

I. We walk by faith, and not by sight:

The first system of music features a treble and bass staff in 3/4 time with a key signature of three flats. The treble staff contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment of chords and single notes.

No gra - cious words we hear

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff shows a melodic line with some tied notes, and the bass staff continues the harmonic support with chords and moving lines.

How Awesome Is This Place! (Genesis 28) E. Donald Osuna, 2011-06-07 How Awesome Is This Place is the story of how the Cathedral in Oakland California became a liturgical Mecca with a national reputation It unfolded in the 1960s through the 1980s decades fraught with turmoil within the country and the Catholic Church Father Don Osuna cathedral music and worship director for nineteen years ten as rector recalls in graphic and entertaining detail how one congregation successfully gave a form and face to the radical reforms of the Second Vatican Council His memoir is a fascinating snapshot into the soul of a community struggling to realize Pope John XXIII's vision of the Church in the modern world The creative liturgical experiments embraced all the arts including film choreography and electronic music in the service of worship This combination of art and rubric innovation and tradition was not without controversy Nor were some of the principal players But not even a clerical scandal and a Prodigal Son sequel was able to destroy a parish and a people that learned to pray minister and grow spiritually together It took an unexpected act of God to bring down the awesome place
