The Albers Collection Of Precolumbian Art:

The Albers Collection of Pre-Columbian Art Karl A. Taube, 1988 Shows and describes pottery carvings and textiles produced by the Indians of Mexico Small-great Objects Jennifer Reynolds-Kaye, Yale University. Art Gallery, 2017-01-01 Small Great Objects presents a remarkable look into the art collecting practices of two of modern art's most widely influential figures Anni 1899 1994 and Josef 1888 1976 Albers Their impressive collection of over 1 400 objects from Latin America namely Mexico and Peru represents a conscious endeavor that goes well beyond that of a casual hobby displaying a deep appreciation for the art textiles and overall ingenuity of the ancient American world This insightful book draws on primary source materials such as the couple's letters personal papers and archival photographs many never before published and demonstrates their conviction that these Prehispanic objects displayed a formal sophistication and bold abstraction that defy the prevalent conception of the works as primitive Moreover it shows how the Alberses spread their appreciation of the ancient world to others through their teachings their writings and their own art practices ALBERS COLLECTION OF PRE-COLUMBIAN ART. , 1988 Pre-Columbian Mexican Miniatures Anni Albers, 1970 In selecting the objects to include in this book Anni Albers was guided by her belief that all art is an act of condensation that the small pre-Columbian images shown here are truly a lesson in economy of artistic articulation that neither small size nor a modest material such as clay nor even the specific idiom of a period will keep true art from emanating its timeless meaning book jacket Olmec Art at Dumbarton Oaks Karl A. Taube, Dumbarton Oaks, 2004 Olmec Art at Dumbarton Oaks presents the Olmec portion of the Robert Woods Bliss Collection of Pre-Columbian Art It illustrates all thirty-nine Olmec art objects in color plates and includes many complementary and comparative black and white illustrations and drawings The body of Pre-Columbian art that Robert Bliss carefully assembled over a half century between 1912 and 1963 amplified only slightly since his death is a remarkably significant collection In addition to their aesthetic quality and artistic significance the objects hold much information regarding the social worlds and religious and symbolic views of the people who made and used them before the arrival of Europeans in the New World This volume is the second in a series of catalogues that will treat objects in the Bliss Pre-Columbian Collection The majority of the Olmec objects in the collection are made of jade the most precious material for the peoples of ancient Mesoamerica from early times through the sixteenth century Various items such as masks statuettes jewelry and replicas of weapons and tools were used for ceremonial purposes and served as offerings Karl Taube brings his expertise on the lifeways and beliefs of ancient Mesoamerican peoples to his study of the Olmec objects in the Bliss collection His understanding of jade covers a broad range of knowledge from chemical compositions to geological sources to craft technology to the symbolic power of the green stone Throughout the book the author emphasizes the role of jade as a powerful symbol of water fertility and particularly of the maize plant which was the fundamental source of life and sustenance for the Olmec The shiny green of the stone was analogous to the green growth of maize This fundamental concept was elaborated in specific religious beliefs many of which were continued and elaborated by later Mesoamerican peoples such as the Maya Karl Taube employs his substantial knowledge of Pre Columbian cultures to explore and explicate Olmec symbolism in this catalogue Concise Dictionary of Women Artists Delia Gaze,2013-04-03 This book includes some 200 complete entries from the award winning Dictionary of Women Artists as well as a selection of introductory essays from the main volume Dictionary of Women Artists: Introductory surveys ; Artists, A-I Delia Gaze,1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Guide to the Arts of the Americas Harmer Johnson,1992

new arts from the trackless wilds of the frontier Benfey's father escaped from Nazi Europe along with his aunt and uncle the famed Bauhaus artists Josef and Anni Albers by fleeing across the Atlantic and finding an eventual haven in the American South Bricks form the backbone of life in North Carolina's rural Piedmont where Benfey's mother was raised among centuries old folk potteries tobacco farms and clay pits Her father like his father before him believed in the deep honesty of brick that men might build good lives with the bricks they laid Nurtured in this red clay world of ancient craft and Quaker radicalism Benfey's mother was poised to set out from home when a tragic romance cracked her young life in two Salvaging the broken shards of his mother's past and exploring the revitalized folk arts resisting industrialization Benfey discovers a world brimming with possibility and creativity Benfey's father had no such foundation in his young life nor did his aunt and uncle Exiled artists from Berlin's Bauhaus school Josef and Anni Albers were offered sanctuary not far from the Piedmont at Black Mountain College A radical experiment in unifying education and art Black Mountain made a monumental impact on American culture under Josef's leadership counting Robert Rauschenberg John Cage and Buckminster Fuller among its influential students and teachers Focusing on the natural world innovative craftsmanship and the physical reality of materials Black Mountain became a home and symbol for an emerging vision of American art Threading these stories together into a radiant and mesmerizing harmony Red Brick Black Mountain White Clay is an extraordinary quest to the heart of America and the origins of its art

