Resowing the Seeds of War Stephen J. Heidt, 2021-03-01 Ending a war as Fred Charles Ikl wrote poses a much greater challenge than beginning one In addition to issues related to battle tactics prisoners of war diplomatic relations and cease fire negotiations ending war involves domestic political calculations Balancing the tides of public opinion versus policy needs poses a deep and enduring problem for presidents In a first of its kind study Resowing the Seeds of War explains how Presidents Truman Eisenhower Nixon and Obama managed the political policy and bureaucratic challenges that arise at the end of war via a series of rhetorical choices that reframe modify or unravel depictions of national enemies the cause of the conflict and the stakes for the nation and world This end of war rhetoric justifies ending hostilities rationalizes postwar national policy argues for the construction of postwar security arrangements and often sustains public support for massive financial investment in reconstruction By tracking presidential manipulations of savage imagery from World War II to the War on Terror this book concludes that even as metaphoric reframing facilitates exit from conflict it incurs unexpected consequences that make national involvement in the next conflict more likely Modernist Fraud Leonard

Diepeveen, 2019-02-05 Focusing on literature and visual art in the years 1910 1935 Modernist Fraud begins with the omnipresent accusations that modernism was not art at all but rather an effort to pass off patently absurd works as great art These assertions common in the time s journalism are used to understand the aesthetic and context which spawned them and to look at what followed in their wake Fraud discourse ventured into the aesthetic theory of the time to ideas of artistic sincerity formalism and the intentional fallacy In doing so it profoundly shaped the modern canon and its justifying principles Modernist Fraud explores a wide range of materials It draws on reviews and newspaper accounts of art scandals such as the 1913 Armory Show the 1910 and 1912 Postimpressionist shows and Tender Buttons to daily syndicated columns to parodies and doggerel to actual hoaxes such as Spectra and Disumbrationism to the literary criticism of Edith Sitwell to the trial of Brancusi s Bird in Space and to the contents of the magazine Blind Man including a defense of Duchamp s Fountain a poem by Bill Brown and the works of and an interview with the bafflingly unstable painter Louis Eilshemius In turning to these materials the book reevaluates how modernism interacted with the public and describes how a new aesthetic begins not as a triumphant explosion that initiates irrevocable changes but as an uncertain muddling and struggle with ideology Edgar
