The Age of Immunology A. David Napier, 2010-12-15 In this fascinating and inventive work A David Napier argues that the central assumption of immunology that we survive through the recognition and elimination of non self has become a defining concept of the modern age Tracing this immunological understanding of self and other through an incredibly diverse array of venues from medical research to legal and military strategies and the electronic revolution Napier shows how this defensive way of looking at the world not only destroys diversity but also eliminates the possibility of truly engaging difference thereby impoverishing our culture and foreclosing tremendous opportunities for personal growth To illustrate these destructive consequences Napier likens the current craze for embracing diversity and the use of politically correct speech to a cultural potluck to which we each bring different dishes but at which no one can eat unless they abide by the same rules Similarly loaning money to developing nations serves as a tool both to make the peoples in those nations more like us and to maintain them in the nonthreatening status of distant dependents To break free of the resulting downward spiral of homogenization and self focus Napier suggests that we instead adopt a new defining concept based on embryology in which development and self growth take place through a process of incorporation and transformation In this effort he suggests that we have much to learn from non Western peoples such as the Balinese whose ritual practices require them to take on the considerable risk of injecting into their selves the potential dangers of otherness and in so doing ultimately strengthen themselves as well as their society The Age of Immunology with its combination of philosophy history and cultural inquiry will be seen as a manifesto for a new age and a new way of thinking about the world and our place in it

The Age of Charisma Jeremy C. Young, 2016-12-28 An innovative examination of American society culture and politics The Age of Charisma argues that the modern relationship between American leaders and followers grew out of a unique group of charismatic social movements prominent in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Drawing on hundreds of letters and testimonials Jeremy C Young illustrates how personal magnetism in public speaking shaped society by enabling a shift from emotionally inaccessible leadership to emotionally available leadership This charismatic speaking style caused a rapid transformation in the leader follower relationship creating an emotional link between speakers and listeners and the effects of this social transformation remain with us today Young argues that ultimately charismatic movements enhanced American democracy by encouraging the personalization of leadership creating a culture in which today s leaders appeal directly to Americans through mass media

The Age of Em Robin Hanson, 2016-05-19 Robots may one day rule the world but what is a robot ruled Earth like Many think the first truly smart robots will be brain emulations or ems Scan a human brain then run a model with the same connections on a fast computer and you have a robot brain but recognizably human Train an em to do some job and copy it a million times an army of workers is at your disposal When they can be made cheaply within perhaps a century ems will displace humans in most jobs In this new economic era the world economy may double in size every few weeks Some say we can't know the future especially following such a disruptive new technology but Professor Robin Hanson sets out to prove them wrong Applying decades of expertise in physics computer science and economics he uses standard theories to paint a detailed picture of a world dominated by ems While human lives don't change greatly in the em era em lives are as different from ours as our lives are from those of our farmer and forager ancestors Ems make us question common assumptions of moral progress because they reject many of the values we hold dear Read about em mind speeds body sizes job training and career paths energy use and cooling infrastructure virtual reality aging and retirement death and immortality security wealth inequality religion teleportation identity cities politics law war status friendship and love This book shows you just how strange your descendants may be though ems are no stranger than we would appear to our ancestors To most ems it seems good to be an em THE AGE OF NEW ERA Rafal

Influence Warfare in the Age of Social Media James J. F. Forest, 2021-09-09 Spotlights how various entities are using the Internet to shape people's perceptions and decision making and describes detailed case studies as well as the tools and methods used to identify automated fake accounts This book brings together three important dimensions of our everyday lives First is digital the online ecosystem of information providers and tools from websites blogs discussion forums and targeted email campaigns to social media video streaming and virtual reality Second influence the most effective ways people can be persuaded in order to shape their beliefs in ways that lead them to embrace one set of beliefs and reject others And finally warfare wars won by the information and disinformation providers who are able to influence behavior in ways they find beneficial to their political social and other goals The book provides a wide range of specific examples that illustrate the ways people are being targeted by digital influencers There is much more to digital influence warfare than terrorist propaganda fake news or Russian efforts to manipulate elections chapters examine post truth narratives fabricated alternate facts and brainwashing and disinformation within the context of various political scientific security and societal debates The final chapters examine how new technical tools critical thinking and resilience can help thwart digital influence warfare efforts

Essence in the Age of Evolution Christopher J. Austin, 2018-10-10 This book offers a novel defence of a highly contested philosophical position biological natural kind essentialism This theory is routinely and explicitly rejected for its purported inability to be explicated in the context of contemporary biological science and its supposed incompatibility with the process and progress of evolution by natural selection Christopher J Austin challenges these objections and in conjunction with contemporary scientific advancements within the field of evolutionary developmental biology the book utilises a contemporary neo Aristotelian metaphysics of dispositional properties or causal powers to provide a theory of essentialism centred on the developmental architecture of organisms and its role in the evolutionary process By defending a novel theory of Aristotelian biological natural kind essentialism Essence in the Age of Evolution represents the fresh and exciting union of cutting edge philosophical insight and scientific knowledge
