The African Slave Trade 1450 185:

Seafaring, Sailors and Trade, 1450-1750 G.V. Scammell, 2024-10-28 This second volume of articles by G V Scammell offers new insights into the history of British and European shipping in the centuries of Europe's penetration into the oceans of the world from the 15th to the 18th century It examines the building ownership and operation of merchantmen in the context of economic and social developments of the period combining this with the investigation of the vital but still comparatively neglected subjects of the lives working conditions beliefs skills and behaviour of seamen This is the basis for discussion of the means and methods by which British shipping and merchants established themselves in oceanic trades including those of other powers considered in relation to the growth of British maritime and commercial supremacy The final studies then examine the causes and consequences of European and British seaborne expansion particularly in Asia

Historiography of Europeans in Africa and Asia, 1450-1800 Anthony Disney, 2019-07-25 The first part of this volume deals with the changes and continuities in historical approaches over the last fifty years with three further sections focusing on initial contacts formal presences and informal presences Emphasis has been placed on the major European players in Asia and Africa before 1800 the Portuguese Dutch and English without neglecting the role played by the French Spanish Scandinavians and others The Church in Africa, 1450-1950 Adrian Hastings, 1996 Professor Hastings also compares the relation of Christian history to the comparable development of Islam in Africa

Biological Consequences of the European Expansion, 1450-1800 Stephen V. Beck, 2022-02-16 Wherever the European has trod death seems to pursue the aboriginal So wrote Charles Darwin in 1836 Though there has been considerable discussion concerning their precise demographic impact reflected in the articles here there is no doubt that the arrival of new diseases with the Europeans such as typhus and smallpox had a catastrophic effect on the indigenous population of the Americas and later of the Pacific In the Americas malaria and yellow fever also came with the slaves from Africa themselves imported to work the depopulated land These diseases placed Europeans at risk too and with some resistance to both disease pools Africans could have a better chance of survival Also covered here is the controversy over the origins of syphilis while the final essays look at agricultural consequences of the European expansion in terms of nutrition both in North America and in Europe

Eyewitness to History Stephen G. Hyslop, 2010 History comes alive in this engaging and lavishly illustrated chronicle which spans world events and people from ancient times to the 21st century The voices of the great and humble speak to us through songs documents edicts poetry letters menus and even graffiti revealing each era's conflicts daily life arts science religion and enduring influence Interactive design focuses on the tangible artifacts of history and magnificent illustrations including period art archival photographs and expertly rendered scenes of long ago events bring vivid immediacy and eye appeal to every colorful spread With its unique emphasis on voices from the past its competitive price point and its inviting innovative design Eyewitness to History is poised to be THE pick for value minded customers looking for an absorbing take on world history     Europeans Abroad, 1450–1750 David Ringrose, 2018-08-10 This innovative book looks beyond the traditional history of European expansion which highlights European conquests empire building and hegemony in order to explore the more human and realistic dimensions of European experiences abroad David Ringrose argues that Early Modern Europe was relatively poor and that its industrial and military technology while distinctive in some ways was not obviously superior to that of Africa or Asia As a result the interaction between Europeans abroad and the peoples they met was vastly different from the relationship created by the economic and military imperialism of the post 1750 Industrial Revolution Instead the author depicts it as a process of cultural interaction collaboration and assimilation masked by narratives of European conquest or assertion of control Ringrose convincingly shows that Europeans who went abroad before 1700 engaged in an exchange of cross cultural contact and has framed the process in its own time rather than as the precursor of what came later Then as now historical actors knew nothing of the unexpected consequences of their actions     Spain in America, 1450-1580 Edward Gaylord Bourne, 1904     The American Nation: Spain in America, 1450-1580, by E.G. Bourne Albert Bushnell Hart, 1906     Before Middle Passage: Translated Portuguese Manuscripts of Atlantic Slave Trading from West Africa to Iberian Territories, 1513-26 Trevor P. Hall, 2016-03-09 On the 20th of January 1526 the Santiago left Lisbon bound for Africa with a cargo of brass and tin bracelets round bells barber basins and cloth by early October the ship was back in Portugal with a very different cargo 108 enslaved Africans With chilling detachment the ship's trading log records the commodification of human beings the prices paid for them the sums received for their sale and the number who did not survive the crossing Whilst this log may be extremely rare it is clear from another surviving document the receipt book of the customs office of the Portuguese Cape Verde Islands that such voyages were commonplace in the early years of the sixteenth century The bulk of this volume consists of a translation into English of the receipt book from the customs office of the Cape Verde Islands In it Portuguese customs agents recorded import duties on over 3 000 slaves transported from nearby West Africa in 36 ships The customs officers named the slave traders ships officers crew and outfitters of the ships as well as the price of each slave and the import duty collected by the Portuguese government and the Catholic Church A second section of the customs book provides details of export taxes paid on c 600 African slaves by merchants from Portugal Spain and the Spanish Canary Islands when they exchanged European merchandise for slaves The final chapter of the volume translates the Santiago's log providing an example of an actual slave trading expedition Taken together these documents open a rare window into the workings and scope of the early Atlantic slave trade     The American Nation: Spain in America, 1450-1580 Albert Bushnell Hart, 1904     The American Nation: Bourne, E. G. Spain in America, 1450-1580 Albert Bushnell Hart, 1907     A History of Christianity in Asia, Africa, and Latin America, 1450-1990 Klaus Koschorke, Frieder Ludwig, Mariano Delgado, Roland Spliesgart, 2007-09-14 Taking the three continents in turn the documents trace chronologically the transfer of Christianity from the beginning of Western colonization through the end of the Cold War

Traditional forms of Christianity in Asia and Africa are not covered The emphasis is on the voices of people working in the field both missionaries and Indigenous people rather than those at the imperial centers

