Work Play Love Mike Aquilina, 2020-02-18 Christians make the Mass and the Mass makes Christians So said the Martyrs of Abitina North Africa in A D 304 The Mass was the reality most essential to the life of believers and it deeply affected everything they did In Work Play Love popular author Mike Aquilina shows how the Eucharist shaped three basic dimensions of life for the early Christians Work Christians brought the fruits of their labor to the altar not only bread and wine but also cheese olives honey dried fish and freshly pressed oil As they worshiped they consecrated the world itself to God In turn this affected the way they approached their work It was not just toil It was an act of love undertaken for the Father They labored in imitation of Jesus the laborer Made one with Christians in the Eucharist Jesus worked through them and in them Play The Mass was a leisurely contemplative act but it was celebrated on a normal workday in the Roman world It was useless by the standards of the city And yet it called forth gently gradually the most creative responses The Mass inspired new forms of music poetry architecture and painting At liturgy Christians stood back and reconsidered the cosmos from God's perspective They saw their lives as part of a profoundly new and different narrative This made for new and different art Love Christian ritual demanded personal and communal acts of charity The earliest descriptions of the Mass show the importance of the collection and its distribution to the poor the imprisoned and the home bound sick Deacons and deaconesses were dismissed to take Communion to the same people in need The fruits of the Mass extended beyond the time of liturgy and the bounds of Christian community Christians took care even of their persecutors This led to the establishment of institutions of universal charity a first in human history The story of the Mass is not simply a rehearsal of ancient texts It's a drama of personal and societal transformation This book tells the story as much as possible in the lively words of the early Christians and draws from the most exciting discoveries of recent archaeology It is a powerful imaginative encounter with the first generations of our Christian ancestry Commodified Communion Antonio Eduardo Alonso,2021-06-01 WINNER 2021 HTI BOOK PRIZE Resist This exhortation animates a remarkable range of theological reflection on consumer culture in the United States And for many theologians the source and summit of Christian cultural resistance is the Eucharist In Commodified Communion Antonio Eduardo Alonso calls into question this dominant mode of theological reflection on contemporary consumerism Reducing the work of theology to resistance and centering Christian hope in a Eucharist that might better support it he argues undermines our ability to talk about the activity of God within a consumer culture By reframing the question in terms of God s activity in and in spite of consumer culture this book offers a lived theological account of consumer culture that recognizes not only its deceptions but also traces of truth in its broken promises and fallen hopes The Natural World and God Denis Edwards,2017-12-31 How are we to think about the natural world around us in relation to the God of Jesus Astronomers cosmologists and evolutionary biologists have opened wonderfully new ways of seeing the community of life on Earth and its place in the universe At the same time we are facing an extreme crisis of life on our planet Both of these realities demand that we rethink our theology of animals plants ecosystems as well as galaxies and stars In this book Denis Edwards collects together a series of explorations into this kind of theology The Collected Works of Edward Schillebeeckx Volume 3 Edward Schillebeeckx,2014-09-25 God the Future of Man focuses on religion and secularisation viewed from various vantage points secularisation and God talk secularisation and the church s liturgy secularisation and the church s new self understanding and finally secularisation and the future of humankind on earth in light of the eschaton church and social politics These thought provoking reflections are presented against the backdrop of Schillebeeckx s hermeneutic premises In the concluding chapter his reflections on secularisation culminate in a God concept that can function fruitfully in a modern culture that assigns the future pride of place God as the future of humankind Written in a period pregnant with Cultural Revolution and religious change the book foregrounds the pivotal issue of secularisation in a thought provoking way With feverish urgency he reflects on various forms of religiosity in the modern world His contribution to the debate could just as well have been written today The Eucharist in the Life of the Christian Ary S. Jr.,1900 The Eucharist occupies a central and profound place in the life of a Christian Drawing on the rich teachings of the Catholic Church this book investigates the spiritual meaning and transformative power of the Eucharist Ritual Participation and Interreligious Dialogue Marianne Moyaert,Joris Geldhof,2015-04-23 Shared ritual practices multi faith celebrations and interreligious prayers are becoming increasingly common in the USA and Europe as more people experience religious diversity first hand While ritual participation can be seen as a powerful expression of interreligious solidarity it also carries with it challenges of a particularly sensitive nature Though celebrating and worshiping together can enhance interreligious relations cross riting may also lead some believers to question whether it is appropriate to engage in the rituals of another faith community Some believers may consider cross ritual participation as inappropriate transgressive behaviour Bringing together leading international contributors and voices from a number of religious traditions Ritual Participation and Interreligious Dialogue delves into the complexities and intricacies of the phenomenon They ask what are the promises and perils of celebrating and praying together What are the limits of ritual participation How can we make sense of feelings of discomfort when entering the sacred space of another faith community The first book to focus on the lived dimensions of interreligious dialogue through ritual participation rather than textual or doctrinal issues this innovative volume opens an entirely new perspective Selected Works of Joseph Cardinal Bernardin Joseph Bernardin,2000 The Collected Works of James I. More Than Communion

Scott MacDougall, 2015-05-21 The dominant contemporary model for ecclesiology theological views of the church itself is the ecclesiology of communion MacDougall argues that communion ecclesiologies are often marked by a problematic theological imagination of the future eschatology He argues further that as a result our ways of practising and being the church are not as robust as they might otherwise be Reimagining the church in the light of God's promised future then becomes a critical conceptual and practical task MacDougall presents a detailed exploration of what communion ecclesiologies are and some of the problems they raise He offers two case studies of such theologies by examining how distinguished theologians John Zizioulas and John Milbank understand the church and the future how these combine in their work and the conceptual and practical implications of their perspectives He then offers an alternative theological view and demonstrates the effects that such a shift would have In doing so MacDougall offers a proposal for recovering the more to communion and to ecclesiology to help us imagine a church that is not beyond the world as in Zizioulas or over against the world as in Milbank but in and for the world in love and service This concept is worked out in conversation with systematic theologians such as Jürgen Moltmann Wolfhart Pannenberg and Johannes Baptist Metz and by engaging with a theology of Christian practices currently being developed by practical theologians such as Dorothy C Bass Craig Dykstra and those associated with their ongoing project The potential for the church to become an agent of discipleship love and service can best be realised when the church anticipates God's promised perfection in the full communion between God and humanity among human beings within human persons and between humanity and the rest of creation

Geoliturgy and Ecological Crisis Jeffrey S. Lamp, 2024-12-15 Geoliturgy and Ecological Crisis The Spiritual Practice of Caring for Creation examines sources and select practices within Christian tradition Scripture the Nicene Creed the Eucharist and fasting from an ecological perspective in order to develop a practical spirituality for living in an ecologically responsible way in the world This spirituality which Jeffrey S Lamp labels Geoliturgy describes a way to read the Bible ecologically and to understand the doctrinal content of the Nicene Creed in ecological terms Lamp then examines the Eucharist and fasting as liturgical and devotional practices that form the structure of a spirituality that extends from church services into the daily lives of the faithful The resulting vision of this study is the reclamation of the biblical mandate for human beings to function as benevolent priestly co-rulers with God in creation to prepare creation to become the dwelling place of God
