Transgressing Boundaries. Elizabeth F. Oldfield, 2013 Fictions written between 1939 and 2005 by indigenous and white post colonial women writers emerging from an African European cultural experience form the focus of this study Their voyages into the European diasporic space in Africa are important for conveying how African women's literature is situated in relation to colonialism. Notwithstanding the centrality of African literature in the new postcolonial literatures in English, the accomplishments of the indigenous writer Grace Ogot have been eclipsed by the critical attention given to her male counterparts while Elspeth Huxley, Barbara Kimenye and Marjorie Oludhe Macgoye, who are of Western cultural provenance but adopt an African perspective, are not accommodated by the genre of expatriate literature. The present study of both indigenous and white postcolonial women's narratives that are common to both categories fills this gap. Focused on the representation of gender identity, culture and the Other, the texts selected are set in Kenya and Uganda and a main concern is with the extent to which they are influenced by setting and intercultural influences. The African woman's creation of textuality is at once the expression of female individualities and a transgression of boundaries. The particular category of fiction for children as written by Kimenye and Macgoye reveals the configuration of a voice and identity for the female Other and writer which enables a subversive renegotiation of identity in the face of patriarchal traditions.

Sundiata Lynne Mansure, 2002-06
Sundiata is the story of a man who lived in West Africa almost 800 years ago. It is the myth of a hunter's prophecy that a king will marry an ugly foreign woman who will give birth to a son who will come to rule the kingdom on Mali. It is a tale of conquest and heroism.

The Adventures of the Crumpsall Kid Mike Harding, 2015-09-24
Warm nostalgic and very funny. Mike Harding's memoir of his early life in post-war Manchester is as idiosyncratic and engaging as the man himself.

Growing Up at Lina School Marjorie Oludhe Macgoye, 1988
Grace and her family return to Kenya from England where they have been living for quite some time. Young Grace joins a girls' boarding school in Kenya. While her parents are worried she might not adjust to the new system, for Grace and the other girls at Lina School life is full of action, fun and adventure.

Kobole's Misfortunes David G. Maillu, Orwell D. J. Taylor, 2023-05-25
A fascinating exploration of George Orwell and his body of work by an award-winning Orwellian biographer and scholar, presenting the author anew to twenty-first century readers. We find ourselves in an era when the moment is ripe for a reevaluation of the life and the works of one of the twentieth century's greatest authors. This is the first twenty-first century biography on George Orwell with special recognition to D. J. Taylor's stature as an award-winning biographer and Orwellian. Using new sources that are now available for the first time, we are tantalizingly at the end of the lifespan of Orwell's last few contemporaries whose final reflections are caught in this book. The way we look at a writer and his canon has changed even over the course of the last two decades there is a post millennial prism through which we must now look for such a biography to be fresh and relevant This is what Orwell The New Life achieves Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa s history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 Adventure in Nairobi Juma Bustani, 1990 Frank Abia and Truphosa work together to help Uncle Kiki who is in big trouble with the police
