The Age Of Electronic Messages New Liberal Arts:

The Age of Electronic Messages John G. Truxal, 1990 The risks and benefits of today's communications technology from bar codes to medical imaging

Social Responsibility in Science, Technology, and Medicine Paul T. Durbin, 1992 Not everyone agrees that professionals including academic philosophers need to be actively engaged in this fashion So another theme throughout is an argument against non engaged philosophers non engaged scientists and other non engaged professionals The social problems of a technological society are manifest The book attempts to show in a scholarly way how they might be addressed effectively Jacket

The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1995 Liberal Arts for the Christian Life Jeffry C. Davis, Philip Graham Ryken, 2012-04-30 For over forty years Leland Ryken has championed and modeled a Christian liberal arts education His scholarship and commitment to integrating faith with learning in the classroom have influenced thousands of students who have sat under his winsome teaching Published in honor of Professor Ryken and presented on the occasion of his retirement from Wheaton College this compilation carries on his legacy of applying a Christian liberal arts education to all areas of life Five sections explore the background of a Christian liberal arts education its theological basis habits and virtues differing approaches and ultimate aims Contributors including Philip Ryken Jeffry Davis Duane Litfin John Walford Alan Jacobs and Jim Wilhoit analyze liberal arts as they relate to the disciplines the Christian faith and the world Also included are a transcript of a well known 1984 chapel talk delivered by Leland Ryken on the student's calling and practical chapters on how to read write and speak well Comprehensive in scope this substantial volume will be a helpful guide to anyone involved in higher education as well as to students pastors and leaders looking for resources on the importance of faith in learning

Discovery, Innovation, and Risk Newton Copp, Andrew Zanella, 1993 Discovery Innovation and Risk presents brief descriptions of selected scientific principles in the context of interesting technological examples to illustrate the complex interplay among science engineering and society

The Evolution of Liberal Arts in the Global Age Peter Marber, Daniel Araya, 2017-03-16 Advanced and developing countries across the globe are embracing the liberal arts approach in higher education to foster more innovative human capital to compete in the global economy Even as interest in the tradition expands outside the United States can the democratic philosophy underlying the liberal arts tradition be sustained Can developing countries operating under heavy authoritarian systems cultivate schools predicated on open discussion and debate Can entrenched specialist systems in Europe and Asia successfully adopt the multidisciplinary liberal arts model These are some of the questions put to leading scholars and senior higher education practitioners within this edited collection Beginning with historical context international contributors explore the contours of liberal arts education amid public calls for change in the United States the growing global interest in the approach outside the United States as well as the potential of liberal arts philosophy in a global knowledge economy