Non-literary Fiction Esther Gabara, 2022-12-06 Explores a new form of fiction that emerged in late twentieth century visual art across the Americas With Non literary Fiction Esther Gabara examines how contemporary art produced across the Americas has reacted to the rising tide of neoliberal regimes focusing on the crucial role of fiction in daily politics Gabara argues that these fictions depart from familiar literary narrative structures and emerge in the new mediums and practices that have revolutionized contemporary art Each chapter details how fiction is created through visual art forms in performance and body art posters mail art found objects and installations For Gabara these fictions comprise a type of art that asks viewers to collaborate in the creation of the work and helps them to withstand the brutal restrictions imposed by dominant neoliberal regimes During repressive regimes of the 1960s and 1970s and free trade agreements of the 1990s artists and critics consistently said no to economic privatization political deregulation and reactionary social logic as they rejected inherited notions of visual literary and political representation Through close analyses of artworks and writings by leading figures of these two generations including Indigenous thinkers Gabara shows how negation allows for the creation of fiction outside textual forms of literature

The First Writing Stephen D. Houston, 2004-12-09 In this book leading scholars in the field discuss and analyse the origins of ancient writing

The Stone and the Thread César Paternosto, 1996-01-01 Shows that precolumbian tectonic forms especially as found in sculpture and weaving appear to be an overlooked source or anticipation of much of the art of the 20th century Second part of book deals with artifacts as American art and addresses reception of ancient tectonics in the 20th century Emphasizes intense relationship that some members of the New York School particularly Barnett Newman and Adolph Gottlieb had during 1940s with the aboriginal arts of the North American part of the hemisphere and thus the affinities between their work and the work of the older Torres García in Montevideo at the other end of the continent Handbook of Latin American Studies v 58 Notable American Women Susan Ware, 2004 This latest volume brings the project up to date with entries on almost 500 women whose death dates fall between 1976 and 1999 You will find here stars of the golden ages of radio film dance and television scientists and scholars civil rights activists and religious leaders Native American craftspeople and world renowned artists For each subject the volume offers a biographical essay by a distinguished authority that integrates the woman's personal life with her professional achievements set in the context of larger historical developments Women Who Changed the World

The Experimenters Eva Díaz, 2014-12-25 In the years immediately following World War II Black Mountain College an unaccredited school in rural Appalachia became a vital hub of cultural innovation Practically every major artistic figure of the mid twentieth century spent some time there Merce Cunningham Ray Johnson Franz Kline Willem de Kooning Robert Motherwell Robert Rauschenberg Dorothea Rockburne Aaron Siskind Cy Twombly the list goes on and on Yet scholars have tended to view these artists time at the College as little more than prologue a step on their way to greatness With The Experimenters Eva D az reveals the importance of Black Mountain College and especially of three key teachers Josef Albers John Cage and R Buckminster Fuller to be much greater than that D az s focus is on experimentation Albers Cage and Fuller she shows taught new models of art making that favored testing procedures rather than personal expression These methodologies represented incipient directions for postwar art practice elements of which would be sampled and often wholly adopted by Black Mountain students and subsequent practitioners The resulting works which interrelate art and life in a way that imbues these projects with crucial relevance not only reconfigured the relationships among chance order and design they helped redefine what artistic practice was and could be for future generations Offering a bold compelling new angle on some of the most widely studied creative figures of modern times The Experimenters does nothing less than rewrite the story of art in the mid twentieth century Prehistoric Pictures and American Modernism Elke Seibert, 2023-09-21 In April 1937 the Museum of Modern Art in New York hosted an exhibition that served as a catalyst for the appropriation of prehistoric rock art in postwar abstract painting With the title Prehistoric Rock Pictures in Europe and Africa it displayed a range of copies from the influential collection of the German ethnologist Leo Frobenius Largely disregarded in modern American art history up until now this book highlights the importance of this exhibition to artists such as Josef Albers Adolph Gottlieb David Smith and The American Abstract Artists group who sought inspiration from the prehistoric images primordial creativity With a transnational scope this book reveals new facts about the connections between Paris and New York and the importance of communication and collaboration between them for these artists In doing so Seibert shows that this debate was about more than just legitimizing abstract art forms from the past but about recognizing an autonomous American abstract art Presenting unseen archival material letters and exhibition documentation Prehistoric Pictures and American Modernism offers a new reading of the development of modern American abstraction and will hold an important place in the historiography of the movement its global traditions and its legacy
