Israel Denial Cary Nelson, 2019-06-07 A work of rigorous intellectual inquiry critiquing the BDS movement in academia Jewish Journal Israel Denial is the first book to offer detailed analyses of the work faculty members have published individually and collectively in support of the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS movement it contrasts their claims with options for promoting peace The faculty discussed here have devoted a significant part of their professional lives to delegitimizing the Jewish state While there are beliefs they hold in common including the conviction that there is nothing good to say about Israel they also develop distinctive arguments designed to recruit converts to their cause in novel ways They do so both as writers and as teachers Israel Denial is the first to give substantial attention to anti Zionist pedagogy No effort to understand the BDS movement's impact on the academy and public policy can be complete without the kind of understanding this book offers A co publication of the Academic Engagement Network

Resident Alien Mohammed Kazim Ali, 2015-11-23 Kazim Ali uses a range of subjects the politics of checkpoints at international borders difficulties in translation collaborations between poets and choreographers and connections between poetry and landscape or between biotechnology and the human body to situate the individual human body into a larger global context with all of its political and social implications He finds in the quality of ecstatic utterance his passport to regions where reason and logic fail and the only knowledge is instinctual in physical existence and breath This collection includes Ali's essays on topics such as Anne Carson's translations of Euripides the poetry and politics of Mahmoud Darwish Josey Foo's poetry dance collaborations with choreographer Leah Stein Olga Broumas collaboration with T Begley Jorie Graham s complication of Kenneth Goldsmith s theories the postmodern spirituality of the 14th century Kashmiri mystic poet Lalla translations of Homer Mandelstam Sappho and Hafez as well as the poet Reetika Vazirani s practice of yoga Natives against Nativism Olivia C. Harrison,2023-04-04 Examining the intersection of Palestine solidarity movements and antiracist activism in France from the 1970s to the present For the past fifty years the Palestinian question has served as a rallying cry in the struggle for migrant rights in postcolonial France from the immigrant labor associations of the 1970s and Beur movements of the 1980s to the militant decolonial groups of the 2000s In Natives against Nativism Olivia C Harrison explores the intersection of anticolonial solidarity and antiracist activism from the 1970s to the present Natives against Nativism analyzes a wide range of texts novels memoirs plays films and militant archives that mobilize the twin figures of the Palestinian and the American Indian in a crossed critique of Eurocolonial modernity Harrison argues that anticolonial solidarity with Palestinians and Indigenous Americans has been instrumental in developing a sophisticated critique of racism across imperial formations in this case France the United States and Israel Serving as the first relational study of antiracism in France Natives against Nativism observes how claims to indigeneity have been deployed in multiple directions both in the ongoing struggle for migrant rights and racial justice and in white nativist claims in France today Die Romische Republik EPUB 2-3,2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous most distinctive and most influential poems Decolonizing Palestine Somdeep Sen,2020-12-15 In Decolonizing Palestine Somdeep Sen rejects the notion that liberation from colonialization exists as a singular moment in history when the colonizer is ousted by the colonized Instead he considers the case of the Palestinian struggle for liberation from its settler colonial condition as a complex psychological and empirical mix of the colonial and the postcolonial Specifically he examines the two seemingly contradictory yet coexistent anticolonial and postcolonial modes of politics adopted by Hamas following the organization s unexpected victory in the 2006 Palestinian Legislative Council election Despite the expectations of experts Hamas has persisted as both an armed resistance to Israeli settler colonial rule and as a governing body Based on ethnographic material collected in the Gaza Strip the West Bank Israel and Egypt Decolonizing Palestine argues that the puzzle Hamas presents is not rooted in predicting the timing or process of its abandonment of either role The challenge instead lies in explaining how and why it maintains both and what this implies for the study of liberation movements and postcolonial studies more generally Mythopoetic Cinema Kriss Ravetto-Biagioli,2017-08-08 In Mythopoetic Cinema Kriss Ravetto Biagioli explores how contemporary European filmmakers treat mythopoetics as a critical practice that questions the constant need to provide new identities a new Europe and with it a new European cinema after the fall of the Soviet Union Mythopoetic cinema questions the perpetual branding of movements ideas and individuals Examining the work of Jean Luc Godard Alexander Sokurov Marina Abramovi and Theodoros Angelopoulos Ravetto Biagioli argues that these disparate artists provide a critical reflection on what constitutes Europe in the age of neoliberalism Their films reflect not only the violence of recent years but also help question dominant models of nation building that result in the general failure to respond ethically to rising ethnocentrism In close readings of such films as Sokurov's Russian Ark 2002 and Godard's Notre Musique 2004 Ravetto Biagioli demonstrates the ways in which these filmmakers engage and evaluate the recent reconceptualization of Europe's borders mythic figures and identity paradoxes Her work not only analyzes how these filmmakers thematically treat the idea of Europe but also how their work questions the ability of the moving image to challenge conventional ways of understanding history

