The Eternal Pity Reflections On Dying:

The Eternal Pity Richard John Neuhaus, 2019 Drawing upon a vast range of human experience and reflection The Eternal Pity Reflections on Dying demonstrates how people try to cope with the inevitability of death Different cultures informed by religious beliefs and sometimes desperate hope teach people to respond to their own death and the deaths of others in modes as various as defiance stoic resignation and unbridled grief In addition to examples from literature poetry and religious texts Father Richard John Neuhaus provides an intensely personal account of his encounter with death through emergency cancer surgery and reflects on how that encounter has changed the way he lives While many writers have deplored the denial of death in our culture The Eternal Pity shows how themes of death and dying are nevertheless perennial and pervasive Society may be viewed as a disorganized march of multitudes waving little banners of meaning before the threat of nonbeing that is death Some selections in this book depict people utterly surprised by their mortality others highlight how the whole of one's life can be a preparation for what used to be called a good death For some life is a relentless effort to hold death at bay for others death is although not welcomed reflectively anticipated Nothing so universally defines the human condition as the fact that we shall die The Eternal Pity helps us to understand how the prospect of death compels decisions about how we might live

The Eternal Pity Richard John Neuhaus, 2000 Drawing upon a vast range of human experience and reflection this book seeks to demonstrate how people have tried to cope with the inevitability of death

Different cultures teach people to respond to their own death and the death of others in different ways Making Sense of Dying and Death Andrew Fagan, 2004 Health illness and disease are topics well suited to interdisciplinary inquiry This book brings together scholars from around the world who share an interest in and a commitment to bridging the traditional boundaries of inquiry We hope that this book begins new conversations that will situate health in broader socio cultural contexts and establish connections between health illness and disease and other socio political issues This book is the outcome of the first global conference on Making Sense of Health Illness and Disease held at St Catherine s College Oxford in June 2002 The selected papers pursue a range of topics from the cultural significance of narratives of health illness and disease to healing practices in contemporary society as well as patients illness experiences Who Will Be Saved? Bishop William H. Willimon, 2010-09-01 What does it mean to say that salvation is God s business and God s alone Who will be saved is almost always a question about them and rarely about us Thinking itself wrapped securely in the everlasting arms the church has spent much of its history speculating on whether God will allow anyone else to join the party But if we truly believe that salvation is God s business and God s alone then perhaps we should stop asking Who will be saved and ask instead How is God calling me to participate in the redemption of the world Rejecting the idea that God chooses some and not others drawing on his Wesleyan heritage and deepening his longstanding theological conversation with Karl Barth Willimon reflects as a pastor and a theologian on God s intention that all would someday return from the far country into the loving embrace of the One who created them Where Do Broken Hearts Go? W. Ross Hastings, 2016-06-28 Grounded in the narrative of the loss of his own wife Ross Hastings seeks to provide insight into the universal human condition of loss and grief and speaks comfort All kinds of losses produce grief loss of jobs homes friendships health losses through divorce and loss through death of parents children and spouses and we are often unprepared for it Applicable to all who go through loss this book will also offer skills for pastors pastors in training and friends seeking to offer comfort to grieving people It will weave together first order theological as well as integrated psychological insights that relate to loss and grieving interspersed with personal stories The ultimately redemptive nature of grief is highlighted with sensitivity to the grieving process It offers comfort for the grieving found in fresh awareness of the orientation and action of the triune God who is for us who invites us to participate in his life and love and gathers up our grief and in Christ suffers with us It beckons us towards spiritual attentiveness permission for emotional honesty normalization of the grief process practices that enable coping and redemptive transformation in the present and hope grounded in future resurrection reality Echoes from Calvary Richard Young, 2005 This book collects some 60 printed meditations along with on two disks the complete musical performance and an analysis of how Haydn s work embodies the emotion of Christ s passion Richard John Neuhaus Randy Boyagoda, 2015-02-10 A brilliant biography of one of the intellectual mavericks of 20th Century Catholicism Richard John Neuhaus 1936 2009 was one of the most influential figures in American public life from the Civil Rights era to the War on Terror His writing activism and connections to people of power in religion politics and culture secured a place for himself and his ideas at the center of recent American history William F Buckley Jr and John Kenneth Galbraith are comparable willing controversialists and prodigious writers adept at cultivating or castigating the powerful while advancing lively arguments for the virtues and vices of the ongoing American experiment But unlike Buckley and Galbraith who have always been identified with singular political positions on the right and left respectively Neuhaus life and ideas placed him at the vanguard of events and debates across the political and cultural spectrum For instance alongside Abraham Heschel and Daniel Berrigan Neuhaus co founded Clergy Concerned About Vietnam in 1965 Forty years later Neuhaus was the subject of a New York Review of Books article by Garry Wills which cast him as a Rasputin of the far right exerting dangerous influence in both the Vatican and the Bush White House This book looks to examine Neuhaus s multi faceted life and reveal to the public what made him tick and why

Mysticism and Witness in Koinonia Maria Clara Bingemer,2023-11-10 Testimony until the end in a radical donation of life and blood can be communitarian and not only individual That is the case for the two communities of Trappists and Jesuits so different in their form and so close in their radicality One is contemplative the other active one is in Africa the other in Latin America Both are religious Catholic orders Nevertheless the cause of their violent death is secular For one there is love and dialogue with otherness other cultures other religions other beliefs For the other there is justice for those who are the victims of iniquitous economic and political systems the poor Assuming secular causes into their religious consecration and commitment those communities teach today to the plural society we live in how to be open to otherness to difference and to the various vulnerabilities that clamor for justice They also teach to the churches a new radical way to live the gospel not with a unique institutional point of view but with an unlimited openness to all hungers and thirsts of the world Their martyrdom is a liturgy celebrated publicly instigating reflection and action

