The Almanac Of The Christian World 1993 1994:

The Almanac of the Christian World Edythe Draper, 1992 This second edition now offers even more to families students researchers or those just looking for some interesting reading Includes national and international news events of 1991 schedules of conventions and crusades book music leadership magazine and video award winners lists of Christian schools foundations churches and other organizations and more The Rise of Lakewood Church and Joel Osteen Richard Young, 2012-02-01 He was the most unlikely of protagonists a young man with no college or seminary degree and virtually no preaching experience Yet Joel Osteen was handed the reins of his father's lifelong ministry when John Osteen died suddenly in 1999 Here are the behind the scenes details of the miraculous rise of Lakewood Church from humble beginnings in a Texas feed store to becoming the largest church in America Learn the inside story that catapulted Joel Osteen to prominence as one of the most influential Christian voices of our generation From the life and times of John and Joel Osteen you will learn the power of vision humility integrity faith and much more You will be inspired and encouraged and never again will you doubt what God can do with those who are fully devoted to Him The Rise of Protestantism in Modern Korea Andrew Eungi Kim, 2022-11-09 Combining sociological historical and comparative approaches this book examines one of the most striking aspects of South Korea specifically the emergence of Protestant Christianity as the largest contemporary religion in the country What is extraordinary about the religion's success is that its growth has been achieved in 130 years since 1884 and that it took place in a country with a rich oriental tradition replete with shamanism Taoism Buddhism and Confucianism The text critically demonstrates the socio anthropological perceptiveness of the Korean Peninsula making it a great resource for scholars and students of sociology contemporary culture history religion colonialism and geopolitics The Quality of Life in Korea Doh Chull Shin, Conrad P. Rutkowski, Chong-Min Park, 2013-04-17 This is the first volume ever published to examine the objective and subjective qualities of Korean life from both comparative and dynamic perspectives It presents non Western policy alternatives to enhancing the quality of citizens lives distinguishing Korea as an Asian model of economic prosperity and political democracy The book is intended for academics policy makers and the general public interested in recent developments in Korea Protestantism and Politics in Korea Chung-shin Park, 2011-07-01 Following its introduction to Korea in the late nineteenth century Protestantism grew rapidly both in numbers of followers and in influence and remained a dominating social and political force throughout the twentieth century In Protestantism and Politics in Korea Chung shin Park charts this stunning growth and examines the shifting political associations of Korean Protestantism Elsewhere in Asia evangelical Protestant missionaries failed to have much social and political impact being perceived as little more than agents of Western imperialism But in Korea the church became a locus of national resistance to Japanese colonization in the fifty years preceding 1945 Missionaries and local adherents steadily gained popular support as they became identified with progressive political reforms After World War II and the division of the Korean peninsula however most Protestant institutions in South Korea were conscripted into the fight against communism. In addition, they became involved in the postwar push for rapid economic development. These alliances led to increasing political conservatism so that mainstream Korean Protestantism eventually became a stalwart defender of the authoritarian status quo. A small liberal minority remained politically active, supporting social and human rights causes throughout the 1960s and 1970s, laying the foundation for mass protests and gradual democratic liberalization in the 1980s. Park documents the theological evolution of Korean Protestantism from early fundamentalism to more liberal doctrines and shows how this evolution was reflected in the political landscape.

More Than Precious Memories Michael P. Graves, David Fillingim, 2004. Scott Tucker looks at the theme of heaven in six of the Gaither Homecoming songbooks. David Fillingim looks at how Southern Gospel Music answers the question of theodicy from the perspective of the rural white working class. Robert M. McManus explores selected song lyrics to show how Southern Gospel Music helps construct the identity of the community compared to Contemporary Christian Music. Darlene R. Graves identifies key sustaining personality strengths of women that tend to preserve consistency between their public performance and personal spiritual walk. Elizabeth E. Desnoyers Colas and Stephanie Howard Asabi explore Southern Gospel and Black Gospel music through the influence of Thomas A. Dorsey. Michael Graves examines how the culture of Southern Gospel Music deals with its inevitable prodigal sons. Raymond D. S. Anderson analyzes the Gaither Homecoming videos as examples of the postmodern turn in American popular Christian culture. John D. Keeler presents the first audience study of southern Gospel Music employing a Uses and Gratifications research framework. Paul A. Creasman examines the ways Southern Gospel Music as a culture memorializes its dead by use of the Internet. Naaman Wood reviews significant scholarly approaches to the study of popular music.

Evangelism that Works George Barna, 1995 Christianity-People Places, Events Through the Years - A Chronology Edward J. Babine, 2005 This book is a handy historical reference that may be used by Sunday school teachers, divinity students, clergy and others who have a general interest in people, places and events in Christianity throughout the last two thousand years. The items over 2100 are arranged in chronological order and includes Apostles, Evangelists, Reform Leaders, Martyrs, Emperors, Popes and Antipopes, Bible Versions, well known hymns, renowned Cathedrals, Patron Saints, Holy Mary apparitions, Scholars, Colleges and Universities, Crusades, major events and much more The Era of Education Lawrence J. McAndrews, 2010-10-01 This study of educational policy from Lyndon Johnson through Bill Clinton focuses on three specific issues: public school aid, non-public especially Catholic school aid and school desegregation that speak to the proper role of the federal government in education as well as to how education issues embody larger questions of opportunity, exclusion and equality in American society. Lawrence J. McAndrews traces the evolution of policy as each president developed or avoided developing a stance toward these issues and discusses the repercussions and implications of policy decisions for the educational community over nearly four decades The City in the Islamic World, Volume 94/1 & 94/2 Salma K. Jayyusi, Renata Holod, Attilio Petruccioli, Andre Raymond, 2008 The purpose of this book is to draw attention to the sites of life, politics and culture where current and past generations of the Islamic world have made their mark. Unlike many previous volumes dealing with the city in the Islamic world, this one has been expanded not only to include snapshots of historical fabric but also to deal with the transformation of this fabric into modern and contemporary urban entities. Salma Khadra Jayyusi was awarded Cultural Personality of the Year by the Sheikh Zayed Book Award for her profound contribution to Arabic literature and culture in 2020. The paperback edition of The City in the Islamic World was published to celebrate the occasion Korea Journal, 2005 With Roots and Wings Jay B. McDaniel, 2009-06-26 In With Roots and Wings to be open to the insights of people of other faiths as well as to share our own and to become centered on God. McDaniel shows where the new universe story of Thomas Berry and Brian Swimme and the Christian story meet and differ where they complement and where they supplement one another. With Roots and Wings shows how to experience both green grace that comes from opening oneself to the rhythms of the cosmos and red grace symbolized in the crucifixion of Christ, both of which are vital to a Christian ecological spirituality and praxis. Most impressive is McDaniel's ability to absorb and reflect important lessons Christians can learn from Native Americans, from Buddhists and Hindus, from Muslims and Jews. The complexity of the issues he addresses and his ability to explain them simply and clearly makes With Roots and Wings must reading for the general reader as well as ecological activists, clergy and laity alike. Nothing else comes near it in depth, power and insight.
