The Afternoon Of Life A Bouquet For Longevity:

The Afternoon of Life Anita Makar,2000 Midlife Maze Janis Clark Johnston,2017-02-16 Have you found yourself wilting in midlife and wondering what you might do to flourish in your remaining years Have you lost your way in the midlife maze due to a significant loss Did you lose your job or desired career advancement Did you separate or divorce Did your last child leave home Did your family experience a virtual storm of bankruptcy or lose your life savings in a financial meltdown Did you or someone in your family experience the loss of good health Or did you weather the death of a family member partner or friend Your loss story is personal Your path through winding passages during midlife is unique Perhaps the most important encouragement for your grieving process is to know this simple fact grieving is a natural healing response to loss rather than a pathological experience Midlife can be a time of reflection rebellion or reconnecting to old or new interests and activities It can also be a time when losses start to happen or begin to pile up divorce death of a loved one loss of a job or home the moving out and on of grown children and learning how to move forward can be a challenge Here a seasoned psychologist looks at the geography of loss in midlife the way it can affect us and what we can do to get back on track or redirect ourselves when necessary Through first hand stories and practical exercises the author leads readers through the midlife maze to a place of recovery purpose and peace The Code of Health and Longevity Sir John Sinclair,1807
