The European Office:

The European Office Juriaan van Meel, 2000      The European Public Prosecutor's Office L. H. Erkelens, A.W.H. Meij, M. Pawlik, 2014-09-18 In 2013 the European Commission launched its legislative proposal to create a European Public Prosecutor's Office. The proposal provoked fierce debates politically as well as on the academic level. Many national parliaments opposed and submitted formally their grievances to the Commission. Negotiations on the proposal between Member States are still ongoing. The T M C Asser Instituut held the first international conference on this unprecedented proposal. This book reflects the main results of that conference. It provides a concise background of and reasoning for the introduction of this new EU body entrusted with far reaching judicial powers disclosing important legal and policy implications. Within its hitherto limited scope the existing system of judicial cooperation between EU Member States will change fundamentally directly affecting the functioning of national courts and public prosecutions offices. How will this evolve? This book will help answering fundamental questions involved.      Lobbying the European Union Dr Paul A. Shotton, Mr Paul G Nixon, 2015-11-28 Bringing together contributions from academics and practitioners on the theme of strategic intelligent modern lobbying this book provides a thorough and accessible discussion on key ideas pertinent to the pursuance of public affairs in the European Union. Combining innovative academic research with first hand professional experience it offers the reader a combination of practical recommendations case studies and academic theory to add new insights to interest group research and lobbying strategies.      The European Convention on Human Rights Steven Greer, 2006-11-30 This book critically appraises the European Convention on Human Rights as it faces some daunting challenges. It argues that the Convention's core functions have subtly changed particularly since the ending of the Cold War and that these are now to articulate an abstract constitutional model for the entire continent and to promote convergence in the operation of public institutions at every level of governance. The implications from national compliance to European international relations including the adjudication of disputes by the European Court of Human Rights are fully explored. As the first book length socio legal examination of the Convention's principal achievements and failures this study not only blends legal and social science scholarship around the theme of constitutionalization but also offers a coherent set of policy proposals which both address the current case management crisis and suggest ways forward neglected by recent reforms.

Malta in the European Union Dr Mark Harwood,2014-12-28 Reflecting Malta s unique and often contentious road to EU membership the book explores the historical context and outlines how Maltese processes and policies have changed since membership and whether a causative link exists between these changes and Malta s membership of the EU A wide range of primary and secondary sources facilitate the study complemented by a series of interviews with a broad range of Malta s political and social actors as well as individuals from EU institutions

God and the EU Jonathan Chaplin,Gary Wilton,2015-12-14 The current political economic and financial crises facing the EU reveal a deeper cultural indeed spiritual malaise a crisis in the soul of Europe Many observers are concluding that the soul of Europe cannot be restored to health without a new appreciation of the contribution of religion to its past and future and especially that of its hugely important but widely neglected Christian heritage which is alive today even amidst advancing European secularization This book offers a fresh constructive and critical understanding of Christian contributions to the origin and development of the EU from a variety of theological and national perspectives It explains the Christian origins of the EU documents the various ways in which it has been both affirmed and critiqued from diverse theological perspectives offers expert theologically informed assessments of four illustrative policy areas of the EU trade finance environment science and also reports on the place of religion in the EU including how religious freedom is framed and how contemporary religious including Muslim actors relate to EU institutions and vice versa The book fills a major gap in the current debate about the future of the European project and will be of interest to students and scholars of religion politics and European studies
