The Age Of The Spirit Religion As Experience:

The Age of the Spirit Philip Toynbee, 1973 The Spirit of the Age, 1850 Holy Spirit and Religious Experience in Christian Literature ca. AD 90-200 John Eifion Morgan-Wynne, 2006-06-01 Holy Spirit and Religious Experience seeks to find out how far the centrality of the Holy Spirit in Christian experience during the earliest period of the church was maintained or diminished in the third to the fifth generations ca AD 90 200 Three themes are explored First the sense of encounter with the divine presence the numinous a sense of being caught up into the divine being or being overwhelmed by the One who is beyond us Secondly a sense of being illuminated in respect to the truth given deeper understanding of God's purpose whether for the individual or the congregation or guided in decision making Thirdly a sense of ethical empowerment an awareness of being helped by divine power assisted in a course of action or development of character in grappling with temptation or in the ultimate test of loyalty martyrdom This book is arranged geographically from Syria and Asia Minor in the East to Rome and Gaul in the West including North Africa and Egypt Christian authors within these areas are examined chronologically from the later New Testament writers through the second century to Clement of Alexandria and Tertullian of Carthage for the evidence they supply The variegated picture which emerges it is contended reflects second century Christianity The Spirit of the Appalachian Trail Susan Power Bratton, 2013-08-30 Want to know what wilderness means to people who live it for over two thousand miles Then read this extremely interesting informative intelligent and thoughtful book Roger S Gottlieb author of Engaging Voices Tales of Morality and Meaning in an Age of Global Warming There is no doubt that Bratton's book will be of value to students and scholars of leisure studies recreation and religion Those who are familiar with the Appalachian Trail sense intuitively that a journey along its length kindles spiritual awakening this book provides the hard data to prove it's true David Brill author of As Far as the Eye Can See Reflections of an Appalachian Trail Hiker The Appalachian Trail covers 2 180 miles passing through fourteen states from Georgia to Maine Each year an estimated 2 3 million people visit the trail and almost two thousand attempt a thru hike walking the entire distance of the path For many the journey transcends a mere walk in the woods and becomes a modern day pilgrimage In The Spirit of the Appalachian Trail Community Environment and Belief Susan Power Bratton addresses the spiritual dimensions of hiking the Appalachian Trail AT Hikers often comment on how their experience as thru hikers changes them spiritually forever but this is the first study to evaluate these religious or quasireligious claims critically Rather than ask if wilderness and outdoor recreation have benefits for the soul this volume investigates specifically how long distance walking might enhance both body and mind Most who are familiar with the AT sense intuitively that a trek along its length kindles spiritual awakening Using both a quantitative and qualitative approach this book provides the hard data to support this notion Bratton bases her work on five sources an exhaustive survey of long distance AT hikers published trail diaries and memoirs hikers own logs and postings her own personal observations from many years on the trail and conversations with numerous members of the AT community including the trail angels residents of small towns along the path who attend to hikers need for food shelter or medical attention The abundant photographs reinforce the text and enable visualization of the cultural and natural context This volume is fully indexed with extensive reference and notes sections and detailed appendixes Written in an engaging and accessible style The Spirit of the Appalachian Trail presents a full picture of the spirituality of the AT Susan Power Bratton is professor of environmental studies She is the author of Six Billion and More Human Population Regulation and Christian Ethics Environmental Values in Christian Art and Christianity Wilderness and Wildlife The Original Desert Solitaire Religion and the American Experience: A Social and Cultural History, 1765-1996 Donald C.

Swift,2016-12-05 Religion in the USA manifests itself in many forms and this book examines them from religion in the early republic to early African American religion reform nativism movements and fundamentalism up to the contemporary culture wars in a study that spans almost 250 years The Wider Work of the Holy Spirit Jalal S. L.,2024-11-30 If all beauty truth and goodness come from God through the Spirit then how should we understand God s presence within other religions and human made cultures that display these qualities Christian theology needs to better understand how different religions together with their cultural practices can function as a channel through which the one true God can reveal himself In this erudite and thought provoking work Dr Jalal S L delves into the revelatory presence of the invisible God which manifests itself in diverse ways across cultures traditions and religions Exploring biblical passages affirming the work and presence of the Spirit outside the church this study provides a theologically informed perspective on religious experiences in the Indian context Through examining how the omnipresent work of the Spirit may lead religious adherents to a deeper contextual appreciation of God s character the potential for diverse faiths to reveal the divine presence is uncovered Scholars and theologians alike will find illuminating insights for recognizing and fostering the unrestricted work of the Spirit s inside and outside the church The Spirit of the Child David Hay,2006-01-19 David Hay argues for the inclusion of spiritual

