Klevzon, 1969 A social studies textbook introducing the geography history economics politics and culture of various regions in Asia and Africa      China and the Afro-Asian World Harish Kapur, 1966      The Afro-Asian World and the Law of Nations (historical Aspects) Charles Henry Alexandrowicz, 1968      AfroAsian Encounters Heike Raphael-Hernandez, Shannon Steen, 2006-11 How might we understand yellowface performances by African Americans in 1930s swing adaptations of Gilbert and Sullivan's The Mikado Paul Robeson's support of Asian and Asian American struggles or the absorption of hip hop by Asian American youth culture AfroAsian Encounters is the first anthology to look at the mutual influence of and relationships between members of the African and Asian diasporas in the Americas While these two groups have often been thought of as occupying incommensurate if not opposing cultural and political positions scholars from history literature media and the visual arts here trace their interconnections and interactions as well as how they have been set in opposition by white systems of racial domination AfroAsian Encounters probes beyond popular culture to trace the historical lineage of these coalitions from the post Civil War era through the present From the history of Japanese jazz composers to the current popularity of black Asian buddy films like Rush Hour AfroAsian Encounters is a groundbreaking intervention into studies of race and ethnicity and a crucial look at the shifting meaning of race in America in the twenty first century      Afro-Asian Bulletin, 1962      Afro-asian Voices Melchora D. Lüthi, 2020-03-19 What was the Cold War that shook world politics for the second half of the twentieth century Standard narratives focus on Soviet American rivalry as if the superpowers were the exclusive driving forces of the international system Lorenz M L thi offers a radically different account restoring agency to regional powers in Asia the Middle East and Europe and revealing how regional and national developments shaped the course of the global Cold War Despite their elevated position in 1945 the United States Soviet Union and United Kingdom quickly realized that their political economic and military power had surprisingly tight limits given the challenges of decolonization Asian African internationalism pan Arabism pan Islamism Arab Israeli antagonism and European economic developments A series of Cold Wars ebbed and flowed as the three world regions underwent structural changes that weakened or even severed their links to the global ideological clash leaving the superpower Cold War as the only major conflict that remained by the 1980s Winning the Third World Gregg A. Brazinsky, 2017-02-23 Winning the Third World examines afresh the intense and enduring rivalry between the United States and China during the Cold War Gregg A Brazinsky shows how both nations fought vigorously to establish their influence in newly independent African and Asian countries By playing a leadership role in Asia and Africa China hoped to regain its status in world affairs but Americans feared that China s history as a nonwhite anticolonial nation would make it an even more dangerous threat in the postcolonial world than the Soviet Union Drawing on a broad array of new archival materials from China and the United States Brazinsky demonstrates that disrupting China s efforts to elevate its stature became an important motive behind Washington s use of both hard and soft power in the Global South Presenting a detailed narrative of the diplomatic economic and cultural competition between Beijing and Washington Brazinsky offers an important new window for understanding the impact of the Cold War on the Third World With China s growing involvement in Asia and Africa in the twenty first century this impressive new work of international history has an undeniable relevance to contemporary world affairs and policy making Afro Asia Fred Ho, Bill V.
