Addresses the emergence of various political identities and how they developed into set patterns of political organization Emphasizes the theme of encounters as seen from Christian Muslim and Jewish perspectives While it is sure to become a definitive text for university courses on Mediterranean history The Western Mediterranean and the World will also have great appeal among scholars of the Mediterranean as well as general readers of history Part of The Blackwell History of the World Series The goal of this ambitious series is to provide an accessible source of knowledge about the entire human past for every curious person in every part of the world It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production

Journeys to the Other Shore Euben,2007-09      The Transmission of Learning in Islamic Africa Scott Steven Reese,2004-01-01 This collected volume challenges much of the conventional wisdom regarding the intellectual history of Islamic Africa In a series of essays ranging from early modern Africa to the present contributors explore the dynamism of the Muslim learned classes in regard to both purely intellectual pursuits and social concern      Remembering the Crusades Nicholas Paul,Suzanne Yeager,2012-04-02 Few events in European history generated more historical artistic and literary responses than the conquest of Jerusalem by the armies of the First Crusade in 1099 This epic military and religious expedition and the many that followed it became part of the collective memory of communities in Europe Byzantium North Africa and the Near East Remembering the Crusades examines the ways in which those memories were negotiated transmitted and transformed from the Middle Ages through the modern period Bringing together leading scholars in art history literature and medieval European and Near Eastern history this volume addresses a number of important questions How did medieval communities respond to the intellectual cultural and existential challenges posed by the unique fusion of piety and violence of the First Crusade How did the crusades alter the form and meaning of monuments and landscapes throughout Europe and the Near East What role did the crusades play in shaping the collective identity of cities institutions and religious sects In exploring these and other questions the contributors analyze how the events of the First Crusade resonated in a wide range of cultural artifacts including literary texts art and architecture and liturgical ceremonies They discuss how Christians Jews and Muslims recalled and interpreted the events of the crusades and what far reaching implications that remembering had on their communities throughout the centuries Remembering the Crusades is the first collection of essays to investigate the commemoration of the crusades in eastern and western cultures Its unprecedented multidisciplinary and cross cultural approach points the way to a complete reevaluation of the place of the crusades in medieval and modern societies      The City in the Muslim World Mohammad Gharipour,Nilay Ozlu,2015-03-05 Presenting a critical yet innovative perspective on the cultural interactions between the East and the West this book questions the role of travel in the production of knowledge and in the construction of the idea of the Islamic city This volume brings together authors from various disciplines questioning the role of Western travel writing in the production of knowledge about the East particularly focusing on the cities of the Muslim world Instead of concentrating on a specific era chapters span the Medieval and Modern eras in order to present the transformation of both the idea of the Islamic city and also the act of traveling and travel writing Missions to the East whether initiated by military religious economic scientific diplomatic or touristic purposes resulted in a continuous construction de construction and re construction of the self and the other Including travel accounts which depicted cities extending from Europe to Asia and from Africa to Arabia chapters epitomize the construction of the Orient via textual or visual representations By examining various tools of representation such as drawings paintings cartography and photography in depicting the urban landscape in constant flux the book emphasizes the role of the mobile individual in defining city space and producing urban culture Scrutinising the role of travellers in producing the image of the world we know today this book is recommended for researchers scholars and students of Middle Eastern Studies Cultural Studies Architecture and Urbanism