Captivating Westerns Susan Kollin, 2019-05-01 Tracing the transnational influences of what has been known as a uniquely American genre the Western Susan Kollin's Captivating Westerns analyzes key moments in the history of multicultural encounters between the Middle East and the American West In particular the book examines how experiences of contact and conflict have played a role in defining the western United States as a crucial American landscape Kollin interprets the popular Western as a powerful national narrative and presents the cowboy hero as a captivating figure who upholds traditional American notions of freedom and promise not just in the region but across the globe Captivating Westerns revisits popular uses of the Western plot and cowboy hero in understanding American global power in the post 9/11 period Although various attempts to build a case for the war on terror have referenced this quintessential American region genre and hero they have largely overlooked the ways in which these celebrated spaces icons and forms rather than being uniquely American are instead the result of numerous encounters with and influences from the Middle East By tracing this history of contact encounter and borrowing this study expands the scope of transnational studies of the cowboy and the Western and in so doing discloses the powerful and productive influence the Middle East has had on the American West

The Holy Land in Transit Steven Salaita, 2015-02-01 Steven Salaita's ambitious and thought provoking work compares the dynamics of settler colonialism in the United States related to Native Americans with the circumstances in Israel related to the Palestinians revealing the way in which politics influences literary production The author's original approach is based not on similarities between the two disparate settler regions but rather on similarities between the rhetoric employed by early colonialists in North America and that employed by Zionist immigrants in Palestine Meticulously examining histories theories and literary depictions of colonialism and its interethnic dialects Salaita identifies the commonalities in the myths employed by both groups as well as the counter discourse cultivated in the literature of resistance by native peoples He complements his analysis with personal observations of Palestinians in Lebanese refugee camps where he encountered a sympathetic perception of American Indians The Holy Land in Transit presents one of the first intercommunal studies to assess the ways in which indigenous authors react to analogous colonial dynamics With great perception and energy the author offers a fresh contribution to an emerging frame of reference for historical political literary and cultural investigation

An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba Doctor Nahla

Abdo,Nur Masalha,2018-05-15 In 2018 Palestinians mark the 70th anniversary of the Nakba when over 750 000 people were uprooted and forced to flee their homes in the early days of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Even today the bitterness and trauma of the Nakba remains raw and it has become the pivotal event both in the shaping of Palestinian identity and in galvanising the resistance to occupation Unearthing an unparalleled body of rich oral testimony An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba tells the story of this epochal event through the voices of the Palestinians who lived it uncovering remarkable new insights both into Palestinian experiences of the Nakba and into the wider dynamics of the ongoing conflict Drawing together Palestinian accounts from 1948 with those of the present day the book confronts the idea of the Nakba as an event consigned to the past instead revealing it to be an ongoing process aimed at the erasure of Palestinian memory and history In the process each unique and wide ranging contribution leads the way for new directions in Palestinian scholarship
