The African Colonial State In Comparative Perspective:

The African Colonial State in Comparative Perspective Crawford Young, 1994 In this comprehensive and original study a distinguished scholar of African affairs argues that the crisis in African development can be traced directly to European colonial rule which left the continent with a singularly difficult legacy Crawford Young proposes a new conception of the state weighing the characteristics of European empires of the past including those of Holland Portugal England and Venice and distilling their common qualities He then presents a concise and wide ranging history of colonization in Africa from construction through consolidation and decolonization Young argues that several qualities combined to make the European colonial experience in Africa distinctive The high number of nations competing for power on the continent and the necessity to achieve effective occupation swiftly yet make the colonies self financing drove colonial powers toward policies of ruthless extractive action The persistent virulent racism that distanced rulers from subjects was especially central to African colonial history Young concludes by comparing the fates of former African colonies with those of their once colonized counterparts elsewhere In tracing both the overarching similarities and variations in African colonial states he makes a strong case that colonialism has played a critical role in shaping the fate of a troubled continent

China into Africa Robert I. Rotberg, 2009-10-01 Africa has long attracted China We can date their first certain involvement from the fourteenth century but East African city states may have been trading with southern China even earlier In the mid twentieth century Maoist China funded and educated sub Saharan African anticolonial liberation movements and leaders and the PRC then assisted new sub Saharan nations Africa and China are now immersed in their third and most transformative era of heavy engagement one that promises to do more for economic growth and poverty alleviation than anything attempted by Western colonialism or international aid programs Robert Rotberg and his Chinese African and other colleagues discuss this important trend and specify its likely implications Among the specific topics tackled here are China's interest in African oil military and security relations the influx and goals of Chinese aid to sub-Saharan Africa human rights issues and China's overall strategy in the region China's insatiable demand for energy and raw materials responds to sub-Saharan Africa's relatively abundant supplies of unprocessed metals diamonds and gold while offering a growing market for Africa's agriculture and light manufactures As this book illustrates this evolving symbiosis could be the making of Africa the poorest and most troubled continent while it further powers China's expansive economic machine Contributors include Deborah Brautigam American University Harry Broadman World Bank Stephen Brown University of Ottawa Martyn J Davies Stellenbosch University Joshua Eisenman UCLA Chin Hao Huang Stockholm International Peace Research Institute Paul Hubbard Australian Department of the Treasury Wenran Jiang University of Alberta Darren Kew University of Massachusetts Boston Henry Lee Harvard University Li Anshan Peking University Ndubisi Obiorah Centre for Law and Social Action Nigeria Stephanie Rupp National University of Singapore Dan Shalmon Georgetown University David Shinn George Washington University Chandra Lekha Sriram University of East London and Yusuf Atang Tanko University of Massachusetts Boston

Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa's Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum's Doguicimi 1938 D O Fagunwa's Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola's The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives

Self-Protective Leadership and Organizational Effectiveness David Kelvin Amoo-Osae, Jr, 2024-12-13 This book investigates and explores the impact of a self protective leadership SPL style on the organizational effectiveness of start up businesses within Africa focusing on Ghana and Kenya Self protective leadership is defined as a leadership style that focuses on ensuring the safety and security of individuals and groups through status enhancing and face saving tactics A typical self protective leader can make decisions and is free from political influences but tends to be selfish ritualistic and self centered The author s study presented in this book demonstrates a surprisingly high preference for SPL among Confucian Asian Latin American Middle Eastern and Sub Saharan African nations all of which have a history of colonialism If this is true then SPL could be better suited to the business environment in Africa but particularly amongst start up enterprises Examining this phenomenon and using an explorative analysis of business and culture the book investigates the extent to which the various dimensions or demonstrations of SPL impact organizational effectiveness in African start up businesses A valuable contribution to literature and research on African leadership styles this is an ideal resource for students and researchers interested in leadership and organizational effectiveness within the African context

Conversations with Tocqueville Aurelian Craiutu, Sheldon Gellar, 2009-02-16 The questions and issues raised by Tocqueville in his monumental studies of France and America are just as crucial for understanding the evolution of democracy in the West and the development of democracy in the non-western world They clearly show the breadth of Tocqueville's contributions to the development of modern social sciences Among the questions addressed by Tocqueville were How does the weight of the past affect the evolution of political institutions and political behavior What impact do differences in physical environment have on the organization of society What are the relationships between social equality freedom and democracy To what extent does centralization destroy the capacity for local initiative and self governance What conditions are needed to nurture the flourishing of self governing communities What safeguards are needed to preserve freedom and to prevent incipient democracies from becoming dictatorships Why has democracy had such a problem taking hold in many parts of the non western world How should one study democracy in non western settings Tocquevillian analytics can help us provide answers Addressed to a wider audience than Tocqueville scholars the book argues that Tocquevillian analytics can be used to understand developments in non western as well as western societies and be updated to address such issues as globalization ethnicity New World Old World comparisons and East West dynamics The first part of the book examines the basic components of Tocquevillian analytics outlining its stepwise interdisciplinary approach to understanding societies and nations The second part applies the Tocquevillian conceptual framework to the contemporary world and contains individual chapters on various regions of the world North America Russia Western Europe Asia Africa and Latin America Unlike previous collective works on Tocqueville Conversations with Tocqueville does not offer a survey of the authors views but instead focuses on presenting a cohesive International History of the Twentieth Century and Beyond Antony Best, Jussi M.
