Mandela's release from prison In Good Faith will be of particular interest to Canadian Christians concerned with ecumenical co-operation and with the social and political dimensions of their faith Equally it will appeal to those interested in the impact of public interest organizations on public policy or the relationship between politics and business interests Minutes Taken at the Several Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America Methodist Episcopal Church, Conferences, 1879

Nesbitt, 1997-04-24 Feminization is said to occur when women enter any given occupation in substantial numbers and ostensibly leads to such dynamics as sex segregation reduced opportunities for men and depressed wages and diminished prestige for the occupation as a whole Spanning more than 70 years Paula Nesbitt's study of feminization concentrates on the Episcopal Church and the Unitarian Universalist Association utilizing both statistical results and interviews to compare occupational patterns prior and subsequent to the large influx of women clergy Among her findings the author discovers that a decline in men's opportunities is evident before the 1970s preceding the great influx of women over the last two decades She also finds that increases in the number of women ordained reduced occupational prospects for other women but enhanced those for men thus contradicting the popular myth that women in the workplace are responsible for occupational decline World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb), 2001 PAIS Bulletin, 1988 *Journal of the ...
