Multicultural Writers from Antiquity to 1945 Alba Amoia,Bettina L. Knapp,2001-10-30 The final decades of the 20th century have seen an explosion of interest in multiculturalism But multiculturalism is more than an awareness of the different cultures comprising contemporary societies For centuries people from around the world have come in contact with cultures other than their own and their exposure to multiple cultures has fostered their creativity and ability to make lasting contributions to civilization The effects of multiculturalism are especially apparent in literature since writers tend to be particularly aware of their environments and record their experiences This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 100 world writers from antiquity to 1945 who were significantly influenced by cultures other than their own Included are entries for major canonical Ancient and Modern writers of the Western and Eastern worlds Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a discussion of multicultural themes and contexts a summary of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies By illuminating the shaping influence of multiculturalism on these writers the volume points to the lasting value of multiculturalism in the contemporary world

The Columbia Anthology of Modern Korean Poetry David McCann, 2004-03-24 Korea s modern poetry is filled with many different voices and styles subjects and views moves and countermoves yet it still remains relatively unknown outside of Korea itself This is in part because the Korean language a rich medium for poetry has been ranked among the most difficult for English speakers to learn The Columbia Anthology of Modern Korean Poetry is the only up to date representative gathering of Korean poetry from the twentieth century in English far more generous in its selection and material than previous anthologies It presents 228 poems by 34 modern Korean poets including renowned poets such as So Chongju and Kim Chiha