Dreams, Doubt, and Dread Zachary Thomas Settle,Taylor Worley,2016-08-24 Films are modern spiritual phenomena They function as such in at least three profound ways world projection thought experiments and catharsis i e as dreams doubt and dread Understanding film in this way allows for a theological account of the experience that speaks to the religious possibilities of film that far extend the portrayal of religious themes or content Dreams Doubt and Dread The Spiritual in Film aims to address films as spiritual experiences This collection of short essays and dialogues examines films phenomenologically through the experience of the viewer as an agent having been acted upon in the functioning of the film itself Authors were invited to take one of the main themes and creatively consider how film in their experiences has provided opportunities for new modes of thinking Contributors will then engaged one another in a dialogue about the similarities and differences in their descriptions of film as spiritual phenomena The intended aim of this text is to shift contemporary theological film engagement away from a simple mode of analysis in which theological concepts are simply read into the film itself and begin to let films speak for themselves as profoundly spiritual experiences

Aging Matters R. Paul Stevens,2016 Academy of Parish Clergy s Top Ten Books for Parish Ministry Vocational discernment says R Paul Stevens is a lifelong process one that takes on even more significance in later life In this book Stevens argues that our calling does not end with formal retirement to the contrary we do well to keep on working if possible till life s end Stevens delves into matters of calling spirituality and legacy in retirement showing that we must continue to discern our vocation as we grow older in order to remain meaningfully engaged for the rest of our lives He reframes retirement as a time of continued calling and productivity and points to biblical wisdom that can help us redefine aging as an extraordinarily fruitful season of life

The Christian Religion and Biotechnology George P. Smith, 2005-03-21 Religion is a dominant force in the lives of many Americans It animates challenges directs and shapes as well the legal political and scientific agendas of the new Age of Biotechnology In a very real way religion biomedical technology and law are epistemologically different Yet they are equal vectors of force in defining reality and approaching an understanding of it Indeed all three share a synergetic relationship for they seek to understand and improve the human condition This book strikes a rich balance between thorough analysis in the body anchored in sound references to religion law and medical scientific analysis and a strong scholarly direction in the end notes It presents new insights into the decision making processes of the new Age of Biotechnology and shows how religion law and medical science interact in shaping directing and informing the political processes This volume will be of interest to both scholars and practitioners in the fields of religion and theology philosophy ethics family law science medicine political science and public policy and gender studies It will serve as a reference source and can be used in graduate and undergraduate courses in law medicine and religion

Life, God, and Other Small Topics Eric Metaxas, 2011-10-13 This book is for the seeker in all of us the collector of wisdom and the person who asks What if from the author of Bonhoeffer Miracles and Martin Luther The Greek philosopher Socrates famously said that the unexamined life is not worth living Using this as a starting point Eric Metaxas created a forum encouraging successful professionals to actively think about life s bigger questions Thus Socrates in the City was born First presented to standing room only crowds in New York City and written by luminaries such as Dr Francis Collins Sir John Polkinghorne and Os Guinness these original essays grapple with extraordinary topics from Making Sense out of Suffering to Belief in God in an Age of Science No question is too big in fact the bigger the better because nowhere is it written that finding the answers to life s biggest questions shouldn t be exciting and even perhaps fun

Soul Pain Helen Black, 2018-10-26 This book explores the multifaceted experience of suffering in old age Older adults suffer from a variety of causes such as illness loss and life disappointment to name a few Suffering also occurs due to experiences related to one s gender ethnic background and religion Although gerontological literature has equated suffering with depression grief pain and sadness elders themselves distinguished suffering from these concepts and at the same time showed how they are linked Narratives of suffering from community dwelling elders are interpreted in this book along with the personal meaning of suffering that lies within each narrative

Songs on the Death of Children Friedrich Rückert, 2022-12-20 German poet Friedrich Ruckert s 1788 1866 youngest children died of scarlet fever the pandemic of his age Over a six month period in 1834 he wrote hundreds of laments that were published posthumously in the classic poetry collection

Kindertotenlieder Here in English for the first time these evocative modern translations by a fellow bereaved father reveal an honest grappling with grief The Christian Century Each poem is accompanied by insights into the bereaved along with personal anecdotes historical and cultural information the latest research on grief and discussions of literary and biblical allusions

Human Capacities and Moral Status Russell DiSilvestro, 2010-04-21 Many debates about the moral status of things for example debates about the natural rights of human fetuses or nonhuman animals eventually migrate towards a discussion of the capacities of the things in question for example their capacities to feel pain think or love Yet the move towards capacities is often controversial if a human's capacities are the basis of its moral status how could a human having lesser capacities than you and I have the same serious moral status as you and I This book answers this question by arguing that if something is human it has a set of typical human capacities that if something has a set of typical human capacities it has serious moral status and thus all human beings have the same sort of serious moral status as you and I Beginning from what our common intuitions tell us about situations involving temporary incapacitation where a human organism has then loses then regains a certain capacity this book argues for substantive conclusions regarding human fetuses and embryos humans in a permanent vegetative state humans suffering from brain diseases and humans born with genetic disorders Since these conclusions must have some impact on our ongoing moral and political debates about the proper treatment of such humans this book will be useful to professionals and students in philosophy bioethics law medicine and public policy