Outlines of the Psychology of Religion Horatio Willis Dresser,1929 The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Yacob Godebo,2025-07-03 The Scriptures teach the church that in biblical times the coming of the Holy Spirit equally entailed objective gift of divine reality and subjective experience of his presence gifts and works There was objective pouring out and imparting of the Holy Spirit from the divine side and subjective experiential demonstration from the receivers side which resulted from the gifts endowed and power imparted along with the Holy Spirit Having given them either verbally uttered or visibly performed gifts the Holy Spirit then moved believers towards practical demonstration through subjective experience Believers subjective experience took place only as a result of the objective gift of the Holy Spirit and the resulting endowment and empowerment Thus in the objective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit is the objective gift of God to indwell his people In the subjective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit endows people with audibly uttered or visibly performed gifts The subjective experience of the Holy Spirit s presence therefore is an original theological input from God just like the objective impartation of the Holy Spirit Practitioners were just objects of divine purpose and their subjective experience was divine provided and divine initiated genuine experience beyond their consciousness and calculation Reception of the Holy Spirit therefore means equally an experience of his presence gifts power and works in the church and in with and through believers from Hosanna to Maranatha

The Varieties of Religious Experience: A Study in Human Nature William James,2017-06-07 The Varieties of Religious Experience A Study in Human Nature is a book by the Harvard psychologist and philosopher William James comprising 20 lectures given at the University of Edinburgh in Scotland These lectures concerned the nature of religion and the neglect of science in James view in the academic study of religion Soon after its publication the book found its way into the canon of psychology and philosophy and has remained in print for over a century James was most interested in direct religious experiences Theology and the organizational aspects of religion were of secondary interest He believed that religious experiences were simply human experiences Religious happiness is happiness Religious trance is trance He believed that religious experiences can have morbid origins in brain pathology and can be irrational but nevertheless are largely positive Get Your Copy Now Possession and Persuasion Robert Hach,2001-11-12 Possession and Persuasion The Rhetoric of Christian Faith is a rhetorical analysis of Christian history and theology initially prompted by my experience in a fundamentalist Christian sect The story of this experience is briefly told in the prologue The Rhetoric of Surrender which describes the surrender of my life to God through a commitment to an authoritarian Christian sect in Gainesville Florida in 1972 when I was a freshman at the University of Florida I spent the following fifteen years first as a student recruit trainee and then leader in the founding church in Gainesville and then as a recruiter and trainer in other parts of the U S until I finally left the movement now called the International Churches of Christ in 1987 I subsequently combined graduate study in rhetoric with a continuing interest in biblical and historical scholarship in an effort to understand how my religious experience fit into the broader context of Christian history and theology I concluded that the New Testament language of faith originally formulated to persuade hearers of the Christian message by means of understanding had been radically redefined and its effects rhetorically reengineered by the ecclesiastical Christianity which had gradually emerged after the first century this process of rhetorical reinvention produced a language of faith that possessed its hearers by means of a mystical form of indoctrination in the interest of building a religious empire The degree to which ecclesiastical Christianity throughout its history has taken its faith language seriously my experience having been produced by a movement that took this language to its logical conclusion is the degree to which its adherents experience a religious bondage that amounts to the antithesis of the spiritual freedom and social equality of the original experience of Christian faith Part I Faith as Possession addresses critical changes made by post apostolic theologians in the apostolic discourse of the New Testament about the message of Jesus specifically with reference to the rhetorics of authority Chapter One knowledge Chapter Two and justice Chapter Three This rhetorical reengineering of apostolic language facilitated the rise of the institutional Church which rapidly replaced the apostolic message as the authorized mediator between God and humanity in general and between God and the community of faith in particular That is the dynamic of persuasion by an eschatological message was rapidly replaced by the dynamic of possession by an ecclesiastical system The redefinition and reconceptualization of these apostolic terms amounted to the rhetorical invention of Christianity a form of Greco Roman mythology which has little in common with the faith of Jesus as it is revealed in the New Testament The faith of Christianity became and continues to be to varying degrees a form of possession insofar as it consists of in both a mystical and an institutional sense belonging to the Church which relieves its members of their responsibility for their own identity and destiny Part II Faith as Persuasion explores the rhetoric of three apostolic ideals which have generally received little more than lip service by post apostolic Christianity understanding Chapter Four anticipation Chapter Five and freedom Chapter Six These concepts are integral to persuasion as the modus operandi of the apostolic Christian faith Understanding is a prerequisite to authentic persuasion in that persuasion or belief without understanding is the essence of possession In that the meaning and power of the Christian message are a matter of the hope of resurrection to life in the coming kingdom of God anticipation is the logical response to being understandingly persuaded of the truth of the message And insofar as internal bondage characterizes life without hope