The American Nation, a History: Bourne, E. G. Spain in America, 1450-1580 Albert Bushnell Hart,1904 Dutch and Portuguese in Western Africa Filipa Ribeiro da Silva,2011-07-28 More than fifty years have passed since Charles Boxer wrote his major works on the Dutch Portuguese rivalries in the Atlantic and attributed the successful takeover of North eastern Brazil Angola S o Tom and the Gold Coast forts by the WIC to the superior naval power of the Dutch This book reexamines the systems of settlement and trade of these States and their subjects in Western Africa and the Atlantic offering a fresh insight on discussions about the success and failure of Dutch and Portuguese States Companies and Merchants in the seventeenth century Atlantic

The Atlantic Slave Trade Jeremy Black,2017-11-30 Covering the Atlantic slave trade from its origins to 1600 the essays in this collection look at the reasons for the causes of slavery and serfdom slavery in Africa the development of the slave trade the demographic situation in Latin America and European attitudes to slavery as an institution

Capitalism: Histories Robert G. Ingram,James M. Vaughn,2025-01-28 Charts the emergence and development of capitalism across the world from a variety of perspectives providing a deep understanding of how capitalism came to be the dominant economic force This book re examines the historical emergence and evolution of capitalism Why did a radically new way of organizing economic life emerge in regions of the early modern world Why did it eventually encompass the globe tying the peoples of the world together in a common economic fate These questions have been at the heart of historical and social scientific inquiry since the nineteenth century They are explored and answered anew by the scholars gathered together in this geographically and theoretically capacious volume The chapters explore the emergence and development of capitalism in Africa Western Europe Eastern Europe South Asia East Asia North America and the Atlantic world and they engage with many of the major intellectual approaches for understanding capitalism from the New Institutional Economics to world systems theory The authors share a common commitment but not a common approach to understanding the historical development of capitalism They believe that the emergence and evolution of capitalism must be understood by examining the concrete conditions of socioeconomic life in a particular country empire or region and that such empirically and archivally driven historical analysis must be combined with theoretical discussion of the concepts and categories used to make sense of capitalism and its dynamics This work offers different accounts of capitalist development across and within major regions of the world It is a histories of rather than a history of capitalism As such it introduces readers to new historical research on capitalist development in different regional and national contexts and to several significant intellectual approaches for understanding what Max Weber called the most fateful force of our modern life ROBERT G INGRAM is Professor of Humanities at the University of Florida JAMES M VAUGHN is Assistant Instructional Professor in the Social Sciences Collegiate Division at the University of Chicago Contributors Gareth Austin Ralph Austen Peter Coclanis Tracy Dennison C Alexander Evans Emma

Griffin Robert G Ingram Anirban Karak John Majewski Mark Metzler Kenneth Pomeranz J Mark Ramseyer Tirthankar Roy and Horus T an Routledge Handbook of Critical African Heritage Studies Ashton Sinamai, John D. Giblin, Shadreck Chirikure, Ishanlosen Odiaua, 2024-09-06 This handbook is a foundational reference point for critical heritage research about Africa and its diaspora. Foregrounding the diversity of knowledge systems needed to examine heritage issues in such a diverse continent, the contributors to this volume argue for an understanding of heritage that is at once both natural and cultural, tangible and intangible, political and dissonant, going beyond the physical and objective to include subjective narratives, performances, rituals, memories, and emotions. They examine the pre-coloniality, coloniality, post-coloniality, and decoloniality of current African heritage discourses and their consequences, analyse how heritage legislation derived from colonial law is compatible or otherwise with how heritage is perceived, identified, and remembered in African communities, discuss questions of repatriation, restitution, and reparations in relation to the return of artefacts from Western countries, illuminate the importance of difficult heritage within Africa and its diaspora, consider the role of heritage for development in Africa. Making a crucial contribution to our understanding of African conceptions and practices of heritage, this book is an important read for scholars of African Studies, heritage and museum studies, archaeology, anthropology, and history. Forts, Castles and Society in West Africa, 2018-10-02 Long regarded as disturbing remnants of the Atlantic slave trade, the European forts and castles of West Africa have attained iconic positions as universally significant historical monuments and world heritage tourist destinations. This volume of original contributions by leading Africanists presents extensive new historical views of the forts in Ghana and Benin, providing both impetus and a scholarly basis for further research and fresh debate about their historical and geographical contexts, their role in the slave trade, the economic and political connections centred on the forts between the Europeans and local African polities, and their place in variously focused heritage studies and endeavours. Contributors are Hermann W von Hesse, Daniel Hopkins, Jon Olav Hove, Ole Justesen, Ineke van Kessel, Robin Law, John Kwadwo Osei Tutu, Jarle Simensen, Selena Axelrod Winsnes, Larry Yarak. African Thresholds: Borders and Places of Passage in Africa, c.1450 to Present, 2025-06-19 The Open Access publication of this book has been made possible by the Swiss National Science Foundation. What is a border and why does it exist? Reappraising a key idea from Arnold van Gennep's Les rites de passage, this book argues that a border is a threshold, a limen, made to be crossed. African Thresholds studies places of passage spanning from the riverine networks of Senegambia to border-making in colonial Gold Coast and Côte d'Ivoire, from the desert roads of central southern Africa to river heartlands in colonial Togo, from flows of cowrie shells across the Volta River to insurgent borderities in the Lake Chad. In a time when state borders are increasingly shut, this book aims to show us that a border is made by those who cross it as much as by those who stand by it. Contributors are Ettore Morelli, Fernando Mouta, Pierluigi Valsecchi, Maria Jos Pont, Chérif Giulia Casentini, and Aimé Raoul Sumo Tayo. Ufahamu, 1976
